

QUARTERLY LIST OF
COMMUNITY ISSUES
AND RESPONSIVE PROGRAMS

JULY 1ST THROUGH SEPT 30TH 2018

In an ongoing effort to serve the public interest, KQOB and its owners, Champlin Broadcasting, Inc. offers a variety of programming, responsive to the issues of concern to the listening audience. Below is a list of the station's most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period of JULY 1ST THROUGH SEPT 30TH 2018

HEALTHCARE- This station chose to address a variety of health issues of continuing importance to our listeners. These issues cover areas of health care ranging from infants to adults.

THE ARTS- This station believes it is important to support the arts and the entities that work hard to bring the arts to this community, whether it be a museum or a theater group.

ENVIRONMENTAL AWARENESS- This station strives, whenever possible, to alert the community to opportunities to make the environment in which they live a better, healthier one.

COMMUNITY AWARENESS- This station has worked to provide non-profit agencies an outlet to inform the community about services available to them.

SAFETY- this station makes an effort to inform its listeners of ways to make their world safer by having knowledgeable people talk about a variety of pertinent issues.

EDUCATION- this station chose members of the educational community to inform listeners of classes, workshops and other opportunities to be better educated.

ECONOMY- this station has given professionals the chance to inform its listeners of its economic health and ways to improve the business environment.

FAMILY- this station supports families and their day-to-day issues. It has brought information that covers issues ranging from better parenting to how to be a better sibling/student.

Public Service for 3rd Quarter 2018 July-October

7/1

The Norman Conquest Bike race is coming up on the 13th and we spoke with Greg Gaston from Camp Claphans about the event. The proceeds will go to benefit the camp which is for developmentally disabled kids who also have physical issues.

The Regional Food Bank of Oklahoma also is in need of volunteers, so we spoke with them as well.

7/8

A repeat of last week's episodes ran again this week.

7/15

A new Food Bank episode aired featuring another facet of operations.

We also played the Fraternal Order of Police's previous interview as well,

7/22

The Actor's Pavilion is a non-profit organization which helps kids in Purcell learn about acting and filmmaking. We interviewed the founder and two of the kids involved.

We also had Oklahoma Atheists in the house talking about their efforts to help with childhood vaccinations in cooperation with the Caring Van.

7/29

The City Rescue Mission interview was replayed. We also revisited the interview with Parents Helping Parents.

8/5

Oklahoma Lawyers for Children joined us to talk about their efforts in advocating for the rights of kids whose parents are being prosecuted and their custody issues.

Oklahoma Society of CPA's came in to discuss back to school expenses and how to save money.

8/12

Rainbow Fleet Childcare placement services interview

Pine Pantry interview replay

8/19

Upward Transitions came to talk about helping the homeless move forward and out of the cycle of poverty

Regional Food Bank replay.

8/26

Bricktown Freaky Book Bang came to talk about their October event which features local authors.

Pine Pantry replay

9/2

Sunbeam Family Services came in to announce this year's kid governor and brought him in to talk about what he has planned for his term.

We had two guests from the Paseo District to talk about the Arts Festival.

9/9

Oklahoma Lawyers for children returned with a new event to promote on Sept. 29th

The girls from the ONIE project are back with new information about their program

9/16

We had representatives from the Oklahoma City County Health Dept. to discuss infant mortality. Kids Joining Eternity also came in to talk about their services in helping grieving families cope with the death of a child.

9/23

The Oklahoma City County Health Dept. returned, but this time to promote the community wellness programs of Open Streets with their upcoming event.

Replay of Sunbeam Family Services.

9/30

Regional Food Bank of Oklahoma brought in a representative from the Moore Food and Resource Center to explain what part they play in the Moore community.

We had a rep from the Paseo District come in to talk about more programs for artists in their organization. She brought in a rep from a publishing company who has events in the district from writers and performers.