

QUARTERLY LIST OF
COMMUNITY ISSUES
AND RESPONSIVE PROGRAMS

January 1, 2016 through March 31, 2016

In an ongoing effort to serve the public interest, KQOB and its owners, Chisholm Trail Broadcasting, Inc. offers a variety of programming, responsive to the issues of concern to the listening audience. Below is a list of the station's most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period of January 1, 2015 through March 31, 2015.

HEALTHCARE- This station chose to address a variety of health issues of continuing importance to our listeners. These issues cover areas of health care ranging from infants to adults.

THE ARTS- This station believes it is important to support the arts and the entities that work hard to bring the arts to this community, whether it be a museum or a theater group.

ENVIRONMENTAL AWARENESS- This station strives, whenever possible, to alert the community to opportunities to make the environment in which they live a better, healthier one.

COMMUNITY AWARENESS- This station has worked to provide non-profit agencies an outlet to inform the community about services available to them.

SAFETY- this station makes an effort to inform its listeners of ways to make their world safer by having knowledgeable people talk about a variety of pertinent issues.

EDUCATION- this station chose members of the educational community to inform listeners of classes, workshops and other opportunities to be better educated.

ECONOMY- this station has given professionals the chance to inform its listeners of its economic health and ways to improve the business environment.

FAMILY- this station supports families and their day-to-day issues. It has brought information that covers issues ranging from better parenting to how to be a better sibling/ student.

PROGRAMMING

JANUARY 3, 2016 We spoke with CAMPFIRE HEART OF OKLAHOMA, a youth development organization established in 1929. They have been in the same location in OKC since 1956. They are unique in that they provide a country type experience right in the heart of the city. They provide a variety of outdoor educational programs for boys and girls ages 5-18

Jan. 10 , 2016 We interviewed Children First and it is offered through the Oklahoma City County Health Department. Every expectant parent wants the best for their unborn child. Children First helps first-time mothers make the best decisions for the future of their children.

Jan. 17, 2016 The show featured Oklahoma Society of CPA's on preparing for your taxes with Amy Welch and Joshua Jensen, CPA.

My Heart with the Oklahoma City county health dept. about free programs that teach people to eat well and exercise to keep their hearts healthy.

Jan. 27, 2016 we featured Carrie Brown from Payne Education Center, and organization that trains teachers to better educate students with dyslexia and other learning disabilities. We discussed their upcoming fundraiser, a trivia night at Quail Creek Country club from 6-9.

Our second guest was Bevin Graybill, of the Metro Literacy Coalition. Their mission is to provide referrals and services to the 140,000 individuals in Oklahoma who have limited literacy skills.

Feb.7 Susan Agel of Positive Tomorrows, a school for homeless children.

Feb.14 The Oklahoma Society of CPA's joined us to talk about financial infidelity. Campfire Heart of Oklahoma returned to discuss programs.

Feb 21st The Food Bank of Oklahoma came to talk about their upcoming event, the Chef's Feast. We spoke with Angie Doss and Christine Doud.

Feb 28th CASA for Oklahoma County. Court Appointed Special Advocates provide a stable person for kids who have been taken from their parents or who have to appear in court.

Peter Hodges with Okc home and auto show for their part in helping the cause.

YWCA Run event, the 2 minute 5k to support women who have been sexually assaulted

March 6th We welcomed back the Oklahoma Society of CPAS to talk about last minute tax tips.

Girl Scouts stopped by to talk cookie sales

Arts Council discussed upcoming Arts Festival

March 13th Open Streets is a festival that is held each year to get people out to promote healthy living.

Girl scouts gave a cookie pitch and we spoke to Johnny Baier from the Banjo Museum about their Steve Martin exhibit

March 20th An event that benefits Moore animal shelter was discussed and we gave more information about the Open Streets event Sunday April 3rd

March 27th Bark for life for the American Heart association joined us and brought Cardiologist Sharere Ali to talk about the benefits of walking.

Jeremy Timms from The Fellowship of Christian Athletes stopped by to talk about their annual awards Banquet coming up April 6th.

