

QUARTERLY LIST OF COMMUNITY ISSUES AND RESPONSIVE PROGRAMS

JULY 1-SEPTEMBER 30TH

In an ongoing effort to serve the public interest, KQOB and its owners, Champlin Broadcasting, Inc. offers a variety of programming, responsive to the issues of concern to the listening audience. Below is a list of the station's most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period of JULY 1-SEPTEMBER 30TH

HEALTHCARE- This station chose to address a variety of health issues of continuing importance to our listeners. These issues cover areas of health care ranging from infants to adults.

THE ARTS- This station believes it is important to support the arts and the entities that work hard to bring the arts to this community, whether it be a museum or a theater group.

ENVIRONMENTAL AWARENESS- This station strives, whenever possible, to alert the community to opportunities to make the environment in which they live a better, healthier one.

COMMUNITY AWARENESS- This station has worked to provide non-profit agencies an outlet to inform the community about services available to them.

SAFETY- this station makes an effort to inform its listeners of ways to make their world safer by having knowledgeable people talk about a variety of pertinent issues.

EDUCATION- this station chose members of the educational community to inform listeners of classes, workshops and other opportunities to be better educated.

ECONOMY- this station has given professionals the chance to inform its listeners of its economic health and ways to improve the business environment.

FAMILY- this station supports families and their day-to-day issues. It has brought information that covers issues ranging from better parenting to how to be a better sibling/student.

3rd Quarter 2019

July 7th

The folks from the Oklahoma Tax Commission joined us to discuss changes to the law regarding car tags. We also hosted the Oklahoma City County Health Dept. so they could fill us in on their ongoing Total Wellness program for citizens.

July 14th

An organization called Circle of Care came in to discuss their Caring for Children program. We replayed the Tax Commission information.

July 21st

We had representatives from the Mid-del Group Home join us for a conversation about their organization. We replayed the Total Wellness segment from the Health Dept.

July 28th

Hope is Alive is an organization that operates half-way houses for men and women who are recovering from drug addiction and they came in to explain how their program works.

Aug. 4th

The D2D or Destined to Dance Awards founder brought two volunteers in to talk about their upcoming festival. Amy Welch from the Oklahoma Society of CPA's came in to talk about what kids really need for college.

Aug 11th

Replay of D2D Awards Festival. The regional food bank of OK came in to talk about an urgent need to get donations and volunteers for the Food For Kids program.

Aug 18th

We had two teaches who founded the Moore War Run in Moore come in to talk about their upcoming race which raises money for Moore schools. Campfire Heart of Oklahoma joined us to discuss the success of summer camp this year and their upcoming event.

Aug 25th

Sunbeam family services came in to talk about raising money for their head-start program. We did a replay of Campfire Heart of Oklahoma

Sept 1st

Best Friends of Pets is a non-profit organization that provides low income families reduced cost spay and neuter for their pets. They came in to discuss fundraising efforts.

Mutt Misfits brought two members in to tell us about special needs pets and their adoption efforts.

Sept 8th

The American Cancer Society brought in two breast cancer survivors, one man and one woman.

Best Friends of pets replayed.

Sept 15th

Representatives from the Oklahoma center for the book came in to talk about the 2nd annual Oklahoma Book Festival event.

Hearts for Hearing is a fundraising fashion show and two representatives filled us in on the details which help children born with hearing loss.

Sept 22

Replay of Regional Food Bank September match for Food for Kids, and Mutt Misfits.

Sept. 29th

A gentleman from the Vaping Adovcates of Oklahoma explained his stance on the banning of vape products in Oklahoma. We replayed the American Cancer Society segment.