

QUARTERLY LIST
OF
COMMUNITY ISSUES
AND RESPONSIVE PROGRAMS

APRIL 1ST THROUGH JUNE 30TH 2017

In an ongoing effort to serve the public interest, KQOB and its owners, Champlin Broadcasting, Inc. offers a variety of programming, responsive to the issues of concern to the listening audience. Below is a list of the station's most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period of APRIL 1ST THROUGH JUNE 30TH 2017

HEALTHCARE- This station chose to address a variety of health issues of continuing importance to our listeners. These issues cover areas of health care ranging from infants to adults.

THE ARTS- This station believes it is important to support the arts and the entities that work hard to bring the arts to this community, whether it be a museum or a theater group.

ENVIRONMENTAL AWARENESS- This station strives, whenever possible, to alert the community to opportunities to make the environment in which they live a better, healthier one.

COMMUNITY AWARENESS- This station has worked to provide non-profit agencies an outlet to inform the community about services available to them.

SAFETY- this station makes an effort to inform its listeners of ways to make their world safer by having knowledgeable people talk about a variety of pertinent issues.

EDUCATION- this station chose members of the educational community to inform listeners of classes, workshops and other opportunities to be better educated.

ECONOMY- this station has given professionals the chance to inform its listeners of its economic health and ways to improve the business environment.

FAMILY- this station supports families and their day-to-day issues. It has brought information that covers issues ranging from better parenting to how to be a better sibling/student.

2ND QUARTER SUNDAY MORNING MAGAZINE PUBLIC SERVICE REPORT 2017 CUMULUS OKC

April 2nd

Oklahoma Association of CPA's sent Amy Welch over to discuss some last minute tips for deductions on this year's tax returns as well as other tax advice and information for tax help. We also welcomed the organizers of the Redbud Classic to discuss this year's anniversary bike race and 5K & 10K.

April 9th

Our two guests on Sunday Morning Magazine this week were Circle of Care of OKC which provide hope and care to families and children in crisis, and a segment on safe digging practices from Okie 811.

April 16th

Sunbeam Family services returned to the program to highlight another facet of their care programs, Grandparents Caring for Grandchildren and what they do to help family cope with those challenges. Camp Claphans had Greg Gaston come in to discuss their annual fundraiser, the Gutter Dance.

April 23rd

The Oklahoma City Memorial Marathon brought some members of their team in to discuss the upcoming race. We also welcomed the Food Bank of Oklahoma in to help with their food matching campaign.

April 30th

The Oklahoma Foundation For Medical Quality was featured as the first guest and was able to enlighten the public about what they do. Upward Transitions spends their time and resources helping to assist homeless and displaced families move toward housing solutions and we talked with them on the second segment of the program.

May 7th

We were able to provide a second opportunity for OFMQ and Upward Transitions to spread their message.

May 14th.

A group called Girls on the Run hosts an annual race for the empowerment of girls and their educational opportunities. We also spoke to the organizers of the OKC Airshow

May 21st

Rainbow Fleet is an organization that helps to educate daycare providers and assist parents who take their children to daycare. The Aids Care Fund helps to care for and get funding for Aids patients and they are doing another fundraiser.

May 28th

The Make-A-Wish Foundation send a representative to talk about her time serving the organization and letting the public know about how they can help kids in need. The Infant Crisis center came in to discuss their organization and fundraising efforts.

June 4th

We were able to provide a second opportunity for both the Make-a-Wish Foundation and the Infant Crisis center to spread their message.

June 11th

The Boathouse District of OKC has just opened their facility and we were able to discuss their efforts in depth. We also had a representative from the Fellowship of Christian Athletes on the program to talk about their upcoming banquet and honored guests.

June 18th

Camp Claphans came back to highlight another fundraising effort on their upcoming schedule. We also spoke with a representative of the OK County Health Department regarding their mosquito control efforts and what the public can do to help.

June 25th.

The Oklahoma Medical Research Foundation joined us to talk about their Lupis research study which is in need of participants. We also re-ran the previous interview with the Oklahoma City County Health department.