

QUARTERLY LIST OF COMMUNITY ISSUES AND RESPONSIVE PROGRAMS

JULY 1ST THROUGH SEPTEMBER 30TH 2017

In an ongoing effort to serve the public interest, KQOB and its owners, Champlin Broadcasting, Inc. offers a variety of programming, responsive to the issues of concern to the listening audience. Below is a list of the station's most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period of JULY 1ST THROUGH SEPTEMBER 30^T2017

HEALTHCARE- This station chose to address a variety of health issues of continuing importance to our listeners. These issues cover areas of health care ranging from infants to adults.

THE ARTS- This station believes it is important to support the arts and the entities that work hard to bring the arts to this community, whether it be a museum or a theater group.

ENVIRONMENTAL AWARENESS- This station strives, whenever possible, to alert the community to opportunities to make the environment in which they live a better, healthier one.

COMMUNITY AWARENESS- This station has worked to provide non-profit agencies an outlet to inform the community about services available to them.

SAFETY- this station makes an effort to inform its listeners of ways to make their world safer by having knowledgeable people talk about a variety of pertinent issues.

EDUCATION- this station chose members of the educational community to inform listeners of classes, workshops and other opportunities to be better educated.

ECONOMY- this station has given professionals the chance to inform its listeners of its economic health and ways to improve the business environment.

FAMILY- this station supports families and their day-to-day issues. It has brought information that covers issues ranging from better parenting to how to be a better sibling/ student.

SUNDAY MORNING MAGAZINE: PUBLIC SERVICE QUARTERLY REPORT
JULY-SEPT 2017

JULY 2

We were able to do a replay of our interview with Camp Claphans. The second segment featured the Oklahoma City County Health Dept. with ways to keep our yards mosquito free this summer.

JULY 9

Youth Services of Oklahoma sent two representatives to discuss programs available to homeless youth in our city. Information regarding research into the Lupis Foundation and strides being made in treatment were also discussed.

JULY 16

We had three representatives from the Food Bank of Oklahoma join us to discuss a variety of topics. The main topic was ways in which they are helping to feed low income children who do not have access to their school lunches during the summer. We also talked about food pantry access and preparations for the backpack program.

JULY 23

Two representatives from The Aids Care Fund came in to discuss the services they offer to local Aids patients and their upcoming fundraising activities. Amy Welch from the Oklahoma Society of CPA's came on to talk about ways to save on summer vacation.

JULY 30

We did a replay of Youth Services segment and Aids Care fun segments.

AUG 6

R.A.C.E. Dance Company stands for Radical Application of Creative Energy and is a dance company for young people of race in Oklahoma. They were here to educate us about the existence of the company and let us know of their upcoming performances. Best Friends of Pets brought two representatives to the studio to discuss spay and neuter clinics and lower cost pet care for those in need.

AUG 13

Calm Waters is a grief counseling service for young people that helps kids get through difficult times with group sessions with their peers.

Sunbeam Family Services returns to introduce their "Kid Governor". They elect a different child every year!

AUG 20

The Central Oklahoma Workforce helps people who are currently out of work to discover new career paths and a way forward after job loss.

Food Drives happening in the metro were discussed by reps from The Food Bank of Oklahoma

AUG 27

Old Germany restaurant brought two representatives in plus the mayor of Choctaw to talk about how Oktoberfest pays it forward to their community.

Camp Claphans camp for developmentally disabled kids is holding their fundraising poker run. Greg Gaston came on the show to give us details.

SEPT 3

We did a replay of last week's shows with Octoberfest and Camp Claphans as the feature.

Sept 10

Open Streets is a program for health and wellness in the community and Moore hosted one for the first time. Two representatives from the organizing committees joined us to talk about the featured activities.

Wiggle Out Loud is an outdoor music festival organized by and benefitting OU Children's Hospital. We visited with the organizers and some hospital employees about the concert and some new things happening for the pint sized patients at their hospital.

SEPT 17

We had three guests to talk about breast cancer awareness month which is upcoming in October. Project Woman which helps provide breast care for low income women also joined us for the discussion.

The Oklahoma City County Health Department brought two people in to discuss teen pregnancy prevention efforts in our county. This includes education programs, birth control and even peer groups.

SEPT 24

Amy Welch from the Oklahoma Society of CPA's talked with us about how to form a disaster plan to be ready with your finances and important papers in case of natural disasters.

The Parkinson Foundation brought two people in to talk about the disease. Symptoms and signs plus treatment and fundraising for research were also discussed.