

QUARTERLY LIST OF COMMUNITY ISSUES AND RESPONSIVE PROGRAMS

APRIL 1-JUNE 30TH 2019

In an ongoing effort to serve the public interest, KQOB and its owners, Champlin Broadcasting, Inc. offers a variety of programming, responsive to the issues of concern to the listening audience. Below is a list of the station's most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period of APRIL 1-JUNE 30TH 2019

HEALTHCARE- This station chose to address a variety of health issues of continuing importance to our listeners. These issues cover areas of health care ranging from infants to adults.

THE ARTS- This station believes it is important to support the arts and the entities that work hard to bring the arts to this community, whether it be a museum or a theater group.

ENVIRONMENTAL AWARENESS- This station strives, whenever possible, to alert the community to opportunities to make the environment in which they live a better, healthier one.

COMMUNITY AWARENESS- This station has worked to provide non-profit agencies an outlet to inform the community about services available to them.

SAFETY- this station makes an effort to inform its listeners of ways to make their world safer by having knowledgeable people talk about a variety of pertinent issues.

EDUCATION- this station chose members of the educational community to inform listeners of classes, workshops and other opportunities to be better educated.

ECONOMY- this station has given professionals the chance to inform its listeners of its economic health and ways to improve the business environment.

FAMILY- this station supports families and their day-to-day issues. It has brought information that covers issues ranging from better parenting to how to be a better sibling/student.

Sunday Morning Magazine guests for 2nd quarter 2019

April 7th

Two representatives from the YWCA came to the studio to discuss a new fundraiser to replace their usual run. They will have a Casino night instead and are very excited to share the details. Their sexual assault help for women is vital to OKC and the funds raised will help tremendously.

Open Streets is holding its 23rd street event and Lori Ford brought a guest in to talk about the different events that will be available at the event.

April 14th

Tax day is a stressful time, so we had our favorite CPA Jimmy come in to walk people through what they need to do to file and extension if they aren't ready. Amy Welch also gave the free information from the Oklahoma Society of CPA's.

OKASA is having a wheelchair basketball event and they brought a wheelchair athlete along to talk about his journey and educate people about what OKASA does.

April 21st

Greg Gaston joined us to bring information from the JD Mcarty Center and Camp Claphans and their fundraiser the Gutter Dance. The ladies from Preservation Oklahoma came back to share information about saving historically important buildings in Oklahoma.

April 28th

Phil was back to give us safety tips so we can protect ourselves against West Nile Virus and other mosquito borne illnesses.

The ladies from the YWCA came back to discuss what they are doing to help immigrant women who have been victims of sexual and domestic violence.

May 5th

We did a repeat of the YWCA segment and welcomed Cathy and the other people from the Regional Food Bank of Oklahoma in to talk about the Letter Carriers Food Drive.

May 12th

Ride for the Kids came in to let us know about the good work they do in helping provide less fortunate kids with gifts and support through their poker run.

We featured segment on ticks and tick borne diseases by the Oklahoma City County Health Dept.

May 19th

Another visit from Preservation Oklahoma helped us to learn about the importance of preserving local architecture for future generations.

The tick segment from the health dept played again.

May 26th

The folks from OKASA came in again with a different guest to talk about their fundraising efforts. Amy Welch brought in some information about how to save money during family vacations and other info from the Oklahoma Society of CPA's.

June 2nd

Campfire Heart of Oklahoma brought 3 representatives to talk about everything they have to offer in their summer camps for kids.

Sunbeam Family Services brought information in about their senior companions program which they were taking applications for. A companion acts like an advocate and someone for them to talk to who is closer to their age.

June 9th

The Oklahoma Medical Research foundation brought some members from their research team to talk about ongoing research projects.

The Foundation for OKC Public Schools came in to share their work with Read OKC which helps provide books to kids through "little free libraries" at areas near schools so kids will have access to reading material through the summer.

June 16th

We did a replay of the previous week's shows.

June 23rd

Sunbeam Family services talked to us about the Grandparents Raising Grandchildren program and other things they offer. This includes support groups for all kids of caregivers.

The Norman Conquest is coming up. We had people from the Norman Bike group as well as Greg Gaston from the charity recipient, Camp Claphans in the studio.

June 30th

AOK is hard at work in the community, doing good things! Oklahoma Atheists are offering free vaccinations to kids on several dates this summer. They are operating in conjunction with The Caring Foundation and the Caring Van who also came on the show to tell all about what they offer for kids.

The second segment is a repeat of a previous show from OKC Foundation for Public Schools.
