FAITH/CULTURE 12/3/17 CBS Religion & Culture: Faith on the Frontlines
Religion 8:00AM 30 MINS

A CBS Interfaith special that looked at the interfaith clergy movement that has vowed to take on white supremacy. As the Charlottesville, Va. city council discussed plans to remove confederate statues from local parks, tension within the community was mounting. In May and July, two separate demonstrations by white nationalists and Ku Klux Klan members inspired counter-protests by local activists, including clergy. This summer, as word got out about the size and scope of an upcoming white supremacist Unite the Right rally, local faith leaders quickly mobilized and formed Congregate Charlottesville. In addition to non-violent direct action training, the group invited national faith leaders and lay people from around the country to join them in their counter-protest against white supremacy.
