

Issue	Description of Program/Segment
Healthcare	Address the symptoms and causes of common health issues and encourage listeners with some tips that will help them get healthy.
Family Issues	Present topics relating to the family that will help strengthen the family unit.
Raising Kids	Offer parents guidance regarding the problems they face in raising their children.
Education	Offer information about schools, scholarships, programs and opportunities to further one's education.
Financial Counseling	Discuss issues relating to finances with a view to help people who are struggling in this area of their life.
Legal Counsel	Give legal advice on common issues that plague people in the community.
Marriatal Problems	Address issues that affect married couples and help them have a healthy relationship
Counseling	Help those struggling with life issues by offering wise counsel that will point people to where they can find hope and healing.