Issues and Programs
Second Quarter of 2023

The list is not all inclusive and the order does not indicate the significance.

Monday through Friday

5:00 am – National Ag News

5:03 am – Healthy Living

5:15 am – Farm Progress America with Max Armstrong

5:30 am - Dairy Now with Bill Baker

5:35 am – Wisconsin Ag News

5:50 am – COW97 Local Farm Market

5:52 am – COW97 Ag Forecast

5:54 am – Managing for Profit

Saturday

5:00 am – COW97 Ag Weekend Report

5:20 am – Daily Radio Minute

5:30 am – Dairy Radio Rewind with Bill Baker

5:50 am – Farm Progress America

6:16 am – Best of Healthy Living

Ag Market Updates

8:10 am / 11:02 am / 12:15 pm / 2:50 pm / 5:50 pm

Crime: On March 31, Madeline Kingsbury of Winona, MN was reported missing after not reporting to work or returning phone calls. The search went on for 69 days, with the search coming to an after finding human remains which were those of Madeline Kingsbury. The father of her children, Adam Fravel has been arrested on probable cause of her death.

Community: On Tuesday, May 16th the groundbreaking ceremony took place for the expansion of the Sparta Free Library. There were about 84 in attendance to include library director Michelle Tryggestad, community members, Friends of the Sparta Free library, and other dignitaries. It was an exciting day for all in attendance.

Election: April 2023 resulted in the single most money spent on a Supreme Court Justice election. The new Supreme Court Justice is Janet Prosaowitz.

Education: The Sparta Area School District held graduation on Friday, May 26th at 7:00 pm on the newly renovated Memorial Field.

Community: Community Calendar. Read every Monday through Friday at 9:30. A list of upcoming events happening in the community. Including but not limited to blood drives and charity fundraisers.

Community: Local newscasts produced and broadcasted at 6,7,8, noon and 5 Monday thru Friday and at 7,8 and noon Saturday.