

Quarterly Issues and Programming for 1st Quarter 2017

WOVO – 106.3 FM

The staff of WOVO continuously supports community events, charities and artistic endeavors. It is our policy that each announcer provides two PSA oriented talk sets per day part. Also, WOVO provides information on community events and arts through the station website. These activities are ongoing. Detailed below are events that WOVO supported via participation, live broadcasts, PSAs etc. during the quarter.

Severe weather coverage – WOVO has an ongoing partnership with WBKO to provide accurate and timely information in terms of hazardous conditions, power outages, and school closings

WOVO also lent promotional help too various charity activities, including the WKU Alumni Association's "Red White and Brew", a benefit truck and tractor pull in Temple Hill, a benefit breakfast for the Barren County HS Band, a sale at the Glasgow Papa John's benefitting the Build A Bed Project.

Quarterly Issues and Programming for 2nd Quarter 2017

WOVO – 106.3 FM

The staff of WOVO continuously supports community events, charities and artistic endeavors. It is our policy that each announcer provides two PSA oriented talk sets per day part. Also, WOVO provides information on community events and arts through the station website. These activities are ongoing. Detailed below are events that WOVO supported via participation, live broadcasts, PSAs etc. during the quarter.

23rd Annual Junior Achievement Mini Corvette Challenge — raises money for Junior Achievement's fiscal and business education programs.

11th Annual VetJam — a day-long musical event, with auctions and raffles that raise money for community veteran's organizations.

Red Cross – WOVO partnered with WBKO TV and The American Red Cross to raise donations for tornado relief

Quarterly Issues and Programming for 3rd Quarter 2017

WOVO – 106.3 FM

The staff of WOVO continuously supports community events, charities and artistic endeavors. It is our policy that each announcer provides two PSA oriented talk sets per day part. Also, WOVO provides information on community events and arts through the station website. These activities are ongoing. Detailed below are events that WOVO supported via participation, live broadcasts, PSAs etc. during the quarter.

Thunder Fest - The Kiwanis Club of Bowling Green has staged the event for over 40 years as a fund-raiser for more than 30 children's organizations in Bowling Green and Warren County with 100% of the proceeds being returned to non-profit organizations.

Red Cross – WOVO partnered with WBKO TV and The American Red Cross to raise donations for hurricane relief

Cram The Cruiser – WOVO partnered with various police agencies to raise school supplies for area children.