

FCC Quarterly Issues and Programming List

Submitted by Nic Garza Programming Director Bunyard Broadcasting, Inc.

1st Quarter January 1, 2020 - March 31, 2020

KDQN AM 1390/FM 104.1

Issue 1: Hispanic businesses owners lack knowledge of what business resources are available

Programs to address Issue #1

Date: January 27, 2020

Time: 9:00 am

Program: Acordeon Cristiano

Length: 15 minutes

Description: In-studio guest Daniel Martinez with UA Cossatot visited with show host, Diego Martinez about the resources that are available for Hispanic businesses through UA Cossatot and the State of Arkansas.

Issue 2: Need for more foster families

Program to address Issue #2

Date: January 2, 2020

Time: 9:00 am

Program: Acordeon Cristiano

Length: 15 minutes

Description: Angela Coston, with "For the Sake of One", visited with show host Diego Martinez & translator Esmeralda Contreras, about the need for more foster families. She stated that there are many children that need temporary and long-term foster families in this area. She appealed to area churches to assist them in getting these children placed with good families.

Issue 3: Need for drug-alcohol program for Hispanics

Program to address Issue #3

Date: March 2, 2020

Time: 9:00 am

Program: Acordeon Cristiano

Length: 15 minutes

Description: Speaker Miquel Telles visited on air with show host Diego Martinez about a Free Drug & Alcohol program sponsored by Saint Barbara Catholic Church and the De Queen Police Department. "Fuerza Transformador" was held on Saturday, March 7th and had free admission for persons 18 and older.

Issue 4: The Need For Everyone to Be Counted during the 2020 Census

Programs to address Issue #4

Date: February 26, 2020

Time: 9:00 am

Program: Acordeon Cristiano

Length: 15 minutes

Description: In-studio guest Erika Buenrostro with UA Cossatot explained to KDQN listeners how important it was for Hispanics to fill out their 2020 Census forms. She stressed that you will not be asked for your immigration or citizenship status, income or social security number. And, that these 2020 Census numbers will determine school funding, monies received for roads, public transportation and infrastructure, community resources and political representation for the next 10 years. You can either fill out the forms you received in the mail from the U.S. Census Bureau or can self-report online at <https://my2020census.gov/>. Local contact is Omar Gallardo (870)584-9329 or omargall2010@gmail.com

Issue 5: Maintaining a healthy community during a pandemic

Programs to address Issue #5

Date: March 16, 2020

Time: 9:00 am

Program: Acordeon Cristiano

Length: 15 minutes

Description: Erika Buenrostro with UA Cossatot spoke with show host Diego Martinez about school closures due to the COVID-19 pandemic. She stressed that everyone needed to sanitize their homes and work places, wash their hands, and stay away from large crowds.

Programs to address Issue #5

Date: March 20, 2020

Time: 9:00 am

Program: Acordeon Cristiano

Length: 15 minutes

Description: Nic Garza and Diego Marrtinez visited with De Queen Mayor Jeff Brown and Sevier County Judge Greg Ray about the measures being taken locally to help contain the spread of the Corona virus. They reported that there was a confirmed case in Sevier County and curfew has been issued until further notice for youths 18 & under for both the city & county.

Jay Bunyard, Station Manager KDQN AM 1390/FM 104.1

4/10/2020

Date Posted