

Issue Category	Show Title	Programming description	Date	Time	Duration
Housing	Inquiring Socialist	IURA contributions to affordable housing	1/5/2024	10:00:00 AM	0:27:30
Human Rights	Human Rights and Social Justice Program	We talk about the history of slavery in New York and the state's recent law creating a commission to study reparations.	1/5/2024	9:00:00 AM	0:59:30
Violence	Made of Clay Report	Disarming Violation and Violence in Everyday Life	1/7/2024	10:00:00 AM	1:58:31
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	If you're heading to a hospital anytime soon you may be required to wear a face mask again. The City of Ithaca is now $161 million in debt thanks to a recent vote by the Common Council to fund new infrastructure projects. The National Weather Service in Binghamton issued a wind advisory on Tuesday.	1/9/2024	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	There's another wind advisory in effect for parts of central New York including Cortland County south into northern Pennsylvania. Tuesday's storms left over 5,000 customers without power in Tompkins and Cortland counties. If you're having trouble paying your power bills you may be able to get help at one of two upcoming events hosted by state Assembly representative Anna Kelles. And speaking of household expenses your cable bill might be going up if you're a Spectrum customer.	1/10/2024	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	For the seven days between December 28 and January 4 state health records show there were 91 COVID cases reported in Tompkins County. The former town supervisor of Throop in Cayuga County pleaded guilty to stealing almost $11,000 between 2017 and 2019. The New York Department of Environmental Conservation (DEC) has issued a draft guidance policy for public water treatment facilities to set monitoring levels for PFAS, PFOS, and 1,4 Dioxane.	1/11/2024	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
Human Rights	Human Rights and Social Justice Program	We talk about Guantanamo.	1/12/2024	9:00:00 AM	0:59:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	Cornell President Martha Pollock has condemned a social media post that called for the death of Zionists. Tompkins Cortland Community College (TC3) is among nine community colleges in the SUNY system asked to provide additional financial or enrollment information to its accrediting organization. Congressman Marc Molinaro launched his reelection campaign on Friday.	1/12/2024	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
Violence	Made of Clay Report	Disarming Violation and Violence in Everyday Life	1/14/2024	10:00:00 AM	1:58:31
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	According to the Elmira Star Gazette, on Tuesday, the Elmira City Council will consider a proposal to rename the city's Madison Avenue Bridge after two pillars of Elmira's Black Community, Ithaca's new mayor Robert Cantalmo outlined priorities for his first term in an interview with the Ithaca Journal.	1/16/2024	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	Cargill has applied to the New York Department of Environmental Conservation (DEC) for a mining permit adjustment for its mine below Cayuga Lake. Cayuga Nature Center is ending its live animal program. The November elections are still not settled for residents of Geneva's 6th Ward. Last fall's election ended in a tie between the Democratic and Republican candidates.	1/17/2024	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30

Issue Category	Show Title	Programming description	Date	Time	Duration
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	The Tompkins Consolidated Area Transit (TCAT) the county's public bus service announced its Spring schedule. Governor Kathy Hochul's budget includes a proposal to repeal the state's "potency tax" on marijuana products. Quaker Oats has expanded the recall of products first announced in December.	1/18/2024	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
Housing	Inquiring Socialist	Role of unions in creating cooperative housing	1/19/2024	10:00:00 AM	0:27:30
Human Rights	Human Rights and Social Justice Program	Human rights violations in China, Xinjiang, Hong Kong	1/19/2024	9:00:00 AM	0:59:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	Tompkins County Emergency Response says arctic air blasts coming this weekend could push wind chill temperatures below zero. Members of Congress are questioning the tax-exempt status of Cornell and four other universities.	1/19/2024	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
Violence	Made of Clay Report	Processing our feelings of trauma, healing, and being human	1/21/2024	10:00:00 AM	1:59:32
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	State and federal health officials say charcuterie samplers bought late last year from Costco or Sam's Club may be linked to cases of Salmonella in New York and other states. Tompkins County is getting over $630,000 in grant funding for a new EMS pilot program. Two people have been charged in connection with the alleged mistreatment of over one hundred cows, horses, and goats.	1/22/2024	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	State Senator Lea Webb is officially running for re-election. An Ithaca College student filed a civil lawsuit last November against the college, former Park School dean Bryan Roberts and four other former employees.	1/23/2024	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	Tompkins County residents have the chance to get help with their utility bills at an open house on Thursday. You might think it's legal for anyone 21 or over to grow up to 6 marijuana plants for personal use without a license, but it's not.	1/24/2024	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	A State Court of Appeals ruled in December that New York's congressional district maps needed to be redrawn. The Cayuga Nation recently purchased 40 acres of land only to find itself in a boundary dispute with its new neighbor, the Finger Lakes Drive-In. Cornell University is one of 17 schools in a federal lawsuit relating to needs-blind admissions practices.	1/25/2024	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	Cornell announced two interim policies on Wednesday that address what it's calling "expressive activities" and doxxing. A state housing program that helps people using Section 8 vouchers is coming to Tompkins County. Four area school districts are among 44 chosen to receive federal funding through the Stronger Connections Grant Program.	1/26/2024	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
Violence	Made of Clay Report	Processing our feelings of trauma, healing, and being human	1/28/2024	10:00:00 AM	1:59:32
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	The Newfield Central School District is among sixteen the state has labeled in some form of financial stress. New York's Cannabis regulators face another federal lawsuit alleging discrimination in their retail licensing process. An Ithaca landmark is up for sale.	1/29/2024	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	A settlement has been reached in the federal sexual harassment case against former governor Andrew Cuomo. An employee of a homeless shelter in Ithaca was videoed over the weekend choking a homeless man. The battery research and manufacturing hub at Binghamton University has won a National Science Foundation competition.	1/30/2024	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30

Issue Category	Show Title	Programming description	Date	Time	Duration
Arts	CREATIVES on WRFI	WRFI's Felix Teitelbaum and Dr. Deborah Justice of the Cornell Concert Series speak with cellist Natalia Khoma and pianist Volodymyr Vynnytsky of the National Symphony Orchestra of Ukraine about the power of music in times of turmoil and about the orchestra's upcoming performance at Cornell (February 10, 2024 at 3pm).	1/31/2024	2:00:00 PM	0:30:00
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	Ithaca's new mayor, Robert Cantelmo has proposed the Common Council meet more frequently. Corning, Inc. shared its 2023 financial report in a conference call on Tuesday. Public libraries have been in the news a lot over the past few years. There have been calls to ban books, pull funding, or cancel certain events.	1/31/2024	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
Education	WRFI Community Radio News	Public libraries have been in the news a lot over the past few years. There have been calls to ban books, pull funding, or cancel certain events. But not all events or books are controversial and not all libraries are dealing with efforts to censor their collections. Odessa Library in Schuyler County is that kind of library. Celia Clarke reports.	2/1/2024	6:00:00 PM	0:10:00
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	The man charged with starting a fire that killed 30 horses at Tioga Downs has pleaded guilty to all charges. Montour Falls Village and Odessa in Schuyler County are among 39 municipalities included in a state program to improve the protection of municipal drinking water sources. Senator Kirsten Gillibrand introduced on a bill on Thursday that would make it easier for victims of significant PFAS contamination to sue the chemicals' manufacturers to get monitoring for the detection and treatment of illnesses related to PFAS exposure.	2/1/2024	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
Environment	Inquiring Socialist	Extinction Rebellion and the fossil fuel emergency	2/2/2024	10:01:00 AM	0:26:20
Human Rights	Human Rights and Social Justice Program	We talk about the Ceasefire resolution that has been introduced to the Tompkins County Legislature.	2/2/2024	9:00:00 AM	0:59:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	Tompkins County launched a new dashboard to share data about the pilot project between the sheriff's department and Tompkins Whole Health. The City of Ithaca announced that ten commercial buildings will be the first in its electrification project. Representative Claudia Tenney has nominated former president Donald Trump for the Nobel Peace Prize.	2/2/2024	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
History	Made of Clay Report	The Practice and Art of Truth Telling as An Historian	2/4/2024	10:00:00 AM	1:58:00
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	Tioga County health officials are alerting people after a recent cluster of heroin overdoses that took place in three days last week. A group of state lawmakers have introduced a bill to close a loophole in the state's fracking ban.	2/5/2024	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	A state judge dismissed a Republican challenge to New York's vote-by-mail law on Monday. Two public hearings are scheduled about the expansion of a sand and gravel business across from Watkins Glen State Park. Tompkins Whole Health and the State Department of Health continue to investigate the cause of illnesses at an Ithaca Holiday Inn Express in December.	2/6/2024	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30

Issue Category	Show Title	Programming description	Date	Time	Duration
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	By a one-vote margin, the Tompkins County legislature rejected a resolution calling for a ceasefire in the Israel-Hamas war. New York is the latest state to see a challenge to allowing former President Donald Trump on the Republican primary ballot. A proposal in Governor Hochul's executive budget could cost rural school districts millions of dollars in state aid if it's approved.	2/7/2024	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
Education	WRFI Community Radio News	Rural school districts across New York face a significant loss in state funding this year. Governor Hochul's 2024 executive budget proposal would change the allocation of "foundation aid". That's the money the state gives each school district to close the gap between what a community can afford to pay and what is needed to provide students with a good education. Celia Clarke reports.	2/8/2024	6:00:00 PM	0:10:00
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	Cornell University President Martha Pollack was the guest speaker at Ithaca's Rotary Club on Thursday.	2/8/2024	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	Water in the Village of Watkins Glen will be shut off early Tuesday morning. Work on a major pipe will take place from 3 to 7 AM. A Binghamton University student serving with the Israeli Defense Forces (IDF) is among the hostages held by Hamas. A regular government critic in Binghamton proposed legislation to disband the city's police department last Monday.	2/9/2024	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
History	Made of Clay Report	The Practice and Art of Truth Telling as an Historian	2/11/2024	10:00:00 AM	1:58:00
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	Broome County fire departments will no longer use firefighting foam that contains PFAS chemicals, called "forever chemicals". A group of Cornell students who engaged in a protest last Thursday are the first to face disciplinary action under the University's new "expressive activity policy". The Seneca Town Board postponed a vote to renew its permit for Seneca Meadows landfill.	2/12/2024	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	Republican state lawmakers say school districts need more time to switch to zero-emissions school buses. The Cornell High Energy Synchrotron Source (CHESS) has received $20 million from the National Science Foundation. FingerLakes1.com reports that Watkins Glen and Schuyler County leaders say they didn't know about plans to expand a sand and gravel mine until the DEC announced public hearings last month.	2/13/2024	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	Residents near Ithaca College may hear sirens and loudspeaker announcements on Thursday. Cornell's academic theme for the 2023-24 school year is freedom of expression.	2/14/2024	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	Several Cornell fraternities are suspended while the university investigates allegations of hazing. The Finger Lakes Land Trust has completed a conservation project in Steuben County covering almost 1,000 acres. Ithaca's Common Council got an update about the city's Green New Deal initiative at its meeting on Wednesday.	2/15/2024	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	The Broome County Health Department reports there was a spike in overdoses. New York's redistricting commission approved new congressional district maps on Thursday. Family Life Ministries will break ground on its new $50 million headquarters in the Gang Mills area of the town of Erwin next to Corning	2/16/2024	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30

Issue Category	Show Title	Programming description	Date	Time	Duration
Food/Agriculture	Made of Clay Report	Truth Telling about Food Safety in the Global Food Industry	2/18/2024	10:00:00 AM	1:57:21
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	Municipalities in Tompkins County have until May 1 to appeal mistakes in the new FEMA flood maps. The town of Thurston is being sued over a local law that bans the spreading of sewage sludge as fertilizer. The New York Cannabis Control Board approved rules for growing marijuana at home at their Feb. 16 meeting.	2/20/2024	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	Cornell's academic theme for the 2023-24 school year is freedom of expression.	2/21/2024	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	Cornell's "interim expressive activity policy" has mostly been criticized in online comments and town hall meetings of students, faculty, and staff.	2/22/2024	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
Arts	The Rocket Morton Show	The Rocket Morton Show dedicates two programs to the music and influences of one obscure North Carolina artist? THAT'S RIGHT! "Seeing the Flat Duo Jets in the 80's," says Rocket, "was such a revelation it restored my faith in music and life itself."	2/23/2024	7:00:00 PM	2:00:00
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	Corning, Inc. is eliminating 107 jobs in a facility in Painted Post. An anonymous group of employees at the Tompkins County Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (SPCA) is calling for an impartial investigation because of ethical concerns and allegations of mismanagement. Cayuga Medical Center is getting a FEMA grant for over $10 million to buy two emergency generators and build a storage facility for them.	2/23/2024	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
Food/Agriculture	Made of Clay Report	Truth Telling about Food Safety in the Global Food Industry	2/25/2024	10:00:00 AM	1:57:21
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	Tompkins County has started mailing out this year's property assessment values. Cornell, Dartmouth, and the University of Pennsylvania received unsubstantiated threats by email. A female union member is suing the Public Employee Federation (PEF) and a former top staffer over allegations she was sexually abused by the staffer.	2/26/2024	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	The City of Ithaca wants feedback about the redesign of a portion of Route 13. State democrats voted down the new congressional district map from the state's bipartisan Independent Redistricting Commission on Monday. Cayuga Nature Center (CNC) in Ithaca will continue some of its live animal program due to a recent donation from the Lilac Foundation.	2/27/2024	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	The Tompkins County Alcohol and Drug Council will end its patient services and lay off most of its staff. The state legislature's Democrats proposed a new congressional map on Tuesday. A Cornell undergraduate was arrested in January for threatening to release revenge porn of his ex-girlfriend.	2/28/2024	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
Human Rights	WRFI Community Radio News	Cornell's academic theme this school year is freedom of expression. It was meant to be a year of celebration of one of the university's core values. Instead how freedom of expression is practiced or protected on campus has become a divisive issue. Celia Clarke reports.	2/29/2024	6:00:00 PM	0:15:00
Environment	Inquiring Socialist	Cornell's failure to respond to climate emergency	3/1/2024	10:00:00 AM	0:27:40
Human Rights	Human Rights and Social Justice Program	We talk about media literacy and fact-checking	3/1/2024	9:00:00 AM	0:58:30

Issue Category	Show Title	Programming description	Date	Time	Duration
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	There have been five overdose deaths in Tompkins County since February 18. That brings the total this year to six. Governor Hochul approved the new congressional map on Thursday.	3/1/2024	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
Violence	Made of Clay Report	Men Survivors Support Group Forming	3/3/2024	10:00:00 AM	1:57:38
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	The Ithaca Carshare bill became law on March 1. The Cornell Student Assembly voted unanimously on February 22 to ask the administration to suspend the "Interim Expressive Activity Policy".	3/4/2024	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	Cayuga Health and Arnot Health are feeling the effects of a recent cyber hack. Ithaca voters will get vote on a proposal that would freeze the city school district's tax rate for three year. The Corning-Painted Post school district is making changes to its internal auditing process following a report from the state comptroller.	3/5/2024	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	A congressional subcommittee investigating the coronavirus pandemic has subpoenaed former governor Andrew Cuomo. The public comment period is extended for the proposed expansion of a gravel pit near Watkins Glen State Park. The Village of Trumansburg is getting $3.5 million in federal funding to build a new fire/EMS facility.	3/6/2024	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	The Ithaca Common Council approved a resolution calling for a permanent cease-fire in Gaza at its March 6 meeting. State lawmakers say their budget proposals will restore foundation aid to schools that were cut in the governor's budget plan. An Elmira Heights teacher has resigned after allegations he refused to allow an elementary student to use the girls' bathroom in the school.	3/7/2024	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
Human Rights	Human Rights and Social Justice Program	Member of the coalition "Cornell on Fire" talk about the importance of holding the university accountable for its lack of commitment to the climate crisis	3/8/2024	9:00:00 AM	0:58:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	The town of Newfield will review its mobile home park law at a public meeting on March 28. Elmira has its first female police captain. New York governor Kathy Hochul and state legislators are negotiating an excise tax to replace the marijuana potency tax.	3/8/2024	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
Violence	Made of Clay Report	Men Survivors Support Group Forming	3/10/2024	10:00:00 AM	1:57:38
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	The Ithaca Common Council will hold a work session this week to hear about two special topics. Ann Coulter, a controversial right-wing personality and Cornell graduate has been invited to speak at the university. Residents in the Elmira Heights School District will vote on a $17.8 million capital project on March 12.	3/11/2024	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	Cornell University has made changes to its controversial "Interim Expressive Activity Policy".	3/12/2024	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
Arts	CREATIVES on WRFI	Tabla maestro Zakir Hussain talks with Daniel Bass host of WRFI's Monsoon Radio about his upcoming concert at Cornell with Deopriya Chatterjee (bansuri) & Sabir Khan (sarangi) on March 22, the three Grammys he won last month, his first show in Ithaca in 1989, and more!	3/13/2024	7:00:00 PM	0:40:00

Issue Category	Show Title	Programming description	Date	Time	Duration
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	The State Assembly banned permitting for a proposed new natural gas mining practice by a vote of 98-50. The owners of Chanticleer, an iconic Ithaca bar say it is not closing despite being for sale. Voters in the Elmira Heights school district overwhelmingly approved a budget for school improvements worth over $17 million.	3/13/2024	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	Ithaca Tompkins International Airport is getting $1.5 million of federal funding for a new facility. Voters in Cayuga Heights, Trumansburg, Dryden and Groton will be the first to use Tompkins County's new voting machines. Cortland County wants residents to participate in its strategic planning process.	3/14/2024	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
Labor	Inquiring Socialist	Proposed City legislation to protect employees from unjust firing	3/15/2024	10:00:00 AM	0:27:30
Human Rights	Human Rights and Social Justice Program	We talk about the federal Safeguard Act (Safeguarding Human Rights in Arms Exports)	3/15/2024	9:00:00 AM	0:59:30
Human Rights	Human Rights and Social Justice Program	We talk about the work of the Ithaca based group Educate the Children Nepal	3/15/2024	9:00:00 AM	0:59:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	Ann Coulter will speak at Cornell on April 16. Coulter is a controversial right-wing personality and Cornell graduate. A Tompkins County deputy sheriff has been found guilty of using excessive force in the wrongful 2019 arrest of a Lansing man. A conservative watchdog group is accusing an organization of making illegal contributions to seven former Democratic congressional candidates among them is Josh Riley.	3/15/2024	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
War and Peace	Made of Clay Report	On Poetry, Truth Telling and Life After War	3/17/2024	10:00:00 AM	1:59:25
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	Former acting Ithaca Police Chief John Joly is suing the city and alleging racial discrimination and other offenses. A home on Cleveland Ave in Ithaca will be demolished to make way for redevelopment by Ithaca Neighborhood Housing or INHS. WRFI and StoryHouse Ithaca are holding another Listening Room event this Thursday at WRFI's studios.	3/18/2024	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	A pro-Palestine group at Cornell is agitating for the university to divest from weapons manufacturers supplying Israel's war efforts in Gaza. Several area chapters of the League of Women Voters will present a talk examining the possible effect of fracking in New York using carbon dioxide. According to the Albany Times Union, Governor Hochul has ordered a month-long assessment of the Office of Cannabis Management.	3/19/2024	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	Ithaca Police are investigating a potential bias incident in Collegetown Monday. An unarmed responder unit is up and running in Ithaca, but some questions remain about the program's long-term management. Elmira will apply for $10 million in state aid to breathe new life into the city's southside.	3/20/2024	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	Overdose deaths and emergencies in Tompkins County continue to rise. Tompkins Consolidated Area Transit or TCAT is still experiencing bugs with new fare boxes in the operator's fleet of buses. Local excitement is building for the upcoming total solar eclipse on Monday, April 8.	3/21/2024	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30

Issue Category	Show Title	Programming description	Date	Time	Duration
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	A new report says wage growth in Ithaca is the slowest among 30 similar college towns. Demonstrators staged an occupation of Cornell's administrative office building Thursday. The University issued a statement Thursday reporting that Trustees Stephen Robinson and Martin Scheinman visited the protesters and listened to their concerns, but told them their demand for a vote would not be met. On Friday CML announced that Cornell's Student Assembly approved a binding student referendum calling for divestiture and a permanent ceasefire in Gaza.	3/22/2024	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
War and Peace	Made of Clay Report	On Poetry, Truth Telling and Life After War	3/24/2024	10:00:00 AM	1:59:25
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	Early voting in New York's presidential primaries began this past Saturday. Tompkins County has two early voting sites. The Ithaca Common Council will form a working group to consider a "just cause" proposal to require employers to give a reason before firing someone. A lawsuit filed on Monday against the state Department of Environmental Conservation and Seneca Meadows landfill seeks to block the expansion of the Seneca Meadows landfill.	3/25/2024	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	The New York State Senate voted to ban permits for natural gas extraction using carbon dioxide. Ithaca Carshare is back in business. Some Wegman's stores across New York will close from 3-3:30 during the solar eclipse on April 8.	3/26/2024	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
Arts	CREATIVES on WRFI	Ghanian-American painter Arthur Bucknor discusses his work, his father renown Ghanian painter Kobina Bucknor, and his upcoming show at the Cherry Arts with WRFI's Felix Teitelbaum.	3/27/2024	2:00:00 PM	0:16:00
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	The Caroline Town Board approved its first comprehensive zoning law by a vote of 3-1 during its meeting last Wednesday. The collapse of a neglected building in downtown Elmira on March 7 has city officials considering the fate of similar structures. About two dozen students at Ithaca College held a die-in to protest the school's failure to make a statement about Palestinian deaths in the current war with Israel.	3/27/2024	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	Residents in Tompkins County learn about some upcoming state road repairs on April 3. Steuben County is the latest in the region to report a rise in overdoses. Environmental clean-up in a residential section of Corning is scheduled to start in April. The second of our three reports about free speech at Cornell airs tonight.	3/28/2024	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
Transportation	Inquiring Socialist	ITCTC gathers information for its 20-year transportation plan	3/29/2024	10:00:00 AM	0:26:30
Human Rights	Human Rights and Social Justice Program	We talk about the exhibits at the Tompkins County History Center, especially as it relates to women, March being Women's History Month.	3/29/2024	9:01:00 AM	0:58:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	Tompkins County is considering hiring a specialist to help people transition from homelessness into properties owned by the Vecino Group. The first of four new affordable housing buildings in Elmira opened on Thursday. Addiction treatment specialists and some lawmakers are asking Governor Hochul to declare an "addiction state of emergency" for the entire state.	3/29/2024	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
Violence	Made of Clay Report	On Truth Telling Through Issues of Abuse -- Physical, Emotional, Sexual and Spiritual	3/31/2024	10:00:00 AM	1:59:29

Issue Category	Show Title	Programming description	Date	Time	Duration
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	Cornell President Martha Pollack and Provost Michael Kotlikoff remain critical of ongoing protests on Cornell's campus. Dryden schools were closed on Friday because of a threat directed at the district. There's a lot going on leading up to the solar eclipse on April 8.	4/1/2024	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	The City of Ithaca wants feedback from residents about the proposed short-term rental ordinance. All this week we're highlighting some of the eclipse-related events and information.	4/2/2024	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	The Tompkins Consolidated Area Transit (TCAT) plans to buy five more diesel buses. All this week we're highlighting some of the eclipse-related events and information.	4/3/2024	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	The village of Groton has been awarded $4.5 million from NY Forward. The City of Ithaca's financial credit rating has been withdrawn. All this week we're highlighting some of the eclipse-related events and information.	4/4/2024	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30
Human Rights	Human Rights and Social Justice Program	I talk with Paul O'Brien, Executive Director of Amnesty International USA about the challenges of human rights activism.	4/5/2024	9:00:00 AM	0:59:30
Daily Headlines	WRFI Community Radio News	Tompkins County isn't in the "zone of totality" but a partial eclipse will be visible. We've been highlighting some eclipse-related events and information over the past few days.	4/5/2024	7:00 AM, 8:00AM, 11:00 AM	0:02:30