Her 25-year-old son Brandon was shot and injured around 11:15 p.m. on Garfield Drive in Norfolk Friday. Monday night, she says she is grateful for one thing, I actually feel relieved because my son is awake and called my name, she said. I just wanted to see his eyes and hear his voice. This is the first day since Friday that my son has showed any sign of life.
17	Military Legal Matters	5:00 PM	3/28/2022	1:40	5:00 PM MONDAY WAVY NEWS 10	Most military families in Hampton know the routine: every few years, there's a move. With those moves come a lot of challenges, including finding work for the military spouse. U.S. Senator Tim Kaine (D-Virginia) is co-sponsoring bipartisan legislation to make it easier for military spouses to find work. Roughly 34%, or one-third, of all military spouses are unemployed. It is a number that increased from roughly 22% before the coronavirus pandemic. Both lawmakers and nonprofits want that number to decrease.
17	Consumer Issues	6:00 PM	3/28/2022	2:29	6:00 PM MONDAY WAVY NEWS 10	When you pay into your retirement plan with part of your paycheck each week, you might never think that money may one day just disappear. But for millions of grocery store employees, factory workers, and truck drivers across the country that became a strong and scary possibility.
