17	Children/Youth	6:00PM	7/12/2021	3:43	WAVY NEWS 10 AT 6	At the Lynnhaven Dive Center in Virginia Beach, the work of a swim instructor is never-ending. On average 350 kids under the age of five drown in backyard pools every year.
17	Transportation	5:30PM	7/15/2021	2:00	WAVY NEWS 10 AT 5:30	Like any other Mother, Nicole Francis wants to keep her daughter Mysiah out of danger. Francis's daughter can get to Booker T. Washington for summer school no problem early in the morning, but the problem is getting home. Her session ends just before 12 and the school bus doesn't run until two o'clock, so she's trying to work out something with HRT. We connected HRT and Nicole Francis. They explained to her the process of getting a pass so that her daughter will be able to ride public transportation home from summer school free of charge.
17	Education	5:30PM	7/16/2021	1:43	WAVY NEWS 10 AT 5:30	It may look like they're playing video games but this is simulated surgery. At EVMS, summer camp is very hands-on. This camp is about opening eyes and opportunities so that they can go into a field that they maybe didn't know existed.
17	Community	6:00PM	7/16/2021	1:38	WAVY NEWS 10 AT 6	We know whenever Hampton and Newport News get together, it's always a party and today's party was actually a collaboration between Hampton's Tyrod Taylor and Antoine Bethea of Newport News. The two NFL players, Bethea now retired, came together today to host local area youth for the premiere of Space Jam.
17	Health/Healthcare	5:00PM	7/19/2021	1:45	WAVY NEWS 10 AT 5	The COVID-19 vaccine will soon be mandatory for employees at some Virginia hospitals. Last week the VHHA board, which is made up of representatives from 26 health systems throughout Virginia met and most agreed shots should be required. Implementation and timing will vary among hospitals.
17	Health/Healthcare	6:00PM	7/22/2021	4:10	WAVY NEWS 10 AT 6	I knew I was having trouble breathing, I was expecting to hear that I had pneumonia. I wasn't expecting to hear that I had lung cancer. From stage-life to stage four cancer, but this is far from her final act because she knows the number one rule: the show must go on.
17	Education	12:00PM	7/27/2021	1:30	WAVY NEWS 10 AT MIDDAY	According to new data released by the census bureau, the number of households choosing to homeschool their kids has nearly doubled. Numbers have increased from 5.4 percent in March of 2020 to 11 percent in September of that year and the trend may continue to rise. Nikki Warris is a teacher who opened her own facility, focusing on homeschooling students in small groups. She says with standard brick and mortar schools preparing to re-open in the fall, many of the parents enrolling their kids in her program say they're better off staying there.

17	Health/Healthcare COVID-19	6:00PM	8/3/2021	1:56	WAVY NEWS 10 AT 6	As COVID-19 cases continue to rise, faith leaders in the black community are taking a new approach when it comes to trying to get more people vaccinated. A member of the Biden Administration met with them and talked about what's happening nationwide and what the new message is moving ahead. Reverend Derrick Harkins is the Director of faith-based and neighborhood partnerships for HUD. He has a new message for faith leaders and their congregations as COVID-19 cases surge.
17	Crime/Law Enforcement Community	5:00PM	8/3/2021	1:44	WAVY NEWS 10 AT 5	I think this national night out this year we are calling for a change to reform. A reform in how we approach this situation. The situation is in the headlines almost daily. According to Gun Violence Archives, with more than 26-thousand killings so far, 2021 is poised to record the highest number of gun deaths in two decades. As police and community leaders gather for National Night Out, at least one local police chief is also calling for reform.

17	Housing	5:30PM	8/3/2021	1:51	WAVY NEWS 10 AT 5:30	Not giving up without a fight as several Norfolk residents are raising concern over the plan for a new apartment community in the Popular Hall neighborhood. It was discussed during a civic league meeting.
17	Housing	5:30PM	8/4/2021	1:57	WAVY NEWS 10 AT 5:30	Bugs, no air conditioning, and mold are just some of the issues residents told us they've been dealing with. Add those things to a list that already includes major safety concerns.
17	Health/Healthcare COVID-19	5:30PM	8/5/2021	1:40	WAVY NEWS 10 AT 5:30	After various hospitals in North Carolina announced plans to require employees to get the COVID-19 vaccine, some healthcare workers hit the streets in protest. Fifty-five Republicans in the North Carolina State House of Representatives wrote a letter urging hospital executives to rethink their decision. They cite our reporting on staffing shortages some of them face.
17	Government (Local)	5:00PM	8/5/2021	1:54	WAVY NEWS 10 AT 5	It's an ongoing problem and neighbors along Pembroke Lane complained to Ten on Your Side. Suffolk City Activist, Kelly Hengler, concentrates her city lobbying efforts on inadequate drainage in at-risk neighborhoods. Once the city approved a new development, that led to the flooding of an older property.
17	Education	5:30PM	8/6/2021	1:44	WAVY NEWS 10 AT 5:30	Virtual Virginia is part of the State Department of Education, and it's becoming more and more popular. With COVID-19 numbers now heading in the wrong direction, that popularity is likely to accelerate. Virtual Virginia has been offering K thru 12 courses, professional learning for educators, and generating digital content for years. Interest has increased in all three areas since the pandemic, but the numbers were already ramping up in recent years.
17	Community	5:30PM	8/6/2021	1:59	WAVY NEWS 10 AT 5:30	Some local military families are about to have a great weekend.
17	Minority Issues	5:30PM	8/6/2021	1:32	WAVY NEWS 10 AT 5:30	Lynne Young has a strong family history of breast cancer. As an advocate in the community, Lynne says she has heard stories of racism, poor care, and health discrimination. Susan G. Komen did a study to pinpoint the problems and create potential solutions. Although black women in the Tidewater metropolitan area are less likely to be diagnosed with breast cancer when compared to white women when they are diagnosed with breast cancer, they're more likely to die of the disease. The study suggests multiple reasons, including financial barriers, transportation issues, lack of insurance as well as fear of going to a doctor.
17	Children/Youth	6:00AM	8/7/2021	1:33	WAVY NEWS 10 TODAY	A pediatrician advises parents on how to tell the difference between the Coronavirus and common cold symptoms.
17	Community	11:00PM	8/7/2021	1:36	WAVY NEWS 10 AT 11	Residents in the Seatack neighborhood of Virginia Beach came together for a community day event. Behind the smiles and good times were community partners from schools, churches, and law enforcement. All of this to signify new ownership and a major makeover of the government-subsidized apartment complex, Atlantis Apartments.
17	Government (Local)	11:00PM	8/8/2021	1:54	WAVY NEWS 10 AT 11	Last week, Virginia Governor, Ralph Northam announced new requirements in the Commonwealth considering the recent spread. Based on recent CDC guidance, Virginia is asking all students and staff at K-12 schools to wear masks indoors whether they are vaccinated or not. On Tuesday, Virginia Beach School Board members will hear a recommendation from the school administration on this year's mask policy. Northam said his state guidance would seemingly override decisions previously made at the local level, and school districts who choose not to require masks could face legal action. State employees will also be required to be vaccinated and show proof by Sept. 1. Employees who choose not to get vaccinated will have to be tested weekly, that's about 122 thousand employees.

17	Government (Local)	11:00PM	8/9/2021	1:43	WAVY NEWS 10 AT 11	While in April, the eleven-member Virginia Beach City Council was clearly split on even forming a group to study whether citizens should get the right to investigate cases of police misconduct. Reinstating trust in the community, in our city officials, in our police force, and also giving our citizens an avenue. By the end of the month, they'll recommend what changes, if any, should be made to their current citizen's review panel which is charged with making sure police are policing themselves when it comes to accusations of misconduct or abuse of power.
17	Health/Healthcare Community	5:30PM	8/10/2021	1:55	WAVY NEWS 10 AT 5:30	Whether you were inbound or outbound, HRT bus passengers Tuesday were cued up just in time for the first downtown Norfolk transit center shots. Every Tuesday afternoon through August no appointment needed shots will be on hand thanks to a partnership involving HRT, Sentara, and Second Calvary Baptist Church. Similar clinics will be held this month at the transit centers in Hampton and Newport News.
17	Health/Healthcare COVID-19	6:00PM	8/10/2021	1:59	WAVY NEWS 10 AT 6	This is Miles, he's a chocolate lab with a really good sniffer but is it good enough to sniff out the tiny molecules in COVID-19? James Overton with American K-9 Interdiction trains dogs to detect explosives, narcotics, and bed bugs, but a virus? They've been training for about 5 months and right now they're about 90% accurate. The plan is to use the dogs at sports stadiums, concerts, airports, cruise ships, and any large public event where COVID-19 could spread. People would swab their cheeks maybe 10 at a time and then the dogs could go to work.
17	Community	4:30AM	8/10/2021	1:38	WAVY NEWS 10 TODAY	In the midst of a pandemic, our locals chose positivity to form our better days. It's a feeling Brandon Liburd, better known as DJ BeEezy, says he felt for months after Something in the Water. With COVID-19 postponing the event the last two years, he wanted to bring positivity to our community now. A party where every penny raised goes to Seton Youth Shelters, an organization that provides emergency shelter and mentoring for at-risk youth in Hampton Roads.
17	Business	5:00PM	8/10/2021	1:50	WAVY NEWS 10 AT 5	Many of the businesses that will be affected by the project aren't in the mall itself, but they're still within shouting distance, and they want to make sure their voices are heard. Amir Driver wears his pride for Norfolk on his sleeve and he hopes others will wear theirs too. He owns a clothing store where you can get hats, shirts, and all kinds of gear with a simple message. He wants the city to get the message that while the redevelopment of Military Circle is big business, small business needs can't be pushed aside either.
17	Education	5:00PM	8/11/2021	1:30	WAVY NEWS 10 AT 5	Highly visible and vocal, mask opponents with varying concerns put elected officials on notice and put the Virginia Beach Council meeting in overtime. When it was all over the vote was seven to four and the mask mandate was codified. The pandemic mitigation plan is universal: vaccinate, social distance, sanitize, and mask up, but from Capitol Hill to Virginia Beach the pandemic has exposed a deep divide.
17	Children/Youth	4:00PM	8/11/2021	1:32	WAVY NEWS 10 AT 4	"No Kid Hungry gave away 1.6 million dollars to 32 school districts and organizations, including Suffolk Public Schools and Virginia Beach Public Schools.
17	Government (Local)	6:00PM	8/12/2021	3:05	WAVY NEWS 10 AT 6	The John Street outfall improvement project in the Pughsville section of Chesapeake cost $890,000 dollars bringing in bigger pipes to move more water out of neighborhoods. Pughsville straddles Chesapeake and Suffolk. There is now flooding around the older homes because new homes built higher than his now drain on his property. Suffolk City Manager Albert Moor knows it, as he visited Jones' property and considers Oakland and Pughsville underserved communities in need of help.

17	Crime/Law Enforcement Community	6:00PM	8/13/2021	1:56	WAVY NEWS 10 AT 6	It's actually pretty simple. It's called verdict and is a 360 virtual reality headset. The creators hope it will not only benefit law enforcement but the communities they serve. When we support law enforcement and first responders we're supporting the community. This product has a lot of benefits and impacts and can ultimately save lives.
17	Environment	6:00PM	8/13/2021	2:16	WAVY NEWS 10 AT 6	The Secretary-General of the UN calls the report a "Code Red" for humanity and it has numerous implications for Hampton Roads. Environmental advocates are calling on Congresswoman Elaine Luria for help. Congresswoman Elaine Luria understands the importance of Virginia's coastline, including the world's largest naval station. The co-director of a Virginia Interfaith Power and Light says more heat, more storms, and more coastal flooding will have a disproportionate effect on the vulnerable, the poor, and people of color.
17	Business	11:00PM	8/14/2021	1:51	WAVY NEWS 10 AT 11	Capacity and alcohol restrictions have been lifted since Memorial Day in the Commonwealth once COVID-19 cases began to decline. As case numbers steadily creep back up, local businesses say they're prepared for whatever changes may be on the horizon.
17	Community	6:00PM	8/15/2021	1:30	WAVY NEWS 10 AT 6	With Fall school semesters right around the corner, and as local concert venues begin requiring proof of being fully vaccinated or a recent negative COVID-19 test, some community members may be looking for their next chance to get a shot.
17	Community	6:00AM	8/16/2021	2:06	WAVY NEWS 10 TODAY	Just as the day is winding down for many, the Chesapeake Sheriff's deputies group of cadets are just getting started with their training academy. The cadets range in age from 14 to 50 and they all have two things in common, they are local Special Olympians and are interested in law enforcement. You're looking at the hard-working members of Sheriff Jim O'Sullivan's first-ever Elite Unit. It was designed to build relationships between law enforcement and local citizens with intellectual disabilities.
17	Health/Healthcare	5:00 PM	9/1/2021	1:30	WAVY NEWS 10 AT 5	The people who keep our highways safe, the people who keep you safe in a storm, and those who tally your taxes are under new orders from the governor. By the end of the day, Virginia state employees have to show proof they've been vaccinated or agree to get that invasive Coronavirus test every week.
17	Education	6:00 PM	9/2/2021	2:10	WAVY NEWS 10 AT 6	Excitement and energy filled the Chartway Arena this morning as Suffolk Public School educators met for their convocation. Most students will be back in the classroom next week, but some students will still be logging on from their computers this school year.
17	Health/Healthcare COVID-19	5:00 PM	9/2/2021	1:53	WAVY NEWS 10 AT 5	In the early stages of the pandemic the medical community didn't know how to treat the hundreds of patients who were landing in hospitals with what was originally called a respiratory virus. We later learned the virus attacked everything from head to toe. Those changes mean you could be charged a co-pay for the cost of COVID-19 hospitalization which is estimated at $73,000, according to fairhealth.org. Health providers say this is yet one more reason to get the free and effective Coronavirus vaccine.
17	Transportation	6:00 AM	9/2/2021	1:46	WAVY NEWS 10 TODAY	When a school bus stops to unload or pick-up children, cars have to stop, it's the law. Officials in Newport News want to remind everyone that they now have cameras on each and every bus that activate when the stop signs swing out.
17	Transportation	6:00 PM	9/2/2021	2:03	WAVY NEWS 10 AT 6	York County School's are seeing how its bus routes have been going the first week at York County Public Schools and what are the strategies moving forward to cover all the routes.
17	Community	5:30 PM	9/2/2021	1:37	WAVY NEWS 10 AT 5:30	Red Cross have been responding to multiple natural disasters, from hurricane pummeled communities in Louisiana and Mississippi, to devastating floods in Tennessee as well as the raging western wildfires. 17	Community	5:30 PM	9/6/2021	2:07	WAVY NEWS 10 AT 5:30	Today, Chesapeake had a Stop the Violence march. Baskets, burgers, and brotherhood here at the Campostella Square Park is nothing less than a labor of love. A community celebrating a day off by working to keep the place they call home united. Keith Cuffee wanted to put this event to show the kids in the community they care.
17	Minority Issues	4:00 PM	9/6/2021	2:15	WAVY NEWS 10 AT 4	Smithsonian Emmett Till marker is a sign of the times, of a troubling chapter to a story that began in 1955 and what happened that night in Mississippi. The men that had burst into the home were looking for Wheeler Parker Jr's cousin, Emmett Till. They said he'd whistled at a white woman, an offense that could cost a black man his life in Mississippi. The lynch mob searched their home. This sign was one of four markers pointing to the spot on the Tallahatchie River where Till's shot and mutilated body was found. It was put there in 2008, but later riddled with bullets. Others were either shot up or defaced with acid, all that's happened since 2008, when the first sign was put up. Some of the culprits have been caught, among them students at Ole Miss. Look closely, one of the slugs is still embedded in the sign, just like Emmett Till's death remains embedded in the American narrative.
17	Health/Healthcare	4:00 PM	9/7/2021	1:54	WAVY NEWS 10 AT 4	Health officials say they anticipate more than 400 people to come out and get their COVID-19 vaccine today at the Military Circle Mall vaccination clinic in Norfolk. Today we saw something I haven't seen in a while, and we've covered a lot of these clinics, a decently long line of people waiting for their turn to get a shot. At one point I counted about 40-50 people lined up.
17	Health/Healthcare	5:30 PM	9/7/2021	2:50	WAVY NEWS 10 AT 5:30	Early on we couldn't get this vaccine quick enough to get shots in arms and then you hit that point where all of the people in the community that were waiting to get vaccinated you kind of had them get their vaccines. And that means too many vaccines and not enough arms. So Sentara has been forced to throw away thousands of unused or expired vaccines.
17	Education Transportation	5:00 PM	9/9/2021	1:53	WAVY NEWS 10 AT 5	With thousands of students headed back to school here in Virginia Beach, and many of them taking buses, the school is asking for parents and families to be patient as we all get accustomed to the new school year at Princess Anne.
17	Health/Healthcare	5:30 PM	9/9/2021	1:58	WAVY NEWS 10 AT 5:30	The program is called First Step. It is designed to help addicts heal and to keep them out of jail. It's up to those who are addicted to opioids to take the first step and want help. It is as easy as just showing up at a Virginia Beach Police precinct.
