OCTOBER 2013

Erie County Prison Plan

Erie County Executive Barry Grossman has called for additional staff at the Erie County Prison. He is asking for increased spending. He says it's due to the pressure on prison staff caused by an increasing number of mentally ill prisoners. A study done by Merchurst University confirms that, and also calls for additional staffing to handle the growing mentally ill prison population

Obamacare 411

October marked the launch of the federal government's launch of it's website for the American Affordable Healthcare Act, otherwise known as Obamacare. The website launch was wrought with problems, issues, frustrations, etc. It was a disaster in most everyone's opinion. The same month, we launched a two month series of reports on how to navigate through the changing waters of healthcare...we called in Obamacare 411. However we aired many national stories too throughout the month.

NOVEMBER 2013

General Election Day

Pennsylvania held its municipal election day on November 5. Our coverage of the races, candidates, election process, election results and follow-up to the election results occupied much of our reporting in early November, culminating on election day with all our newscasts dedicated to the election. We profiled all the candidates in all of the major races prior to election day, and we reported on the results of the election on November 5.

Obamacare 411

November we continued our weekly series on the Affordable Health Care Act.

October marked the launch of the federal government's launch of its website for the American Affordable Healthcare Act, otherwise known as Obamacare. The website launch was wrought with problems, issues, frustrations, etc. It was a disaster in most everyone's opinion. Living and Working in Erie

We did a Target 24 report on young people living and working in Erie.

Is brain drain taking our smartest and brightest away from Erie? Are those who stay finding Erie a good place to live, work and socialize? Does Erie have what it takes to attract the best and brightest to our region? We examine all of these issues in this report.

Justifiable Homicide

Erie County District Attorney rules the fatal shooting of an alleged bank robber following the hold-up of an Erie credit union a justifiable homicide. The robbery and shooting death occurred in late October. Four Erie police officers were put on administrative leave pending the results of the investigation. All were exonerated of any wrong doing or misconduct. However, members of the victim's family said the police officers should have used something other than deadly force.

Harbor Place/CRIZ/Letter Campaign

In late November, an Erie developer unveiled a $150 million dollar bayfront private redevelopment plan called Harbor Place. To make the project more feasible, Scott Enterprises encouraged the city to apply for a state program called CRIZ. The city did apply. Scott Enterprises then call on the community to write letters of support for the CRIZ to Governor Tom Corbett.

$10 Million Donation to Local School

Erie's Cathedral Prep announced that an alumna donated $10 million dollars to the Catholic High School for boys and Villa Maria Academy, the Catholic High School for girls. The funds from the anonymous donor will be used to complete renovation projects at both schools, and is the largest donation ever in school history.
