Moon Meadows Campgrounds

The local campground has a variety of environmental problems involving water and sewage. State environmental officials want them fixed or the park will be shut down, sending more than 100 people looking for a place to live, some of them permanent park residents. Eventually, all residents were evicted and the owner jailed. Our coverage followed the continuing saga of the park owner, residents, the courts, and the regulators.

Rhonda Henderson Case

The work performance of Erie forensic nurse Rhonda Henderson has been called into question and is under examination in hundreds of cases she prepared reports for in sex abuse criminal cases. Many people were convicted or pled guilty based on her reports. But were they accurate? Even the prosecutor isn't sure, and has launched an investigation into her cases. Meanwhile, convicted criminals are asking for their cases to be reviewed if she was involved. Could it be a get out of jail card for many? Our coverage began with the announcement of the investigation and the developing requests for reviews.

AUGUST 2010

Elizabeth Neimeic Murder

2 yr old Elizabeth Neimeic of Erie goes missing from her bed at home overnight. Her mother discovers her missing in the morning. It appears she may have been kidnapped during a burglary attempt. A search is launched. Police discover her dead. Fingerprints lead cops to accused killer. Aaron Noyer admits to the crime. Local child protective services had a report accusing Noyer of inappropriate behavior with a child, but never reported it to police, a violation of regulations. The community comes together and mourns the death of this little girl. While her mother grieves, there are suspicions that the mother and the accused killer know each other. Was it a random or targeted crime? The community holds fundraisers to help the mother pay for her daughters funeral. There is also a controversy as to who is really the victims real father. The issue erupts into an altercation at the victims funeral. Our coverage during the month was very extensive and covered all aspects of the case.

SEPTEMBER 2010

Tall Ships Festival

It's been 197 years since the Battle of Lake Erie, won by Oliver Hazard Perry, Captain of the Brig Niagara. On a September weekend, the Niagara led a parade of tall ships into the Erie harbor for the first Tall Ships Festival in a decade. It's a preview of what's to come when the US celebrates the 200th anniversary of the Battle of Lake Erie. Our coverage included security preparations for the fest, details of the event, live coverage of the parade of sail as the ships entered the harbor, an examination of the economic impact of the festival, a look at some of the different ships docked in Erie, extracurricular events like the cardboard regatta and Heritage Festival, and wrap-up on the success of the event.
