Oil City Cop Shooting

An Oil City woman was shot and killed by Oil City police officers after answering a call for a domestic dispute between a mother and her son. But something went wrong when the woman picked up a kitchen knife and began swinging it at police officers. She was killed and now family and community members are questioning whether police acted appropriately. The case is under investigation by the Pa State Police and the Venango Co District Attorney.

Perry 200 Events

For nearly 18 months, the Erie community has been commemorating its role in the Battle of Lake Erie and the War of 1812. A Perry 200 Organization has been formed. The ceremonies continue this month with special events on the 4th of July, the unveiling of a mural in downtown Erie, a Perry Pageant and a Perry 200 sideburns contest. The celebration concludes in September marking the 200th anniversary of the Battle of Lake Erie.

AUGUST 2013

Beach Club Fire/Conneaut Lake Park

The historic Beach Club Bar at Conneaut Lake Park in Crawford County burned to the ground. The fire comes five years after another historic park building, Dreamland Ballroom, was also destroyed by fire at the hands of an arsonist. The century old amusement park has a long history of fires. But this one came at a time when the former tourist hot spot teeters on the brink solvency and relevancy in 2013. Our stories look at the fire, the investigation, and the community response.

Erie County Term Limits

Erie County Executive has spearheaded a campaign to put term limits on the November ballot. The lame duck county officials has long pushed for term limits for certain elected county officials, and has faced opposition from County Council members who could have made it happen. They wouldn't, so the CE took to the streets to get enough petition signatures to put it on the ballot.

Tall Ships Erie

For nearly 18 months, the Erie community has been commemorating its role in the Battle of Lake Erie and the War of 1812. A Perry 200 Organization has been formed. The ceremonies culminated with a 3 day festival Tall Ships Erie, where 10 tall ships visited Erie from all over the world. The event was a major fundraiser for the Flagship Niagara League. Erie is home port for the Flagship Niagara, which is the battleship that won the Battle of Lake Erie. It was a huge community celebration making a significant economic impact on the region.
