Target 24 -If You Build it Will They Come?

The Erie Redevelopment Authority is once again partnered on a project to build what many consider will be high priced residential and commercial condos in downtown Erie. The Authority has invested public tax dollars into these projects before, with marginal success. Why does anyone think it will work this time, in this location? Our Target 24 report looks at the issues from all angles.

Mary Wolski vs City of Erie

Mary Wolski was an Erie Fire Fighter until she was dismissed from her job, following an incident where she attempted to commit suicide by setting fire to a pile of clothes in a bathtub. She suffered from depression at the time. The fire did little damage, and she didn't die, but the City dismissed her from her fire fighting job. She sued the City to get her job back, claiming she was discriminated against because of her disability. She won the case in federal court. She was awarded back pay and the city was ordered to rehire her. Our reporting looks at the case, the verdict, Wolski's argument, and the City's reasons for likely appealing the verdict.

Grossman Letter... Was it Politics?

Erie County Executive Barry Grossman sent a letter to top business leaders in the community urging them to allow their employees to run for public office. The letter also made reference to an employee of a local hospital, who is running for public office, as the kind of find outstanding individual that would make a good community leader. Some in the political world saw that as an endorsement, and cried foul, since the letter was sent on count stationary, and at county expense. Chief among the critics was a State Senator, whose seat the person in the referenced in the letter, is running for.

This Saturday, February 11, 2012, AMERICA'S MOST WANTED will be airing the following cases from Arizona in a TWO-HOUR CRIMES OF PASSION EDITION on FOX.

Murder, greed and lust abound in the next two-hour special of America's Most Wanted on Fox. In this "Crimes of Passion" episode focusing on the dark side of love, John Walsh teams up with the U.S. Marshals to hunt down one of their 15 Most Wanted: a fugitive from Pennsylvania accused of brutally shooting and killing his wife in a jealous rage.

MIGUEL "MIKE" TORRES – Reading, PA: For years they enjoyed what seemed to be a storybook romance -- a love so strong they didn't even feel the need to formalize it with vows. But after Barbie Lebron married Mike Torres, she found that her new husband had a dark side -- one that would drive him to violent extremes.

CONG CHI LE – Westminster, CA: Gunshots erupt on the streets of a Vietnamese neighborhood south of Los Angeles and now police are on the hunt for one of the shooters, Cong Chi Le, a gang member wanted on charges of attempted murder and street terrorism.

DAVID FRIEND – Springfield, OR: An unexpected family reunion quickly turns from a celebration into one man's fight to survive after he is beaten and shot. Police say a false accusation by a drunken twelve-year-old leads his neighbors, David and Nick Friend, to break into his mother's home and start attacking her cousin with metal pipes. According to authorities the Friend brothers left the home, but David quickly returned with a pistol, shooting his victim in the chest.

UNKNOWN STUART KINGSTON JEWEL HEIST – Wilmington, DE: The FBI hopes revealing surveillance footage can shed some light into the identities of a group of thieves who pulled off one of the most lucrative jewel heists ever. Investigators say four robbers burst through the doors of a family owned jewelry store, tied up the employees, and then fled with hundreds of thousands of dollars of precious gems – and one of those, a rare ruby, that can never be replaced. A Good Samaritan chased the suspect's van across state lines after the robbery, called 9-1-1 and relayed vital information that will hopefully lead to the thieves' identity and capture.

DAVID BURGERT – Missoula, MT: An ex-con and former militia man with a history of violence and anti-government threats, David Burgert is wanted for the attempted murder of two sheriff's deputies.

NATHANIEL HOWELL – Couer D' Alene, ID: Police in Idaho are on the search for a suspected child molester who barely evaded arrest in December 2011.

ALL POINTS BULLETIN (APB):

- JERRED HERNANDEZ – Ukiah, CA: Investigators say that in August 2000, Jerred Hernandez, a recovering drug addict, brutally and fatally bludgeoned his mentor with a baseball bat. Afterward, police say that Hernandez torched the victim's house to destroy the evidence. Though he's been on the run for more than a decade, the FBI is helping out by creating new, age-enhanced photos of what Hernandez might look like today.
- RICK MCLEAN – Southern California: Cops say that for years, Frederick "Rick" McLean, used his position in the Jehovah's Witnesses to hide a lengthy history of child molestation. Authorities tell AMW that when one family finally went to the police, McLean made a fast get-away with a small fortune of cash that he secretly had stashed away.

JOSE CORONA –Lewisville, TX:The U.S. Marshals, Texas Rangers and local law enforcement continue their massive manhunt for Jose Fernando Corona – a man accused of decapitating and dismembering his wife with a chainsaw while she was still alive.

LOVE STORY: DICKIE SIMMONS & LOURDES CARDENAS: In an "America's Most Wanted" case unlike any other, a personal tragedy ends in a love story written for the ages. When Los Angeles Police Detective Dickie Simmons first met Lourdes Cardenas in 1989, he believed their first encounter would be their last as the young woman barely clung to life in the hospital. Lourdes had been shot in the head and chest and her brother fatally wounded when gang members broke into her family's home. Beating the odds, Lourdes survived, and after a 1990 airing of her case on AMW, her brother's killers turned themselves in. At the taping of the capture episode, Dickie and Lourdes were reunited and instantly clicked; kindling a romance that today finds them happily married with two children.
