

ISSUES-PROGRAMS LIST January – March 2013

1. THE CHILDREN'S BLIZZARD
Saturday marks the 125th anniversary of the Children's Blizzard, when hundreds of children and teachers lost their lives in a winter storm that swept across the Great Plains. Guests include Mark Engler, superintendent, Homestead National Monument of America and Blake Bell, National Park Historian.
Program: HEAR IT NOW
Aired: 1-8-13
Time: 3:06-3:30pm
2. ND RURAL ELECTRIC COOPERATIVES
Dennis Hill is the executive vice president and general manager of the ND Association of Rural Electric Cooperatives. We'll get an update on some of the challenges his member co-ops are facing in the west and hear about their priorities this legislative session.
Program: HEAR IT NOW
Aired: 1-16-13
Time: 3:06-3:30PM
3. WILLISTON SCHOOLS
Williston schools are experiencing some tough growing pains. Here to discuss the challenges is Susan Brokow, school board president – we also get the teacher's perspective from Nick Gannoe.
Program: HEAR IT NOW
Aired: 1-22-13
Time: 3:06-3:40PM
4. SPIRIT LAKE RESERVATION
Spirited dialogue on the Spirit Lake Reservation, as officials with the Bureau of Indian Affairs briefed state, federal and tribal officials on the status of Social Services program reforms on the reservation.
Program: Morning Edition
Reporter: Todd McDonald
Aired: 2-28-13
Time: 6:06am, 7:30am
5. ABORTION RIGHTS RALLY
About 300 abortion rights activists rallied at the state Capitol in Bismarck. There were urging Governor Dalrymple to veto bills that would out in place the most restrictive abortion controls in the country.
Program: All Things Considered, Morning Edition
Aired: 3-25-13 and 3-26-13
Reporter: Dave Thompson
Time: 5:30pm and 7:30am