Issue	Program/Title	Description	Date	Time	Duration
Politics	Capital Connection	Ed Cox, chairman of the New York State Republican Party, reviewed the Democratic Party primaries held around the state and contrasted the candidates to the Republicans running for those offices. He highlighted the race for state attorney general, which is wide open after the incumbent resigned. Cox also discussed the governor's approval ratings and how the Republican opponent is doing in the campaign.	07/01/2018	7am	30 mins.
Politics	Capital Connection	J.P. Miller, founder and publisher of the news website Empire Report New York , discussed the latest developments in the Democratic gubernatorial primary, highlighting Gov. Andrew Cuomo's strengths and weaknesses. Miller also described some of the congressional races in the state and whether the incumbents are politically vulnerable.	07/08/2018	7am	30 mins.
Corruption in State Gov't	Capital Connection	Alex Camarda, senior policy adviser for Reinvent Albany, advocated an "ethical clean-up" in New York State government and highlighted a few proposals to increase oversight and decrease corruption. He also commented on the fraud and corruption trial surrounding the "Buffalo Billion" economic development projects.	07/15/2018	7am	30 mins.
Economy
Politics	Capital Connection	New York State Comptroller Thomas Dinapoli reflected on the polls indicating that Gov. Andrew Cuomo is ahead of his opponents in public support. Dinapoli expressed hope that the state legislature would work on ethics reform in the aftermath of the Buffalo Billion economic development scandal. And he discussed whether recreational marijuana should be legalized and if its sale would generate revenue for the state.	07/22/2018	7am	30 mins.
Corruption in State Gov't
Legalization of Marijuana

Media	Capital Connection	Ken Lovett, Albany Bureau Chief for the New York Daily News , discussed all of the layoffs at the Daily News and what that means for journalism. He also reflected on the lead Gov. Andrew Cuomo has in the polls despite the convictions of close associates on corruption charges. Lovett discussed whether New York State should restore voting rights to felons who are released from jail. And he also talked about congressional races in the state which may affect the balance of power in Congress.	07/29/2018	7am	30 mins.
Politics	Capital Connection	Michael Sussman, the Green Party candidate for New York attorney general, described his background as a lawyer and the types of cases he's handled, including discrimination lawsuits. He also talked about the role of the attorney general in investigating government wrongdoing and protecting the environment.	08/05/2018	7am	30 mins.
Voting rights for felons	Capital Connection	Zephyr Teachout, Fordham law professor and Democratic candidate for New York State Attorney General, spoke about the need to be an independent investigator and advocated reinstating a commission to investigate government corruption. She also reacted to the allegations of insider trading against Congressman Chris Collins of western New York. And Teachout highlighted the need for campaign finance reform.	08/12/2018	7am	30 mins.
Corruption in State Gov't	Capital Connection	Ken Lovett, Albany Bureau Chief for the New York Daily News , recapped President Trump's visit to Fort Drum and Utica, NY, and the importance of upstate congressional seats in determining the balance of power in the House of Representatives. Lovett	08/19/2018	7am	30 mins.
Allegations against Collins	Capital Connection
Campaign Finance Reform	Capital Connection
Upstate Congressional Seats	Capital Connection

Politics		also discussed the backlash against Gov. Andrew Cuomo's comment that America "wasn't that great" and how the other gubernatorial candidates are doing so far in this campaign.
Corruption in State Gov't	Capital Connection	Jesse McKinley, Albany Bureau Chief for the New York Times , discussed the relationship between a disgraced lobbyist and Gov. Andrew Cuomo, along with the various economic development scandals which are under investigation. McKinley also discussed the candidates vying to be state attorney general.	08/26/2018	7am	30 mins.
Politics
Politics	Capital Connection	Republican candidate for New York State Comptroller Jonathan Trichter explained why he's running for the position, pointing out that as an investment banker he became frustrated with how the current comptroller had run the office. He also discussed the way pension funds are invested.	09/02/2018	7am	30 mins.
Politics	Capital Connection	Actress and progressive activist Cynthia Nixon, a Democrat challenging New York State Governor Andrew Cuomo in a primary election, discussed the corruption associated with the state's economic development program.
