

ISSUES/PROGRAM LIST

WSEZ-AM

PAOLI, INDIANA

The “Adam Ritz Show” aired on WSEZ-AM on Sunday mornings at 9:00 a.m. and discussed a variety of issues.

The program was 30-minutes in length.

This quarter of 2018 the program aired on the following dates and discussed the following issues.

October 6th...Adam Ritz talked with University of Maryland football player Evan Mulrooney about his work with Best Buddies, a national organization that works with kids with developmental disabilities.

October 13th...Adam Ritz talked with Derek Crudele, Goldey-Beacom College SID about drug and alcohol awareness programs.

October 20th...Adam Ritz talked with Kimberly Ewing of KDE Motivates about raising awareness and reducing bullying.

October 27th...Adam Ritz talked with University of Arkansas student Adam Greenberg about programs at the school to raise money for the Boys & Girls Club and MDA.

November 3rd...Adam Ritz talked with Cori Pinkett, Life Skills Coordinator at Kansas State University, about her work to help prepare student athletes for life after sports.

November 10th...Adam Ritz talked with Larry Brown, basketball coach at Southern Methodist University, about his work with children with autism.

November 17th...Adam Ritz talked with Burleigh Drummond, drummer for Ambrosia, about the group's benefit concerts for cancer research.

November 24th...Adam Ritz talked with Annie Dupre and Alex Wolaver from the Annie Moses Band about the group's foundation to support the Fine Arts.

December 1st...Adam Ritz talked with Martin George, CEO of LTC Language Solutions, about learning a second language.

December 8th...Adam Ritz talked with Anna Liotta, author of Unlocking Generational Codes, about her experience as a motivational speaker.

December 15th...Adam Ritz talked with Anthem Flint, a professional entertainer, about his work with Children's Hospitals.

December 22nd...Adam Ritz talked with comedian Frank Townsend about his unique perspective on fatherhood.

December 29th...Adam Ritz Talked with Rice University basketball coach Don Brown about his players involvement in an organization called Team Impact and its' work with children.