TYPICAL & ILLUSTRATIVE PROGRAMS BROADCAST IN RESPONSE TO COMMUNITY PROBLEMS – OCTOBER 1 – DECEMBER 31, 2018

Title: INDEPENDENT PERSPECTIVE

Source: Tape

Type: PA

Time Broadcast: 6:10-6:15am

Duration: 5 minutes

How Often: Sunday

Brief Description: A weekly program presented by Independent Living Center, talking about problems of the handicapped. Topics discussed were:

The importance of all citizens, including those with disabilities in voting in non-Presidential Election years; WNYIL Centers to hold Meet the Candidates Days for the community in Batavia, Buffalo and Niagara Falls, starting 10/16/18. Todd Vaarwerk, Chief Policy Officer, WNYIL

The TRAIID Project; School Districts that are transitioning students with disabilities to electronic files may not be aware that Chromebooks and iPads have text-to-speech and voice-typing capabilities. Kimberly Naus, Director of the Univ. at Buffalo's Center for Assistive Technology (CAT)

The TRAIID Project; students with dyslexia or other reading impairments can take tests independently by drawing the C-Pen Exam Reader Pen over printed lines and hear the text spoken on headphones. Kimberly Naus, Director of the Univ. at Buffalo's Center for Assistive Technology (CAT)

The work done by each member of the OAHIO team to improve the lives of Native Americans with disabilities is explored, particularly the U.S. Administration for Community Living (ACL)'s Native American Independent Living Demonstration Project, one of three pilot programs in the nation. Lafayette Williams, Indep. Living and Outreach Specialist, OAHIO Native American Indep. Living Services

WNYIL is holding a Launch Party to invite Youth and Young adults with behavioral health diagnoses to provide input on what should be included on its new Youth/Young Adult Website. Lynnette Torgalski, Director, ILC

Independent Living of the Genesee Region, the Half Moon Café and UHAA are seeking artists with disabilities to loan their original wall art to the “ART of the Town” Exhibit in the Café. Mary Kinney, Co-Executive Director of the University Heights Arts Assn. (UHAA)

New "Wellness for All" support group uses materials including: Wellness Recovery Action Plan (WRAP), Person Centered Planning (PCP), and Independent Living Skills Assessment (ILSA) to identify issues and coping strategies. Randy Oaks, Peers Support Specialist, Mental Health PEER Connection (MHPC)

Assisting people with disabilities, the elderly, their families and caregivers to link to long-term-care service and supports through the State's New York Connects program. Kim Congi, NY Connects Independent Living and Outreach Specialist, Indep. Living of Niagara County (ILNC)

Transition of Medicaid Service Coordination consumers to Health Home Care Coordination organizations; Prime Care Coordination is recruiting family caregivers for Advisory Boards. Lynnette Torgalski, Director, Indep. Living Center (ILC)

Due to additions of programs and enlargement of its staff to 18, ILGR is moving to larger quarters in the Crickler Exec. Business Center at 319 West Main Street, Batavia, as of early January 2019. Donna Becker, Assistant to the Director, Indep. Living of the Genesee Region (ILGR)

The Niagara Frontier Radio Reading Service (NFRRS), in which volunteers read newspapers, periodicals, books, and selected magazines for blind, dyslexic, and other "print handicapped" listeners on a special frequency, has joined the WNYIL Family of Agencies. Douglas Usiak, Chief Exec. Officer, Western New York Indep. Living (WNYIL)

2018 -- The Year in Disability Advocacy; continuing efforts to save legal disability protections, project the Affordable Care Act, and pass the Disability Integration Act; changes in the U.S. Congress and the New York State Senate may hold possibilities for citizens with disabilities. Todd Vaarwerk, Chief Policy Officer, Western New York Indep. Living (WNYIL)

WNYIL will be sending a busload of volunteers to Albany on Monday, Feb. 11 for the New York Association for Independent Living's Annual Legislative Day, so citizens with disabilities can share their priorities with our elected leaders. The schedule of bus pickups at Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Batavia is to be determined. Todd Vaarwerk, Chief Policy Officer, WNYIL
