

Public Affairs, Community Needs and Assessment

1st Quarter 2017

1. Gambling Addiction
 2. Tahlequah area 4H.
 3. Relay for Life in Adair County.
 4. Community Chat Program
 5. OBI (Oklahoma Blood Institute) Blood Drives.
1. KEOK / KTLQ broadcast PSA live reads and interview with Gamblers Anonymous In Cherokee County. The station addressed the need for gamblers with the addiction to attend monthly meetings in our listening area including the cities of Tahlequah. These meetings take place on Thursday evenings at 104 N. College ave in Tahlequah at 6:30pm.
 2. The Tahlequah area and Cherokee County 4H held a Chili Dinner fund raiser on February 22nd. Area residents were invited to attend and help raise funds to support 4H in Cherokee County. Lake Country Radio Station place the PSA on it's website and did on air interviews with 4H members.
 3. The Morning Rush on air team conducted on air interviews and help promote the Relay for Life in Cherokee and Adair counties in order to help bring awareness and donations to Relay for Life. Lakes Country Radio Station cover both counties and support this effort each year.
 4. Ralph Lynch, the morning DJ on KTLQ heads up the 15 minute program addressing a wide variety of needs throughout the listening area. Some of the topics covered are as fallows. CASA of Cherokee County, Habitat for Humanity and Cherokee County Emergency Management. This 15 minute is new and updated every week on both KEOK and KTLQ.
 5. Lakes Country Radio Stations are committed to assisting the Oklahoma Blood Institute throughout the year with the blood drives. This helps with creating more awareness of blood needs in our area as well as the need for more donations from area residents. Lakes Country Radio has won the small market broadcast partnership award with the OBI for the last 2 years and are working to create more ways to assist the OBI in this effort.
