WKIP
Quarterly Issues/Programs List

WKIP provides its listeners with programming and public service announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

- Artist & Sculpter: Suprina, a local artist, talks about her sculptures, which often include found object (trash) as part of socially conscious art.
- Arts: Melissa Dvozenja-Thomas, of Arts Mid-Hudson, speaks about the upcoming 33rd Annual Dutchess County Executive's Arts Awards, a celebration of social, economic and personal effects the arts have on our community.
- Author: (No issue/program description given.)
- Community : WESTCOP VETERANS SERVICES
- Community Awareness: Laleen Ali, Facts Coordinator and Aimee Rubin, 2019 Honor of the March on Brain Injury Foundation, speak about the history of the foundation. Aimee discusses how she was injured, her rehabilitation and recovery and how the Brain Injury Foundation played a part in her recovery. Aimee also spoke about her new role with the Foundation. They also spoke about the upcoming Walk on 9/14/19, how to get involved, sponsor and/or contribute.
- Community Event: Mary Albrecht, Committee Chair, and Kathy Kruger, Vendor & Sponsor Chair, of the Pleasant Valley Weekend 2019 discuss how they came to be involved in the event. They also spoke on how the tradition of the event got started and where it's heading now. They spoke about the upcoming event, it's sponsors, vendors and entertainment. Also about volunteering and outreach for the different charities involved.
- Community Services: Satara Brown, Founder & CEO and Alfonso Brown, Board Member of Rebuilding Our Children & Community talk about the agency's youth projects. Their most recent projects included a back-to-school event where hundreds of Dutchess Cty elementary school kids received free backpacks filled with school supplies. They also spoke of their successful Summer reading program and their plans for an afterschool program this Fall which will feature homework help and other activities.

- County Government: Marcus Molinaro, Dutchess County Executive, discussed his last eight years in office, the different programs available throughout the county, the events that took place this past summer. He also spoke about the problems facing the county and some of the solutions being implemented to fix them.
- Education: WALKWAY OVER THE HUDSON SKYRIDE
- Entertainment: Sleuth, a local author and Hip Hop entertainer, talks about his new memoir "Hip-Hop Tales", that recount his adventures as a music promoter for groups, including Digital Underground. He is now back in Poughkeepsie promoting a lecture series starting with Toni Blackman, a US State Dept. Hip Hop Cultural Ambassador and inspirational speaker.
- Founder of Marist Poll: (No issue/program description given.)
- Local Community: Peter Leonard and The Poet Gold talked about new beginnings, poetry and themselves - about their interaction in personal and public ways. The discussion takes a philosophical turn by exploring the intimate, though complex, relationship between and individual interior self and the community presentation of that self.
- Military Support: Richie Lay, Chairman of the Purple Heart Hall of Honor Inc and Russ Vernon, Vice-Chairman of the Purple Heart Hall of Honor Inc, discuss their background and service with the military and how they became involved with the Purple Heart Hall of Honor organization. They spoke on the missions of the Hall and museum, the programs and opportunities available. They also spoke of the upcoming Patriot Project event on 8/7/2019, plans for expansion and the future of the organization.
- Music: Gwen Laster, a Jazz Violinist and teacher at Bard College, talks about growing up in urban Detroit, with a mother passion about jazz and a city alive with music and becoming a Jazz Violinist. She spoke about how her interests and talents have brought her to collaborate with many artists, including Alicia Keys and Rhianna. She has also collaborated with The Poet Gold, with whom she produced a piece on the Newburgh Four, for a Black Lives Matter Collection.
- Real Estate: Valerie Hail, owner of Le Petit Chateau, discusses how she got into the real estate business, how the business has changed and the effects of NY State Bill 56484/A8281 on private real estate owners.
- Social Issues: Mike Davis and DJ Apollo, both life-long Dutchess County residents, talk about their podcast "Social Thought" which is the only weekly podcast in the Hudson Valley dedicated to the community and national issues from an African-American perspective.
- Suicide Awareness: Ty King, Town of Highlands Councilman and a Retired Command Sgt. Major of the US Army and Founder of SL4 Entertainment, discuss with J Will, host of Clear View HV show this week, this thirty year career in the US Army, his adjustment to civilian life, the struggle he faced. He founded SL4 Entertainment with the mission to help prevent suicide in Vets and how his organization is supporting these Vets.

- Veterans Services: Adam Roche, Program Director of Dutchess County Vet2Vet and Marc Coviello, Director of Dutchess County Veterans Services, talked about the mission of their respective organizations, opportunities to support and volunteer with their organizations and upcoming events.
