WOLT
Quarterly Issues/Programs List

---

WOLT provides its listeners with programming and public service announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

- Fairbanks Addiction Treatment Center: Organization providing recovery treatment.
- Indy Hunger Network: Coalition of hunger relief organizations.
- People for Urban Progress (PUP): PUP focuses on innovative and creative ideas/projects that focus on reuse and sustainability through projects like "Dome Bag Project" and the Amtrak Collection.
- The Harrison Center for the City: Community-based, nonprofit arts organization that seeks to be a catalyst for renewal in the city of Indianapolis.
- Women's Fund of Central Indiana: Organization whose mission is to mobilize people, ideas and investments so women in community have equitable opportunity to reach full potential regardless of background.
- Big Brothers Big Sisters of Indianapolis: Organization that partners youth with parents/caregivers, volunteers, schools, and donors so each child can reach his or her full potential.
- Impact 100 Greater Indianapolis: Charitable women's giving circle whose mission is to award grants to nonprofits in the community in the areas of Arts, Culture & Preservation, Education, etc.
- Hope Healthcare Services: Clinic offers low-cost, quality healthcare to uninsured.
- Children's Bureau: Organization with a mission to preserve families and protect the future of Indiana's children.
- US Army: The US Army presents Brilliantly Black in the month of February and offers different personal stories about its recruitment and benefits.
- Indy Opera: The Indy Opera's mission is to educate, inspire, and entertain through musical storytelling.
- American Heart Month: February is recognized as American Heart Month and Julie Simpson, independent Nurse Practitioner with MedExpress, discusses more about heart health.
- A Kid Again: Resources allowing children with disabilities the opportunity to fulfill childhood wishes.
- Indiana Council on Problem Gambling: Indiana Council on Problem Gambling is an organization that offers resources to individuals and families affected by problem gambling.
