ISSUE DESCRIPTION: DATE/TIME: DURATION: DESCRIPTION OF PROGRAM SEGMENT:

Political	Commonwealth Club	1/6/13 5:00am	:30 minutes	San Antonio Mayor Julián Castro electrified the Charlotte audience during his keynote speech at the 2012 Democratic National Convention, reminding the audience that “The American dream is not a sprint, or even a marathon, but a relay!” Castro’s rise began in San Antonio, encouraged and inspired by his Mexican-American single mother, a political activist. Mayor Castro has prioritized creating economic and educational opportunities for his constituents, because he knows it can change the course of your life. Indeed, both Mayor Castro and his twin brother, Texas Congressman Joaquin Castro, went to Stanford University and Harvard Law School.
Health	Tuned In with Mike Johnson	1/6/13 5:30am	:30 minutes	Margaret Steele Project Angel Food Project Angel Food's mission is to nourish the body and spirit of men, women and children affected by HIV/AIDS, cancer, and other life-threatening illnesses. Volunteers and staff cook and deliver free and nutritious meals prepared with love throughout Los Angeles County, acting out of a sense of urgency because hunger and illness do not wait.
Economy	Commonwealth Club	1/13/13 5:00am	:30 minutes	Democratic strategist Chris Lehane and Republican operative Steve Schmidt will sit down for a candid conversation about bridging the bitter partisan divide over how to grow America’s economy without frying the planet. Lehane worked in the Clinton-Gore White House, where he wrote a memo that was the origin of Hillary Clinton’s statement about a “vast right wing conspiracy.”
Health	Tuned In with Mike Johnson	1/13/13 5:30am	:30 minutes	Susan Galeas Alzheimers Association The Alzheimer's Association is the leading, global voluntary health organization in Alzheimer's care and support, and the largest private, nonprofit funder of Alzheimer's research.

Gun Control	Commonwealth Club	1/20/13 5:00am		Senator Feinstein says that the United States should restrain the use of guns on the street and drones in the air. Gun control legislation is inching forward in Congress, though Senate Majority Leader Harry Reid cut out the assault weapon ban that Feinstein has long championed. Calling drones a “very dangerous weapon,” she says sales to other countries should be prohibited and that rules need to be placed on commercial use in this country. And though the Obama administration’s drone program aimed at al-Qaeda has drawn criticism from both sides of the aisle, Feinstein contends that the CIA has conducted itself responsibly and should keep running the program rather than transfer it to the Pentagon, as news reports indicate may happen.
Social	Tuned In with Mike Johnson	1/20/13 5:30am	:30 minutes	Stuart Haskin Get Safe GET SAFE envisions a world in which fear is replaced with awareness, understanding and acceptance. A world in which every individual awakens to the joy and power of being present in every moment.
Economy	Commonwealth Club	1/27/13 5:00am	:30 minutes	Grover Norquist, who as president of Americans for Tax Reform works to limit the size and cost of government, opposes higher taxes at the federal, state and local levels, and supports tax reform that moves toward taxing consumed income one time at one rate. Norquist organizes the Taxpayer Protection Pledge, which asks all candidates for federal and state office to commit themselves in writing to the American people to oppose all tax increases. In the 113th Congress, 219 House members and 39 senators have taken the pledge. A lightning rod for controversy, Norquist has been instrumental in helping direct conservative politics during the 21st century.

Political	Commonwealth Club	2/3/13 5:00am	:30 minutes	David A. Stockman Former U.S. Congressman; Author, The Great Deformation: How Crony Capitalism Corrupts Free Markets and Democracy Stockman, one of the architects of the Reagan Revolution, says that crony capitalism has made fools of us all, transforming Republican treasury secretaries into big-government interventionists and populist Democratic presidents into industry-wrecking internationalists. Stockman will discuss where he believes capitalism went wrong in this country and how it might be restored. His analysis questions the assumptions of Keynesians and monetarists alike, arguing that both "liberal" and "neo-conservative" interference in markets can be damaging and often dangerous. Stockman was elected as a Michigan congressman in 1976 and joined the Reagan White House in 1981.
Equal Rights	Tuned In with Mike Johnson	2/3/13 5:30am	:30 minutes	Mary Ann Vorasky CivilUnions4All.org Their mission is to bring about all necessary changes in U.S. federal and state laws so that every couple wishing to form a committed relationship known traditionally and legally as "marriage" will have a "civil union." Their mission includes the establishment of "civil union" as a government-sanctioned social contract available to people who do not have a sexual relationship, but are forming a household for companionship or economic reasons. This will allow religions to define "marriage" as they choose, and will ensure civil rights for every person choosing to form a civil union: all the rights and benefits currently accorded only to married persons shall be accorded to civil union partners.
