

PROGRAMS & ISSUES QUARTERLY REPORT – 4th Quarter 2023

| ISSUE | SEGMENT | DATE | TIME(S) | LENGTH | SUMMARY |
|-------------|--------------------|-------------|-------------|-------------|---|
| Various | Community Calendar | 1/1-1/31/24 | Hourly | 744 minutes | Information about a variety of local events, from free meals to free concerts, classes, and other community events throughout our listening area. |
| Foster Care | Community Matters | 01/06/24 | 10:00:00 AM | 14 minutes | Interview with Norman Armstrong, a foster parent from West Virginia. Norman describes his experience, how he got involved with foster parenting in the first place. He addresses the stigma about foster care and points out that there are more than 400,000 children in need of a foster family, and he discusses next steps for those who would be interested in getting involved. |
| Foster Care | Community Matters | 01/07/24 | 10:00:00 AM | 14 minutes | Interview with Norman Armstrong, a foster parent from West Virginia. Norman describes his experience, how he got involved with foster parenting in the first place. He addresses the stigma about foster care and points out that there are more than 400,000 children in need of a foster family, and he discusses next steps for those who would be interested in getting involved. |
| Various | Community Calendar | 2/1-2/29/24 | Hourly | 696 minutes | Information about a variety of local events, from free meals to free concerts, classes, and other community events throughout our listening area. |

| | | | | | |
|---------------------------------|--------------------|-------------|-------------|-------------|---|
| Nursing home and rehab services | Community Matters | 2/10/24 | 10:00:00 AM | 8 minutes | Interview with Anna Hall, Activity Director at Woodland Oaks nursing home and rehab center in Ashland, KY. They offer both short term and long term services, depending on people's needs, and are working to reverse the stigma many people have about nursing home facilities. There are a variety of opportunities for people to volunteer and help, but volunteerism has been down since Covid. |
| Nursing home and rehab services | Community Matters | 2/11/24 | 10:00:00 AM | 8 minutes | Interview with Anna Hall, Activity Director at Woodland Oaks nursing home and rehab center in Ashland, KY. They offer both short term and long term services, depending on people's needs, and are working to reverse the stigma many people have about nursing home facilities. There are a variety of opportunities for people to volunteer and help, but volunteerism has been down since Covid. |
| Various | Community Calendar | 3/1-3/31/24 | Hourly | 744 minutes | Information about a variety of local events, from free meals to free concerts, classes, and other community events throughout our listening area. |

| | | | | | |
|--------------|-------------------|----------|-------------|-----------|---|
| Missionaries | Community Matters | 03/02/24 | 10:00:00 AM | 9 minutes | Interview with Jordan and Ashlyn Christian, owners of Mission Grounds Coffee. The coffee shop is located inside Christ Temple Church in Huntington, WV, and began originally as a way for Jordan and Ashlyn to raise money for a mission trip to Israel. Now, they have several people who volunteer hours to raise money for various mission trips. Money raised from the sale of coffee covers the cost of materials to keep the shop open, but all proceeds go to missionary work. |
| Missionaries | Community Matters | 03/03/24 | 10:00:00 AM | 9 minutes | Interview with Jordan and Ashlyn Christian, owners of Mission Grounds Coffee. The coffee shop is located inside Christ Temple Church in Huntington, WV, and began originally as a way for Jordan and Ashlyn to raise money for a mission trip to Israel. Now, they have several people who volunteer hours to raise money for various mission trips. Money raised from the sale of coffee covers the cost of materials to keep the shop open, but all proceeds go to missionary work. |

| | | | | | |
|------------------|-------------------|----------|-------------|-----------|--|
| Camping Ministry | Community Matters | 03/24/24 | 10:00:00 AM | 9 minutes | Interview with Brit Young, middle school pastor at Christ Temple Church in Huntington, WV. They are planning to have a fundraiser 5K on April 13th at Barboursville Park. Proceeds from the 5K will help to sponsor a church camp this summer. The camp is open to middle and high schoolers, and will have a Hunger Games theme. Brit discusses the benefits of "unplugging", socializing, and learning team-building skills. Money raised from the 5K will help to keep the cost of camp down for those who are interested. |
| Camping Ministry | Community Matters | 03/25/24 | 10:00:00 AM | 9 minutes | Interview with Brit Young, middle school pastor at Christ Temple Church in Huntington, WV. They are planning to have a fundraiser 5K on April 13th at Barboursville Park. Proceeds from the 5K will help to sponsor a church camp this summer. The camp is open to middle and high schoolers, and will have a Hunger Games theme. Brit discusses the benefits of "unplugging", socializing, and learning team-building skills. Money raised from the 5K will help to keep the cost of camp down for those who are interested. |