

WWAC-AM QUARTER TWO ISSUES & PROGRAMS LIST

April-May-June, 2023

By Enrico S. Brancadora, Licensee

SECTION 1. Issues

WIBG-FM has identified the following issues as significant concerns facing our community during this quarter. These are aired consistently at 5:13am, 12:20pm and 7:05-pm with varying lengths

A. INTEGRITY IN EDUCATION. Our WWAC-AM Issues deal specifically with the WOKE movement and how critical race theory has perverted the educational process in our local municipalities

B. MASS MIGRATION Our detailed reports this quarter looks at the growing problem of mass migration and the huge increase in homeless illegals wandering the streets of Atlantic City and Wildwood.

C. TRANSIT AND NEW JOBS IN AVIATION WWAC-AM based its full spectrum coverage on the shifting relationship between casino based revenue, employment and the soon coming of casino gaming in New York City and its ultimate impact on the future of gaming in Atlantic City.

D. ELITE GROWING CLASS RULING OVER LOCAL TOWNS; With the inception of offshore Wind turbines off Atlantic and Cape May shores, the public has become far more outspoken on this issue, demanding the state and federal government cease planning until the public weighs in on this subject.

E. PROBABLE CAUSE OF HALLWAY FIGHTS AT ATLANTIC CITY HIGH SCHOOL- Atlantic City High School has seen a sustained rise of fights and bullying in their hallways. As we did in Quarter One, we went into the schools to gauge the response from students parents and teachers as to what can be done to curb the violence. WWAC-AM did an indepth series on the causal relationship between the violence and the response from City leaders.

F. VETERANS AFFAIRS AND THEIR HEALTH AND SAFETY FOLLOWING DEVASTATION NEWS THAT COVID VACCINES CONTRIBUTE GREATLY TO HEALTH PROBLEMS AT ALL AGE LEVELS

WWAC-AM polled more than 25 listeners and people on the streets of Vineland, Brigantine and Atlantic City to find out what our senior listeners think of the increase menace of the vaccines. Many were surprized to learn of the latest data which pointed to the close association with covide and health issues caused by what some call clotshots.

G. NEW WATERPARK EFFECT ON TOURISM IN ATLANTIC CITY

WWAC-AM queried more than a dozen listeners on air and on the streets as to how significant the 100 million dollar Waterpark opening in June will have to the tourist industry. Many believe it will also have negative impacts of the increase drug use in the city and surrounding towns.

SECTION II Responsive Programs

WIBBAGE 20/20 Local Issues Broadcast in two parts April 3rd and 4th duration 5 each as our locally produced segment names the locations of the city and in the outlying townships, as to where the problem of student absenteeism is the most intense, We featured interviews with City Council President Sporty Randolph on the power play between Mayor Small and five members of the city council. Councilman Jesse Kurtz detailed the growing schism between council member, some calling much of the action as black .

ASK Your Mayor, a two part segment broadcast on April 11th and 12 8th with special guest, Peter Byron, the Mayor of Wildwood, discussing the challenges local officials have in developing curricula that meets the needs of the local students. Addressed were after school programs, the need for greater parental accountability of their students. Also, more discussion on the juvenile curfew in Ocean City, aired April 10th and 11th with the effect of eliminating roving bands of youth at night on the boardwalk. Current run time for these programs were 3:23, 3:15 and 3 minutes respectively

Segment Two of the Issues programs included environmental impact of the growing global health crisis, and the impact for local hospitals in Atlantic City and Wildwood. These feature aired April 15th and 16th with run times of 2:38 and 4:15 . Segent two was a 3 part series Aired May 2nd and 3rd with special emphasis on the relationship between the Biden Administration and the response from local Congressman Jeff Van Drew a member of the House Judiciary Committee. In exclusive interviews he indicated that this will eventually lead to the impeachment of the Attorney General and ultimately President Biden.

HOUSING CRISIS IN ATLANTIC CITY PROJECTS

May 14th and 15th, , WIBG-FM provided full investgation reports of the horrific living conditions a Stanley Homes and Back Maryland projects.

One May 25th and 26th, we interviewed the Mayor and several members on what they are insisting the Atlantic City Housing Authority must do to maintain conditions and make necessary repairs. These segments were 2:33, 3:15 and 3:04

ENERGY PRICES

In our WWAC-AM three part Issues series airing April 20 and 21st, , we spoke with Energy Department representative and Congressman Jeff Van Drew elaborating on the hardship this Administration has set into motion against the people. Van Drew commented that in less than two years, the American economy has been destroyed by deliberate bad actors. Duration of these segments are 4minutes, 3.5minutes and 3 minutes. There was lots of input from listeners on this subject.

Welcome Home Veterans Program in June 8th and 15th with host Joe Griffes outlined the problems local veterans are facing because of steep gas prices and the impact that it is having on their lifestyles. His guests included Major General Bruce Hawkins discussing the terrible economy and its impact on local veterans..

June 18th and 19th , WWAC- AM features two Issues segments in which we interviewed several member of the Egg Harbor City Council on the growing cost of running the water treatment plant and they have indicated that the pending sale of the facility to New Jersey American Water will cause a slight decrease in local property taxes. The program length was 4:14 and 2:25 on each of those consecutive broadcast days.

SENIOR CARE NEEDS AND HOMELESS VETERANS

WWAC-AM's Director of Veterans Affairs Joe Griffes interviewed seven leading military officers on this growing menace of veterans returning home from service with no where to go, no residence to return to and what the military is not doing in answering these needs. . The programs aired on June 20 th with the two part series running times of 3:15 and 4:12. Many listeners called in to voice their concerns for our homeless veterans in South Jersey. Duration of the segments were 36 minutes and 14 seconds respectively.