

QUARTERLY ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT

FOR

WBBM-FM HD-2 (rebroadcast STATION KNX-FM & HD-2)

1st Quarter, 2022
(Jan 1st – Mar 31st)

Prepared by:

Jared Andrea, Programming Coordinator

Issues of Concern to Los Angeles, CA
Addressed in Responsive Programming in the
1st Quarter, 2022

Subject	Description of Issue of Concern
1. Health	Information regarding the latest breakthroughs in health care is needed, including new discoveries, programs and services. Disaster preparedness to preserve one's health.
2. Economy	Our local economy has been slow to recover from the recent recession. Information on services to assist the public is needed.
3. Education & Child Care	Whether being abused, needing special education, fighting truancy or needing college prep, children & parents need assistance.
4. Local Community Services	Mentioned are free or low-cost community services available to the public to assist with spousal abuse, child abuse, animal abuse or even the arts. Information on free programs is featured.
5. Crime & Drugs	Crime and drug abuse remain a key issue in our area.
6. Public Safety	The safety of the public is priority and information on how to prevent danger and maintain caution.
7. Animals & Wildlife	As wildlife is constantly affected by the perils of man and nature, OpenLine helps to provide the means of animal protection and adoption information needed to sustain the ecosystem and its diverse chain of useful inhabitants.
8. Politics	Highlighting propositions, political issues, and presidential candidates during this year's Elections.
9. Environment	From our coastal areas to our forests, the environment needs our help to preserve and restore it.

KNX-FM HD2 (Channel Q) Programs That Address Community Issues

(Regularly Scheduled Public Affairs Programs)
1st Quarter, 2022

Public Affairs Program

Schedule and Description

1. Open Line
Sundays, 6-7am. Hosted by Tami Heide, this program features interviews with experts on community issues, along with comments from the listeners.

Most Significant Issue-Responsive Programming
1st Quarter, 2022
(Jan 1st - Mar 31st)

ISSUE: Health
-----------------------------

Open Line

Date: 1/2/22

Time: 6:00 AM

Duration: 6 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Dr. Joshua Gordon

American teenagers are in the midst of a full blown mental health crisis: warning from the U.S. surgeon general's office warns of surging rates of depression, suicide attempts among adolescents. KNX's Mike Simpson and Charles Feldman speak with Dr. Joshua Gordon, director of the National Institute of Mental Health within the NIH; he's a psychiatrist and neurobiologist by training.

Open Line

Date: 1/2/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 6 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Christina Agapakis

A robot, using a DNA strain sequenced from frogs, can now self replicate--what could possibly go wrong? KNX's Mike Simpson and Charles Feldman speak with Christina Agapakis, synthetic biologist & creative director of Ginkgo Bioworks--the company that created the self replicated robot.

Open Line

Date: 1/2/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 6 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Skye Marina and Janet Sciales

The pandemic has led to a surge in tarot card sales and readings as people look for alternative ways to ease their fears and anxiety. The surge though follows a growing trend of younger people looking to mix and match different forms or spiritual and religious practices. And what do the stars show us for 2022 and the pandemic. KNX's Mike Simpson and Charles Feldman speak with Skye Marina, tarot card reader from Washington, D.C. and Janet Sciales, "The Star Goddess" astrologer.

ISSUE:      Health (continued)
---------------------------------------

Open Line

Date: 1/9/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 4 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Dr. Monica Gandhi

Covid cases are skyrocketing in California, across the U.S. and the world. But hospitalizations and deaths have not climbed at the same rate. Does this mean we all should stop focusing on case numbers, especially when it comes to deciding on lock downs and closures? KNX's Mike Simpson and Charles Feldman speak with Dr. Monica Gandhi, infectious disease physician at UC San Francisco.

Open Line

Date: 1/9/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 5 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Dr. Timothy Brewer

Having Covid is bad enough but what about the flu at the same time? It's real and it's called "flurona." the first case of this double whammy has been confirmed in la county. Health officials say "flurona" could be especially troublesome for those with underlying health conditions and the unvaccinated. KNX's Charles Feldman and Mike Simpson speak with Dr. Timothy Brewer, professor of epidemiology at the UCLA Fielding School of Public Health.

Open Line

Date: 1/9/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 5 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Dr. John Piacentini

If you're worried about catching Covid when you leave home, there are apps for that. It can help figure out the risk you have of catching Covid when you visit certain places in your community. Can relying on this app create even more anxiety? Will people constantly be in fear when going out? KNX's Mike Simpson and Rob Archer speak with Dr. Norman Fried, Clinical Psychologist and Professor at Columbia University specializing in family/parenting counseling.

ISSUE:      Health (continued)
---------------------------------------

Open Line

Date: 1/9/21

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 5 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Dr. Norman Fried

The pandemic has taken a major mental health toll on students both in college and younger for many reasons. They're exhausted, especially with all the constant changes with their routine and schooling. Schools open, then close, then the kids need to be vaccinated, then boosted, then tested, then schools close, then more testing, etc. Have we accepted more harm to our kids for less harm to adults? KNX's Rob Archer and Mike Simpson speak with Dr. Norman Fried, Clinical Psychologist and Professor at Columbia University specializing in family/parenting counseling.

Open Line

Date: 1/16/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 5 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Dr. Anne Rimoin

The Covid news isn't all bad. Scientists are seeing signals the omicron wave may have peaked in Britain and is about to do the same in the U.S., at which point cases may start dropping off dramatically. The reason: the variant has proved so wildly contagious that it may already be running out of people to infect, just a month and a half after it was first detected in South Africa. KNX's Charles Feldman and Mike Simpson speak with Dr. Anne Rimoin, professor of epidemiology and the Gordon-Levin Endowed Chair in Infectious Diseases and Public Health at the UCLA Fielding School of Public Health.

Open Line

Date: 1/16/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 7 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Steve McFarland

Warnings are out to watch for fake Covid testing kits and fake testing sites that you see on the street corners. Testing kits are in short supply and getting more expensive, forcing some people to search online or anywhere to find them. But buyers should be wary of scammers selling fake kits. KNX's Charles Feldman and Mike Simpson speak with Steve McFarland, President and CEO of Better Business Bureau of Los Angeles & Silicon Valley

ISSUE:      Health (continued)
---------------------------------------

Open Line

Date: 1/16/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 5 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Richard van Breemen

Cannabis compounds might prevent Covid. A study from Oregon State University finds two compounds were identified during a chemical screening effort as having potential to combat coronavirus, does this mean we all should smoke pot or enjoy edibles to fight off Covid? KNX's Charles Feldman and Mike Simpson speak with Richard van Breemen, researcher with Oregon State University's Global Hemp Innovation Center

Open Line

Date: 1/16/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 5 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Dr. Fatima Cody-Stanford

If you've made a new year's resolution to exercise and lose weight but are already thinking of quitting because the results aren't there---don't! A new study finds exercise has benefits for the whole body even if you're not losing weight. KNX's Charles Feldman and Mike Simpson speak with Dr. Fatima Cody-Stanford, Obesity Medicine Doctor at Massachusetts General Hospital

Open Line

Date: 1/23/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 4 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Dr. Peter Katona

Is omicron as mild as we hope? LA County is now seeing a noticeable increase in deaths. It averaged 40 deaths a day over the past week which is the highest rate in nearly 10 months. How much worse will it get? KNX's Charles Feldman and Mike Simpson speak with Dr. Peter Katona, clinical professor of medicine in infectious diseases at UCLA's Geffen School of Medicine; he formerly worked as an epidemic intelligence services officer at the CDC.

ISSUE:      Health (continued)
---------------------------------------

Open Line

Date: 1/23/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 4 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Dr. George Rutherford

Scientists are unsure if this massive omicron wave will transform the pandemic to an endemic. That's because they're concerned new variants could spark future waves. They say there's no guarantee we're moving that much closer to the end. KNX's Mike Simpson and Charles Feldman speak with Dr. George Rutherford, epidemiologist & director of the Division of Prevention & Public Health at UC San Francisco's School of Medicine.

Open Line

Date: 1/23/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 4 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Indra Cheema

Hospitals across LA County and California are at the breaking point right now. Nurses are stressed and upset. They're protesting today in Southern California to demand the hospital industry invest in safe staffing. They're also demanding they get more protections from work and are condemning the idea of letting asymptomatic covid-positive patients return to work. KNX's Charles Feldman and Mike Simpson speak with Indra Cheema, nurse at Ronald Reagan UCLA Medical Center

Open Line

Date: 1/23/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 6 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Dr. Jeffrey Platt

A man is alive today thanks to a pig heart. Doctors at the University of Maryland transplanted the first ever pig heart into a human in a last-ditch effort to save the man's life. The man said before surgery he knew it was a shot in the dark but it was his last choice. Could this be the future of heart transplants? KNX's Charles Feldman and Mike Simpson speak with Dr. Jeffrey Platt, Professor of Transplant Surgery & Microbiology and Immunology at the University of Michigan School of Medicine.

ISSUE:      Health (continued)
---------------------------------------

Open Line

Date: 1/30/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 6 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Christopher Wallis

A new study finds women are more likely to die after an operation if the surgeon is male. The issues did not extend to male patients — they were just 2% more likely to have complications with a female surgeon, and compared to women, they were 13% less likely to die with a male surgeon. So why the difference and should women worry? KNX's Charles Feldman and Mike Simpson speak with Christopher Wallis, Assistant Professor of Urology, University of Toronto; lead author of study.

Open Line

Date: 1/30/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 6 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: David Schmid

Do you think people who are obsessed with all things celebrity are stupid? If you do, you might actually be right. A study out of Hungary finds those who had high scores on the celebrity attitude scale correlated with lower performance on the two cognitive ability tests. So why are people so intrigued by celebrities? KNX's Charles Feldman and Mike Simpson speak with David Schmid, pop culture expert; true crime author and English professor at University at Buffalo.

Open Line

Date: 2/6/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 4 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Dr. Jeffrey Klausner

More and more doctors are now urging public health officials to begin easing Covid restrictions. Some even say masks should start coming off kids in California. Some European countries are giving up on restrictions. Should the U.S. follow? KNX's Charles Feldman and Mike Simpson speak with Dr. Jeffrey Klausner, epidemiologist & clinical professor of preventative medicine at USC Keck School of Medicine

ISSUE:      Health (continued)
---------------------------------------

Open Line

Date: 2/6/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 4 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Kathryn Barger

Pictures have come out from the Rams NFC championship game on Sunday of celebrities, Governor Newsom and LA mayor Eric Garcetti with no masks. This violates public health guidelines which call for masking at large mega events indoors and outdoors. An LA county supervisor is now calling for a major re-evaluation of mask rules in the county. KNX's Mike Simpson and Charles Feldman speak with Kathryn Barger, LA County Supervisor

Open Line

Date: 2/13/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 4 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Dr. Peter Chin-Hong

California's indoor mask mandate ends next week. There are concerns it might be too soon. There are others who say it can't come soon enough. When exactly is the right time to ditch masks? Maybe it depends on each person's comfort level. KNX's Charles Feldman and Mike Simpson speak with Dr. Peter Chin-Hong, infectious disease specialist at UC San Francisco

Open Line

Date: 2/13/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 6 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Dr. Noel Bairey Merz

The pandemic might be leading to more broken hearts--literally. Researchers have been tracking a recent surge in cases of broken heart syndrome, likely spiking substantially during the pandemic. This stress-induced heart condition seems to be impacting women much more. KNX's Charles Feldman and Mike Simpson speak with Dr. Noel Bairey Merz, director of the Barbra Streisand Heart Center at Cedars-Sinai

ISSUE:      Health (continued)
---------------------------------------

Open Line

Date: 2/20/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 7 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Dr. Dean Blumberg

California's indoor mask mandate officially ends at midnight except in LA County and a few other areas. Disneyland now says it's ditching masks. Coachella and Stagecoach say no masks there either when they return. So what's the holdup for LA County? KNX's Mike Simpson and Charles Feldman speak with Dr. Dean Blumberg, pediatrician & infectious disease specialist at UC Davis Health

Open Line

Date: 2/20/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 4 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Kathryn Barger

Governor Newsom is set to announce the "endemic" phase of fighting covid here in California. That means fewer restrictions. This comes as LA County's public health director says the easing of certain mask requirements could begin next week. Are we headed in the right direction here in LA County? Also, there's still confusion about indoor masks and CDC guidance. KNX's Charles Feldman and Mike Simpson speak with Kathryn Barger, LA County Supervisor

Open Line

Date: 2/20/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 6 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Marian Kohut

If you want to maximize the effectiveness of the covid or flu vaccine then put on your running or walking shoes. A new study finds people who exercised for 90 minutes right after their shot subsequently produced more antibodies than people who did not. KNX's Mike Simpson and Charles Feldman speak with Marian Kohut, professor of kinesiology and member of the Nanovaccine Institute at Iowa State University; she oversaw the new study

ISSUE:      Health (continued)
---------------------------------------

Open Line

Date: 2/27/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 5 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Dr. Peter Katona

New studies suggest three doses of a Covid vaccine, possibly even just two, are enough to protect most people from serious illness and death for a long time. This comes as questions circle about whether people will need a fourth shot. KNX's Mike Simpson and Charles Feldman speak with Dr. Peter Katona, clinical professor of medicine in infectious diseases at UCLA's Geffen School of Medicine.

Open Line

Date: 2/27/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 6 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Dr. Daniel Rhoads

New research has some concerning findings about the Omicron subvariant known as ba.2. Lab experiments from Japan show that ba.2 may have features that make it as capable of causing serious illness as older variants of covid-19, including delta. KNX's Charles Feldman and Mike Simpson speak with Dr. Daniel Rhoads, section head of microbiology at the Cleveland Clinic

Open Line

Date: 2/27/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 4 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Dr. Purvi Parwani

Doctors say Covid could damage your heart without you even knowing. One local doctor estimates long Covid heart symptoms occur in 10% to 30% of patients. Women seem to be impacted more with chest pain, fatigue and erratic heart rhythms. KNX's Mike Simpson and Charles Feldman speak with Dr. Purvi Parwani, director of the COVID-19 Heart Clinic at Loma Linda University Health

ISSUE:      Health (continued)
---------------------------------------

Open Line

Date: 3/6/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 6 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Dr. Andrew Noymer

The CDC is revising its mask guidance. It announced a change to the metrics it uses to determine whether to recommend masks. It's shifting from looking at covid-19 case counts to a more holistic view of risk from the coronavirus to a community. This comes as LA County and Pasadena are relaxing their mask requirements indoors. KNX's Mike Simpson and Charles Feldman speak with Dr. Andrew Noymer, professor of population health & disease prevention at UC Irvine.

Open Line

Date: 3/13/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 6 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Dr. Timothy Brewer

LA might get rid of its requirement that businesses like restaurants, theaters and gyms check for proof of vaccination. This comes after LA County lifted many mask requirements and stopped requiring vaccination verification at the indoor portions of bars, wineries, breweries, distilleries, nightclubs and lounges. KNX's Charles Feldman and Mike Simpson speak with Dr. Timothy Brewer, professor of epidemiology at the UCLA Fielding School of Public Health

Open Line

Date: 3/20/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 10 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Dr. Sarah Combs and Dr. Sabrina Assoumou

This week marks the two-year anniversary of the official start of the Covid-19 pandemic. Deaths in the U.S. are creeping toward one million as the world count of roughly six million could be significantly higher. People though in the U.S. are now moving forward without masks and looking to get back to some kind of normal. KNX's Mike Simpson and Charles Feldman speak with Dr. Sarah Combs, pediatric emergency medicine physician at Children's National Hospital in Washington D.C. and Dr. Sabrina Assoumou, Infectious Diseases physician at Boston Medical Center and professor at Boston University School of Medicine

Most Significant Issue-Responsive Programming
1st Quarter, 2022
(Jan 1st - Mar 31st)

ISSUE: Economy
------------------------------

Open Line

Date: 1/2/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 6 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Claudia Sahm

Weekly jobless claims reach their lowest levels in 50 years; this plus big monthly job creation numbers and gdp numbers show a booming economy---so why do most of us feel pretty lousy about the economic state of the country? KNX's Charles Feldman and Mike Simpson speak with Claudia Sahm, economist & senior fellow at the Jain Family Institute; she served as chief of the Division of Consumer and Community Affairs at the Federal Reserve Board.

Open Line

Date: 1/2/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 5 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Jeff Lazerson

Inflation is up and it might be time to buy a house. That sounds strange but mortgage rates are remaining low and even going down. It's never happened before where inflation is up and mortgage rates are down. Why this disconnect now? KNX's Chris Sedens and Charles Feldman speak with Jeff Lazerson, President of Mortgage Grader in Laguna Niguel.

Open Line

Date: 1/9/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 6 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Misty Heggeness

People keep quitting their jobs in record numbers. A record 4.5 million workers bounced in November. This came as employers posted 10.6 million jobs. With so many people quitting, are they all just switching jobs? Not necessarily. Many people, especially women, are staying home to care for sick family members or because there's a lack of child care. How will the pandemic change the work place for women? KNX's Mike Simpson and Rob Archer speak with Misty Heggeness, Principal Economist and Senior Advisor for the U.S. Census Bureau.

ISSUE:      Economy (cont.)
------------------------------------

Open Line

Date: 1/9/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 6 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Janicza Bravo

A new study finds the number of female directors on top-grossing films in 2021 decreased. Women accounted for 17 percent of directors working on the top 250 films, down from 18 percent the year prior. In the top 100 films, the percentage of women directors also decreased from 16 percent in 2020 to 12 percent in 2021. So why is this happening? KNX's Mike Simpson and Charles Feldman speak with Janicza Bravo, director whose latest film "Zola" is up for seven Spirit Awards.

Open Line

Date: 1/9/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 4 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: William Luther

Inflation is impacting just about everything. Here's what you can look forward to paying more for this year--gas, housing, food, clothes, cars, computers and medical care. How bad will things get and when will the price hikes slow down? KNX's Charles Feldman and Mike Simpson speak with William Luther, Director of American Institute of Economic Research's Sound Money Project; economics professor at Florida Atlantic University.

Open Line

Date: 1/23/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 4 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Bob Phibbs

People cut back on their spending in December. Retail sales fell nearly two percent compared to November. Many analysts blame omicron. But the numbers aren't all bad. Sales rose nearly 17 percent compared with a year ago. Does this mean the economy is bouncing back? KNX's Mike Simpson and Charles Feldman speak with Bob Phibbs, The Retail Doc.

Open Line

Date: 1/23/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 5 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Don MacInnis and Jim Henderson

Remember vinyl records? They were once left for dead as cds and later .mp3s took over. But they've made a spectacular comeback recently as sales have been surging. It's not because of boomers. Younger people are buying them up. Those who make vinyl records are now having trouble meeting growing demand due to supply chain problems. KNX's Charles Feldman and Mike Simpson speak with Don MacInnis, President of Record Technology Inc. and Jim Henderson, a co-owner of Hollywood's Amoeba Music

Open Line

Date: 1/30/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 4 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Chris Ronzio

Would you quit your job if your boss paid you to leave? The CEO of a tech company in Phoenix, Arizona is paying new hired $5,000 to leave if they don't want to stay. While it might sound crazy to people to quit, there's a logical method behind the seeming madness. KNX's Rob Archer and Mike Simpson speak with Chris Ronzio, CEO of Trainual which pays new workers $5,000 to quit.

Open Line

Date: 2/6/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 4 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Will Arnold

California is receiving about $45.5 billion from the infrastructure law. How will the money be spent? Can projects start and end quickly or will we be waiting years and years to get these going? KNX's Charles Feldman and Mike Simpson speak with Will Arnold, Caltrans public affairs.

Open Line

Date: 2/6/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 7 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Chris Leyden

If you want to go to the Super Bowl and don't have a ticket yet then be prepared to be pay a lot. We mean a lot. Seatgeek says the average ticket reselling for $10,086! That's a record for any Super Bowl. It turns out having the big game in la is a factor in the high price. KNX's Charles Feldman and Mike Simpson speak with Chris Leyden, SeatGeek Director of Consumer Strategy.

Open Line

Date: 2/13/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 6 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Lauren Heller

The Super Bowl is often seen as a big economic gift to the host city. Hotels benefit as do restaurants, bars, private transportation companies and those services that offer vice whether legally or through the black market. How do cities handle this? How big of an economic impact does the super bowl really have on a city? KNX's Mike Simpson and Charles Feldman speak with Lauren Heller, economics professor at the Campbell School of Business at Berry College in Georgia co-authored a 2020 study on Super Bowl spending in the Journal of Sports Economics

Open Line

Date: 2/13/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 4 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Adam Pullen

Sports books in Las Vegas and elsewhere are busy taking Super Bowl bets and coming up with all kinds of prop bets designed to separate gamblers from their money. More money might be wagered on the Super Bowl this year compared to any other year. One gambler bet so much money he or she actually changed the point spread for Caesars Sportsbook. KNX's Charles Feldman and Mike Simpson speak with Adam Pullen, Assistant Director of Trading for Caesars Sportsbook.

ISSUE:      Economy
----------------------------

Open Line

Date: 2/27/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 6 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Dusty Sage

You will soon be able to take the Disney experience home with you because it could be your home. Disney is creating a master-planned community in Rancho Mirage. Disney envisions Cotino as the first location in a new storyliving neighborhood concept with additional housing developments planned across the United States. KNX's Mike Simpson and Charles Feldman speak with Dusty Sage, editor of the Disney blog MiceChat.com.

Open Line

Date: 3/6/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 6 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: David Holt

The economic fallout from this invasion will hit around the world. Europe will certainly feel it and the U.S. is already feeling it with gas prices inching up already just here in Southern California. Oil prices hit over $100 a barrel for the first time since 2014. Is it going to get worse for us here? KNX's Charles Feldman and Mike Simpson speak with David Holt, president of the Consumer Energy Alliance which follows oil, gas and energy prices.

Open Line

Date: 3/6/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 6 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Bump Williams & Brandon Powers

Vodka experts Bump Williams, BWC Consulting & Brandon Powers, Evil Pie in Las Vegas discuss supporting US, Ukraine and other NON Russian vodkas in the wake of the Russian invasion of Ukraine with KNX's Mike Simpson and Charles Feldman.

ISSUE:      Economy
----------------------------

Open Line

Date: 3/6/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 6 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Stephanie Apstein

A major labor dispute is pushing back opening day for major league baseball. Players and owners are far apart on a new deal. MLB decided to cancel the first two series of the regular season. How much of the season are we in jeopardy of losing? KNX's Charles Feldman and Mike Simpson speak with Stephanie Apstein, Senior Writer at Sports Illustrated who's following the labor negotiations

Open Line

Date: 3/13/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 7 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Art Markman

Bosses and executives seem eager to have people return to the office because they're eager to head back. But workers don't quite feel the same way. Three-quarters of all executives reported in a survey from 2021 they want to work from the office three to five days a week, compared with about one-third of employees. Why does this disconnect exist? KNX's Mike Simpson and Charles Feldman speak with Art Markman, a professor of psychology and marketing at the University of Texas

Open Line

Date: 3/27/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 6 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Jamie Court

Oil prices are high but have been on the decline this week. Not so for California gas prices. They're on the rise despite this. But why? Refineries might be playing a role. State attorney general Rob Bonta sent a letter warning refineries against illegal market manipulation and other violations of state antitrust laws. Will that actually work? KNX's Charles Feldman and Mike Simpson speak with Jamie Court, president of Consumer Watchdog.

ISSUE:      Economy
----------------------------

Open Line

Date: 3/27/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 5 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Todd Spangler

Streaming services are growing and becoming a major part of the media/entertainment world. They may even become the primary and dominant source of our entertainment and media. The MGM/Amazon merger is now closing as Amazon looks to expand its streaming services by gobbling up a Hollywood giant. Netflix is now cracking down on password sharing. Movies on streaming services look for a big Oscar night soon. KNX's Mike Simpson and Charles Feldman speak with Todd Spangler, Variety Digital Editor

Open Line

Date: 3/27/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 7 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Mark Malkin

The Oscars are seeing triple when it comes to hosts. Regina hall, Amy Schumer and Wanda Sykes are hosting the academy awards in March. Could this lead to a ratings success? Will people care about the show if they haven't seen the movies up for awards? KNX's Charles Feldman and Mike Simpson speak with Marc Malkin, Senior editor at Variety and host of the "Just for Variety" podcast

Most Significant Issue-Responsive Programming
1st Quarter, 2022
(Jan 1st - Mar 31st)

ISSUE:      Education &amp; Child Care
---

Open Line

Date: 1/2/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 5 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Don Shalvey

A new survey finds parents in California are worried their kids could be worse off. High housing costs and low-paying jobs could be leaving the upcoming generations further and further behind. KNX's Charles Feldman and Mike Simpson speak with Don Shalvey, parent and CEO of San Joaquin A+ which is a family community group dedicated to helping kids achieve educational goals.

Open Line

Date: 1/9/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 4 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Jeff Freitas

Schools in Chicago have closed to in-person learning following a vote by the teacher's union to switch to remote learning. This comes as Covid cases are on the rise in the city. Does this start the momentum to shut down even more schools across the country and here in California? What can students and parents expect in the near future when it comes to in-person school? KNX's Charles Feldman and Mike Simpson speak with Jeff Freitas, president of the California Federation of Teachers.

Open Line

Date: 1/15/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 6 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Kelly Gonez

Lots of questions and uncertainty surround the return to schools tomorrow for thousands of LAUSD students. Can the schools remain open? Will there be enough teachers and staff? Is the testing sufficient enough to catch cases early before they can spread? We try to answer all the questions parents might have. KNX's Mike Simpson and Charles Feldman speak with Kelly Gonez, president of the Los Angeles Unified School District's Board of Education.

ISSUE:      Education &amp; Child Care (cont.)
---

Open Line

Date: 1/23/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 6 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Le'Lani Walker

Students in various parts of the country have started protests and boycotts of classes over demands to improve Covid testing and safety at schools. Today, hundreds of high school students in Oakland are boycotting classes. They started a petition, signed by more than 1,200 students as of Monday, after seeing a surge of Covid cases when school resumed after the winter break. KNX's Mike Simpson and Charles Feldman speak with Le'Lani Walker, student at Oakland High School.

Open Line

Date: 2/6/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 4 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Quinn O'Connor

Angry UCLA students demand change because of Covid. One group staged a sit-in protest to demand hybrid learning options. There's a larger call for the university to partially refund tuition and fees because of the university's switch to online learning at the beginning of winter quarter. Will the students win? KNX's Charles Feldman and Mike Simpson speak with Quinn O'Connor, fourth-year theater student and co-founder of the Disabled Student Union at UCLA which co-organized the sit-in protest

Most Significant Issue-Responsive Programming
1st Quarter, 2022
(Jan 1st - Mar 31st)

ISSUE:      Local &amp; Community Services
---

Open Line

Date: 1/16/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 12 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Tom Jacobson

Tami interviews Tom Jacobson, President of the Greater Los Angeles Zoo Association about Betty White's special 50+ year friendship with the LA Zoo. Betty White's 100th birthday is January 17th, so for the month of January, and donations to the LA Zoo will be matched by the trustees. There is also a tribute garden, the White Rose Memorial Garden at the zoo where visitors can leave a message. And there is a "Walk In Betty's Footsteps" self guided tour of the LA Zoo, with signs at 16 different stops throughout the zoo. All the info about donating and visiting are at www.lazoo.org

Open Line

Date: 1/23/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 10 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Tim Weisberg

Tami interviews Tim Weisberg, Acting Deputy Director, Marketing and Public Affairs at the California Office of Traffic Safety. They discuss winter driving safety, avoiding drunk, drugged and distracted driving, and making a plan before getting out on the road. Safe driving tips are available at <https://www.ots.ca.gov/>

Open Line

Date: 1/30/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 17 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Carolina Peralta-Ventura

Tami interviews Carolina Peralta-Ventura, Associate Director of Field Education and Tele-Health Operations with USC for Cal HOPE. Cal HOPE addresses the stress and anxiety that many people feel due to isolation, health challenges, economic uncertainty, food insecurity and other negative consequences of the Covid 19 pandemic. They offer counseling via chat, phone and virtual platforms. Cal HOPE is a FEMA program, and info is at www.CalHOPE.org

ISSUE:      Local &amp; Community Services (cont.)
---

Open Line

Date: 2/6/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 23 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Frankie Ross

Tami has a conversation with Frankie Ross, nighttime host on 94.7 the WAVE, for Black History Month. Frankie is a 30+ year radio host, programmer, artist manager, record company and music producer, music industry veteran, broadcast icon, father of three daughters, and native Californian. And that's just for starters.

Open Line

Date: 2/13/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 6 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Don Crisman

Three friends who've been to every super bowl are headed to LA for this one--their last together. All three men are in their 80s now. How did they manage to make it to every Super Bowl every year? KNX's Mike Simpson and Charles Feldman speak with Don Crisman, one of three friends who's attended every Super Bowl

Open Line

Date: 2/13/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 11 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Zeeda Danielle

Pat Prescott speaks with Zeeda Danielle, Executive Director of Rebuilding Together, City of Angels. They help their clients who are low to middle income, seniors, veterans and disabled with housing needs. This conversation is part of 94.7 the WAVE's Making Waves Class of 2022 series for Black History Month. www.rebuildingla.org

Open Line

Date: 2/13/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 5 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Patrice Rushen

94.7 the WAVE's morning show host Pat Prescott has a conversation with renowned singer, pianist and musician Patrice Rushen as part of the Making Waves Black History Month series.

ISSUE:      Local &amp; Community Services (cont.)
---

Open Line

Date: 2/20/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 16 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Greg Mack

Tami has a California Conversation with Greg Mack, 94.7 the WAVE host, for Black History Month. Greg Mack started the first ever “Rap” radio station, 1580 K-DAY Los Angeles. He launched some of the biggest names of the genre including Dr. Dre, LL Cool J, Queen Latifah, MC Hammer, NWA, Ice Cube, Tone Loc, and many more. He also hosts the internationally syndicated Greg Mack Show gregmackshow@gmail.com 855-4-GREGMACK

Open Line

Date: 2/20/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 22 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Ryan Mitchell

Tami has a California Conversation with Ryan Mitchell, co-host of Channel Q’s afternoon show “Let’s Go There” with Shira Lazar, for Black History Month. In addition to his hosting duties at Channel Q, Ryan works with GLAAD, hosts on MTV, and is a culture commentator, is queer, black and living, and is an all-around media personality. And a fashion frontrunner.
@TheSlayGawd

Open Line

Date: 2/27/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 18 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Pat Prescott

Tami has a California Conversation with Pat Prescott, 94.7 the WAVE morning show host, host of Justice Now! and Making WAVES, This Lady Loves Sports podcaster, and 47 year radio/broadcast veteran, for Black History Month. From Pat’s bio at www.947thewave.com : “I’m proud to say I talk for a living. It really started when I was teaching middle school, talking to kids who sometimes could care less about what I was telling them but now I get to talk to some of the smartest, most musically savvy people in Southern California every weekday morning on The Wave. My first radio job was in New Orleans at WYLD-FM. From there I returned home to the east coast, moved in with my Mom for a while and became an on air host and music director at former legendary jazz station WRVR. Between my time at the National Black News Network, WBLS, WLIB and smooth jazz station WRVR, I spent 23 years in New York doing just about every on air job there is including news, talk shows, public affairs and even an on air workout program. Great opportunities just seem to come my way, like appearing for 10 years in Vy Higgensen’s off Broadway play “Mama I Want to Sing”.

ISSUE:      Local &amp; Community Services (cont.)
---

Open Line

Date: 2/27/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 12 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Betsy Martinez

Tami has a California Conversation with Betsy Martinez of Fan Girl Cafe. Fan Girl Cafe is having a benefit concert/fundraiser/awareness raiser festival at the Troubadour this Sunday 2/27. Megan Holiday from KROQ is co-hosting the event on Sunday. Betsy Martinez is a music photographer and also has been in the service industry (bartender) at music venues (palladium, Wiltern, Troubadour) and always noticed a lack of spaces dedicated to women in arts. Almost all the photos on walls of places she worked at were predominantly male photographers. Fan Girl Cafe is in the process of searching for a space and currently has an offer pending. The goal is to open in WeHo by the end of the year.

The space will focus on women+, to showcase music/woman centric art and photography, play music videos featuring all kinds of female fronted artists and bands. The goal is to build a true community space that uplifts and celebrates women who rock everyday!

<https://ifundwomen.com/projects/fan-girl-cafe>

<https://www.instagram.com/fangirlcafeweho/>

<https://www.instagram.com/betsymartinezz/>

Open Line

Date: 3/6/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 18 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Vicki Shepp

Tami has a California Conversation with Vikki Shepp, CEO of Girl Scouts of Orange County, to start Women's HERstory Month. Girl Scouts of OC are creating the best leadership development experiences for ALL girls in Orange County. They offer one of a kind girl led experiences that prepare girls for a lifetime of leadership, adventure and success. They focus on Outdoor, Life Skills, Entrepreneurship and STEM programs, and channel the power of EVERY girl to change the world. The Girl Scout Cookie Program is still going on for another week or so. All the info about volunteering, cookies, donating, reconnecting and/or joining is at www.girlscoutsoc.org

ISSUE:      Local &amp; Community Services (cont.)
---

Open Line

Date: 3/13/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 12 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Daniel Acuna

Tami talks with Daniel Acuna of Jersey Mike's about their 12th Annual March Month of Giving! For the first time in the 12-year history of the company's March Month of Giving fundraising campaign, Jersey Mike's owners and operators nationwide will support a single cause.

Throughout March, customers can make donations through Jersey Mike's mobile app or in-store.

The fundraiser culminates with Jersey Mike's "Day of Giving" on Wednesday, March 30, when local Jersey Mike's restaurants will give 100 percent of the day's sales – not just profit – to the 2022 Special Olympics USA Games and the local state Programs attending the USA Games.

Jersey Mike's is the presenting sponsor of the 2022 Special Olympics USA Games, and it hopes to raise even more for the non-profit organization than last year's record-breaking $15 million fundraising campaign. Jersey Mike's Month of Giving has raised more than $47 million for local charities since it began in 2011. "We've been involved with Special Olympics since 1975, and it is an honor for Jersey Mike's to be the presenting partner of the 2022 Special Olympics USA Games," said Peter Cancro, Jersey Mike's founder and CEO. "We support the organization's mission to foster inclusivity, and help its athletes shine on and off the field. I invite everyone to join us and celebrate our country's Special Olympics athletes during Month of Giving."

Open Line

Date: 3/20/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 11 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Loren Magana

Tami has a California Conversation with Loren Magana, contract manager, public affairs for the Stormwater Education Program with Caltrans. On its journey to storm drain inlets, stormwater captures pollutants from highways, streets, sidewalks, and yards. Common pollutants can be chemicals from lawns and yards, pet waste, leaked auto fluids, cigarette butts, litter, trash and much more. Polluted stormwater doesn't go through wastewater treatment so it ends up directly deposited into waterways along with any contaminants that have accumulated. Stormwater matters because it affects the quality of water used daily by humans, as well as wildlife in our local ecosystems. <https://cleancalifornia.dot.ca.gov/> has more info and ways to keep our water clean.

ISSUE:      Local &amp; Community Services (cont.)
---

Open Line

Date: 3/20/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 11 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Kristin Crowley

LA's incoming fire chief is making history. Kristin Crowley was unanimously approved by the LA city council and will begin her official duties later this month. She takes over a department that's dealt recently with sexual harassment allegations and lawsuits that deal with racism. Can she fix cultural problems that exist? KNX's Charles Feldman and Mike Simpson speak with Kristin Crowley, incoming LA City Fire Chief.

Open Line

Date: 3/20/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 15 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Jackie Broxton

For Women's HERstory Month, 94.7 the WAVE morning show host Pat Prescott speaks with Los Angeles native Jackie Broxton, executive Director of the Bidy Mason Charitable Foundation. The BMCF provides services and support to current and former foster youth in L.A. County. Broxton is furthering the legacy of Bidy Mason, who was an African-American nurse and a California real estate entrepreneur and philanthropist in the 19th century. She was one of the founders of the First African Methodist Episcopal Church in Los Angeles, California.

Open Line

Date: 3/27/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 19 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Nicole Alvarez

For Women's HERstory Month, Tami has a California Conversation with Cuban American single Mom Nicole Alvarez, midday host and current longest standing KROQ on-air personality. Alvarez shares her story, how she got here, and what's up next for her. From Nicole's KROQ bio, "I have been a radio baby my entire life. At 11 I told my parents that I would work in radio when I grew up and that was that. I fully committed. I have done most of my growing up at KROQ in Los Angeles, from nights to middays, hosted exclusive events, gotten to know my listeners, relied on an honest approach and fine tuned my musical insight. I find people and the psychology of behavior fascinating, so I do pride myself on conducting in-depth interviews. It's the scariest part of my job but also my favorite. I have had the insane privilege of sitting down with some of the biggest artists in the world like the Foo Fighters, Metallica, Linkin Park, Incubus, Panic! At The Disco, Billie Eilish, The Killers, Mumford and Sons, and more. It's a nerve wracking and humbling experience each and every time, but I learn more and more with each and I am a devoted student of the art of conversation."

Most Significant Issue-Responsive Programming
1st Quarter, 2022
(Jan 1st - Mar 31st)

ISSUE:      Crime &amp; Drugs
--------------------------------------

Open Line

Date: 1/23/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 4 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: German Hurtado

Pictures are going viral all over social media and the internet because of all the trash caused by cargo thefts from railroad cars in Lincoln heights. Boxes, plastic wrappers and other packages are littering the tracks and surrounding area as brazen thieves look for big scores in these modern day train heists. KNX's Charles Feldman and Mike Simpson speak with German Hurtado, LAPD Captain in the Hollenbeck Division which patrols Lincoln Heights.

Open Line

Date: 1/30/22

Time: 6:00 AM

Duration: 6 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Jerred Kiloh

Marijuana legalization hasn't been as profitable as hoped for many growers and operators in California. Wholesale prices for cannabis buds have plunged as much as 70 percent while taxes move toward 50 percent in some areas. Customers are finding it cheaper to buy illegal pot. Now, operators are using the black market side to make money. KNX's Mike Simpson and Charles Feldman speak with Jerred Kiloh, dispensary owner and president of the United Cannabis Business Association.

Open Line

Date: 2/6/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 6 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Brian Levin

Hate crimes in LA are hitting alarming levels. A new study finds the city recorded the most hate crimes among large U.S. cities last year, posting a 71% jump in the incidents. Is the city full of more hateful people than other locations or is it better equipped to report and handle them? KNX's Mike Simpson and Charles Feldman speak with Brian Levin, executive director of the Center for Hate and Extremism at Cal State San Bernardino

ISSUE:      Crime &amp; Drugs (cont.)
--

Open Line

Date: 3/20/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 5 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Alex DiBranco

The federal government released a study on the growing terrorism threat from men who call themselves "anti-feminists" or "involuntary celibates" and draw motivation for violence from their inability to develop relationships with women. Since 2014, attacks inspired by the "incel movement" and spanning the U.S. and Canada have left dozens dead. KNX's Mike Simpson and Charles Feldman speak with Alex DiBranco, the executive director of the Institute for Research on Male Supremacism

Most Significant Issue-Responsive Programming
1st Quarter, 2022
(Jan 1st - Mar 31st)

ISSUE: Public Safety
------------------------------------

Open Line

Date: 1/2/22

Time: 6:00 AM

Duration: 5 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Jon Swift & Robert Half and Elizabeth Hanz

No evidence exists showing productivity has dropped from people working at home but more and more companies are installing tracking software on people's computers. Sometimes workers don't even know it's been done. Why do companies feel the need to do this? KNX's Charles Feldman and Mike Simpson speak with Jon Swift, regional director for global talent solutions firm, and Robert Half and Elizabeth Harz, CEOs of Awareness Technologies which sells employee-tracking software.

Open Line

Date: 1/9/22

Time: 6:00 AM

Duration: 5 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Shawn Pruchnicki

AT&T and Verizon refuse requests from the U.S. government to delay the Jan. 5 launch of new 5g services. That's made airline groups angry. They're warning of increased flight disruptions, saying as many 345,000 passenger flights could be impacted. How could 5g cause all those problems? KNX's Charles Feldman and Mike Simpson speak with Shawn Pruchnicki, retired airline pilot & currently a professor of aviation safety & operation at Ohio State University.

Open Line

Date: 3/27/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 5 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Dean Cryer

If you're worried about a spike in crime and considering building a safe room, you're far from alone here in the Los Angeles area. Demand for these rooms is growing like crazy. They aren't necessarily affordable though for regular people as some steel-encased versions are running up to $1 million to build. KNX's Mike Simpson and Charles Feldman speak with Dean Cryer, vice president of international operations at Building Consensus/Panic Room Builders

Most Significant Issue-Responsive Programming
1st Quarter, 2022
(Jan 1st - Mar 31st)

ISSUE: Animals
------------------------------

Open Line

Date: 1/23/22

Time: 6:00 AM

Duration: 6 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Shachar Givon

Did you know fish could drive cars? No one did either until scientists in Israel figured out how to teach them. So how do fish actually drive without arms or legs and what can we possibly learn from this? KNX's Charles Feldman and Mike Simpson speak with Shachar Givon, study co-author and Ph.D. student at Ben-Gurion University of the Negev.

Open Line

Date: 1/30/22

Time: 6:00 AM

Duration: 6 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Dr. Lisa Moses & Dr. Indu Mani

Most people admire the work of veterinarians saving animals and helping their pets recover from illness. But there's a dark side to the job. They are as much as three times more likely to die by suicide than the general population. Add in the extraordinary pressure of covid-19 and the increased demand for veterinary care, and the threat to the veterinary workforce is intense. KNX's Mike Simpson and Charles Feldman speak with Dr. Lisa Moses, veterinarian and bioethicist at the Harvard Medical School's Center for Bioethics and Dr. Indu Mani, fellow at Harvard Medical School's Center for Bioethics and associate veterinarian at VCA Brookline Animal Hospital.

Open Line

Date: 2/27/22

Time: 6:00 AM

Duration: 4 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Miguel Santiago

Pets in California could soon get their own bill of rights. A state lawmaker has introduced a bill that would enact a dog and cat bill of rights into state law. It would guarantee things like mental stimulation and daily exercise and a life free from fear and anxiety. But aren't there already laws against animal cruelty on the books? KNX's Mike Simpson and Charles Feldman speak with Miguel Santiago, Assemblymember (D-Los Angeles) and bill author.

Most Significant Issue-Responsive Programming
1st Quarter, 2022
(Jan 1st – Mar 31st)

ISSUE: Politics
-------------------------------

Open Line

Date: 1/16/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 5 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Beandra July

Sidney Poitier, who became the first black actor to win an Academy Award for best lead performance and the first to be a top box-office draw, has died at age 94. Few movie stars had such an influence both on and off the screen. But he leaves behind what might be a complex legacy as he took a lot of criticism from civil rights activists in the 1960s. KNX's Charles Feldman and Mike Simpson speak with Beandra July, film critic and member of the Los Angeles Film Critics Association

Open Line

Date: 1/16/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 6 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Tom Dreesen

The comedy world loses another celebrity. Bob Saget has died at the age of 65. He was best known for his role as the wholesome Danny Tanner on "Full House" as well as the original host of "America's Funniest Home Videos." his clean image on television though contrasted to his raunchier side in the comedy world that many found hilarious. KNX's Mike Simpson and Charles Feldman speak with Tom Dreesen, longtime comedian who knew Bob Saget.

Open Line

Date: 1/16/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 5 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Ash Kalra and Anthony Wright

California is a step closer to universal healthcare. A bill that sets up a single-payer system has passed its first hurdle in the assembly health committee. It would guarantee health coverage for every resident in the state by enacting billions of dollars in new taxes. The plan though faces stiff competition from business forces and forces within Sacramento. KNX's Charles Feldman and Mike Simpson speak with Ash Kalra, Assemblymember (D-San Jose), bill author and Anthony Wright, executive director of the health care advocacy group Health Access

ISSUE:      Politics (cont.)
-------------------------------------

Open Line

Date: 1/30/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 3 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Kris Larson

The LA Fire Department could be getting its first ever female chief. The mayor picked deputy chief Kristin Crowley to head the department, pending confirmation. Garcetti's support for Crowley is widely seen as an effort to address female firefighters' complaints of harassment at the agency. KNX's Mike Simpson and Rob Archer speak with Kris Larson, President of Los Angeles Women in the Fire Service.

Open Line

Date: 3/6/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 9 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Patricia-a Kyiv Resident

Southern California has adapted our winning LA Rams Super Bowl championship colors of blue and yellow to wave in solidarity with Ukraine's Blue and Yellow flag. On Monday, KNX In Depth contacted Patricia, a Kyiv resident, and she talked about life in the Ukraine since the Russian invasion last week.

Open Line

Date: 3/6/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 4 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Sofia-resident of Lviv

Earlier this week, the KNX In Depth team of Charles Feldman and Mike Simpson spoke with Sofia, a Ukraine resident who is at the Cat Cafe in Lviv, and she describes life there since the invasion, and why she and other residents are staying.

Open Line

Date: 3/13/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 12 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Anastasia-resident of Kyiv

The war in Ukraine impacts real people in the country just trying to survive. One woman left Kyiv to head west to avoid the danger, leaving behind friends and grandparents. She's been in contact with people and doing what she can to help, including making molotov cocktails. KNX's Mike Simpson and Charles Feldman speak with Anastasia, creative and graphic designer who fled Kyiv

ISSUE:        Politics (cont.)
---------------------------------------

Open Line

Date: 3/13/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 9 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Sophia-resident of Southern Ukraine

The war in Ukraine impacts real people in the country just trying to survive. One woman in southern Ukraine near the Sea of Azov is with her family in an area under Russian occupation. She says it's a little strange because the Russians are "in control" and seem a bit surprised people aren't happy they're there. KNX's Mike Simpson and Charles Feldman speak with Sophia, lives in southern Ukraine near Sea of Azov in an area under Russian occupation

Open Line

Date: 3/13/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 9 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Anastasia-resident of Ukraine

The war in Ukraine impacts real people in the country just trying to survive. One woman left her hometown once Russian tanks moved in. She was helping people there keep safe and was helping with humanitarian aid efforts. She says one big area of help is mental health as people are dealing with war right in front of them. KNX's Mike Simpson and Charles Feldman speak with Anastasia, helped people in the town of Irpin outside of Kyiv before Russian tanks moved in

Open Line

Date: 3/27/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 6 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Mary Ziegler

Governor Newsom has signed a new law to make abortions cheaper for people on private insurance plans. It eliminates things like co-pays and deductibles for abortions. It's the first of more than a dozen bills democrats plan to pass this year expanding and protecting access to abortion. This comes in response to the possibility the Supreme Court overturns Roe v. Wade. KNX's Charles Feldman and Mike Simpson speak with Mary Ziegler, professor specializing in reproductive rights law at Florida State University College of Law; she's author of the book Abortion in America: A Legal History, Roe v. Wade to the Present

ISSUE:      Politics (cont.)
-------------------------------------

Open Line

Date: 3/27/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 7 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Clayton Davis

The Academy Awards are Sunday. It looks like it'll be a return to normalcy as no masks will be required and there are hosts again. But what about the war in Ukraine? Will the show address the war? Will it tone things down in light of the events in Ukraine? Are there any special plans to honor those impacted? Or will this be a time to just ignore it all? KNX's Mike Simpson and Charles Feldman speak with Clayton Davis, Variety Film Awards Editor and co-host of Variety's "The Take"

Most Significant Issue-Responsive Programming
1st Quarter, 2022
(Jan 1st - Mar 31st)

ISSUE: Environment
----------------------------------

Open Line

Date: 1/2/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 7 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Jim Carlton

The great Pacific garbage patch is becoming its own floating, plastic-based ecosystem: new research shows crabs, crustaceans and other shore-dwelling marine life have hitched rides on plastic bottles. KNX's Charles Feldman and Mike Simpson speak with Jim Carlton, professor emeritus of marine sciences at Williams College; he's co-author of the research on the garbage patch's ecosystem.

Open Line

Date: 1/2/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 6 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Karen Bradshaw

Does nature have legal rights? After similar debates over the rights of animals, a movement is underway to give elements of nature--rivers, lakes, forests, preserves--legal rights. KNX's Mike Simpson and Charles Feldman speak with Karen Bradshaw, professor of law at Arizona State University's Sandra Day O'Connor College of Law; author of the book The New Animal Rights: How Uncovering the Biological Origins of Property Can Save America's Wildlife.

Open Line

Date: 1/30/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 4 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Timothy Ingalsbee

The Biden administration has a new $50 billion plan to tackle wildfires in California and the west. The plan calls for more aggressively thinning forests around areas called "hotspots" where nature and neighborhoods collide. But should more be done to stop development into wildland areas? KNX's Rob Archer and Mike Simpson speak with Timothy Ingalsbee, Executive Director of Firefighters United for Safety, Ethics, and Ecology.

ISSUE:      Environment (cont.)
--

Open Line

Date: 2/13/22

Time: 6:00AM

Duration: 6 minutes of a 60-minute program

Guest: Renee Obringer

Summer heat waves could become even more unbearable thanks to climate change. A new study finds Californians could lose air conditioning for roughly one week each summer because the demand for cooling will have exceeded the capacity of the electrical grid. So how can California deal with this? KNX's Mike Simpson and Charles Feldman speak with Renee Obringer, environmental engineer at Penn State University; lead author of the study.

Public Service Announcements

1st Quarter, 2022

(Jan 1st – Mar 31st)

Throughout the quarter the station aired [daily/periodic] PSAs providing information on a variety of local community activities and issues. Representative examples of such PSAs include the following:

Citizens Scholars- Audacy PSA

:15 sec
31 times

Vaccine Rock-Audacy PSA

:30 sec
81 times

Sound It Out-Audacy PSA

:30 sec
158 times

Bloomberg Boston

:30 sec
24 times

Ricky's Compass-Audacy PSA

:15
79 times

Alzheimer's Los Angeles

:30 sec
100 times

Vaccine Confusion-Audacy PSA

:15
78 times

Providence Health Services

:30 sec
59 times

Vaccine Confusion-Audacy PSA

:30
71 times

Vape What's Inside-Audacy PSA

:15 sec
39 times

PIV Sound it Out-Audacy PSA

:15
73 times

Vape What's Inside-Audacy PSA

:30 sec
32 times

PIV Sound it Out-Audacy PSA

:30
68 times

Citizens Scholars-Audacy PSA

:15 sec
53 times

St. Jude-Audacy PSA

:15
11 times

Citizens Scholars-Audacy PSA

:30 sec
37 times

CMNH English

:15 & :30 sec
19 times

