

WIMX/WJZE
COMMUNITY AFFAIRS PROGRAM
2019

July

7th-

Bernadette Graham and Earlean Belcher are advocates for Suicide prevention. Mrs. Belcher's grandson committed suicide last year (2018) and since his passing her journey and voice is being used to help others.

14th:

Fair Housing 's director of development Seena Freedman expressed the need to make sure that all zip codes are being giving the same opportunities as other zip codes are given. The goal is for fair housing for all.

21st:

Fair housing part 2 with Seena Freedman Director of fair housing for Lucas County. The conversation continues on the process and what to do if you are discriminated against for housing.

28th:

Mr Willie Ward principle of the Martin Luther king Jr school for boys spoke about how important it is to have counselors on hand and how to handle bullying in school. .

WIMX/WJZE
COMMUNITY AFFAIRS PROGRAM
2019

August

4th-

Andrea Price Tax payer advocate talked about how to handle your taxes, preparing them, paying , and disputes. Plus what are your rights as a taxpayer.

11th:

The African American Male wellness 5k walk/run . Brian Byrd organizer of the annual event focuses on health of African American males.

18st:

Dr Sam, relationship counselor discussed relationship roles, how we define them and keep them healthy

25th:

Dr Sam, relationship counselor. coach Pt 2. Healthy relationships, with significant other , family, childrens and friends. How to keep them healthy . Plus make personal time for you.

WIMX/WJZE
COMMUNITY AFFAIRS PROGRAM
2019

SEPTEMBER

1st-

Andrea Price Tax payer advocate talked about how to handle your taxes, preparing them, paying , and disputes. Plus what are your rights as a taxpayer.

8th:

ICY festival celebrating muslim culture.

18th

Heart 2 Heart /Patrice from LMHA

22nd:

The Susan G Komen Race for the cure marketing director Desmond Strooh, and survivor Artina McCabe. It was to promote the annual event in downtown Toledo.

29th:

Domestic Violence/ Cora's Mission annual event and the services they provide for domestic violence victims.