OUTREACH INITIATIVES

- 2018 Kansas Association of Broadcasters (KAB) Student Career Fair
April 3, 2018; Business Manager, Nicole Banman, attended and hosted a KPR recruitment table. Because KPR wasn't looking to fill any vacancies, Nicole took a list of names and contact information so that she can notify the candidates of any job openings that occur in the future. She also handed out brochures listing the various types of careers that can be found in the Broadcasting industry and various recruitment sources where candidates could look for current job openings.
- Broadcasting Career Discussion & Station Tour
April 29, 2018; Development Director, Feloniz Lovato-Winston, hosted a tour of the KPR facility and a discussion about career opportunities in broadcasting for a group of media and journalism students from Bethany College in Lindsborg, Kansas.
- KPR Internship Programs
KPR has an ongoing, established internship program that allows interns to gain necessary skills for careers in broadcasting.
 - Development Department Internship Program – Development interns assist with station events, marketing campaigns, membership drives, and public relations.
 - Lily Abromeit, August 2017 – May 2018

- News Department Internship Program – News interns are instructed in digital editing techniques, story creation, story production, sound-gathering, research, story writing, and other aspects of news production.
 - Courtney Bierman, September 2016 – May 2018
 - Cameron McGough, November 2016 – May 2018
 - Taylor Smith, March 2018 – November 2018
 - Garrett Mould, March 2018 – November 2018
- Programming Internship Program – Programming interns assist the Music Director in presenting musicians in live studio performances at KPR; including greeting performers, administering broadcast release forms, and assisting with production in the live studio and announcing during live broadcasts. Additionally, programming interns assist the Program Director with the production of live remote events and podcast content.
 - Olivia Schmidt, August 2017 – present
 - Shelby Scott, September 2017 – December 2018
 - Kate Schau, January 2018 – December 2018
- Kansas Association of Broadcasters (KAB) Broadcast Scholarship Program
