INITIATIVES:

1. January and February 2023

We promoted on air offered up to 100 hours of paid internships to area students and anyone interested in exploring a career in broadcasting. The internships were available to high school students and anyone currently employed in other industries. Job shadowing was made available to any student interested in a career in broadcasting.

2. March and April 2023

Minnesota Broadcasters Scholarship was promoted on-air (:15 second spots). Information included how area Juniors and Seniors living in Minnesota can apply for the Scholarship.

The spot :15 Minnesota High School Seniors! Are you interested in a career in broadcasting? You can be the future of broadcasting in Minnesota. Apply for educational scholarship funds thru April 30th at Minnesota Broadcasters dot com slash M B A dash scholarship!

This year's recipients were from Triton High School, Frazee High School, PSEO, Bemidji High School

3. April 17-20 2023

Members of the staff including ownership, General Manager, and Sales Manager attend the NAB/RAB in Las Vegas. We attended meetings, small group sessions and attended workshops to continue their education and pursue job/career advancement. We learned a variety of information including regulatory issues, management strategies, and how to be better broadcasters.

4. November 29 2023

General Manager Jeff Kurtz participated in a Political Advertising Compliance Webinar for Broadcasters with David Oxenford, and the FCC's Bobby Baker, Gary Schonman, and Sima Nilsson. Station employees were able to gain knowledge to improve station practices and be better equipped for higher-level employment.
