Series title: Coronavirus and Christ

Monday, April 13— The Goodness of God in the Face of a Pandemic

Today on the broadcast, hosts Dave & Ann Wilson and co-host Bob Lepine join Dr. John Piper to discuss his new and timely book Coronavirus and Christ. Sometimes called "Mr. Joy" because of a life message of finding joy in Jesus and in the sovereignty of God, Dr. Piper says it's time to rid ourselves of our sentimental views of God. He unpacks with profound wisdom the core questions related to how God can be good in the midst of such suffering.

Tuesday, April 14 — Strategies for Standing Firm Through Coronavirus

Today on the broadcast, Dr. John Piper joins hosts Dave and Ann Wilson and co-host Bob Lepine for part two of their discussion of Coronavirus and Christ. Piper explains why a feeling of fear and lost-ness is foreign to a culture normally self-sufficient in our abundance. "Be stunned out of the slumbers of unbelief," Piper pleads, "and into the glory and sufficiency of Christ." Learn how the resurrection of Jesus informs us of the best news of all, in Christ, Easter will ultimately happen for every person who believes!

Series: Friendish

Wednesday, April 15 — The Importance of Friendship

Kelly Needham, author of the book, "Friend-ish," talks about the valuable role friendship plays in our lives. All friendships aren't created equal, however. Sometimes what drives a friendship is a person's longing for importance or popularity. Kelly explains why Christian friendship should rise above this, on FamilyLife Today.

Thursday, April 16 — Being Real

Kelly Needham, author and wife of musician Jimmy Needham, talks about the benefit of being real in our friendships. Kelly gives scriptures to remind us to speak the truth in love, on FamilyLife Today.

Series: I Still Do (2020)

Monday, April 20 — Starting Together

Today on FamilyLife Today, Dave Harvey, author of "I Still Do," talks about the circles of influence that make up each one of us. Everyone has a context, and once a husband or wife understands what their spouse's context is, they'll love and understand each other better.

Tuesday, April 21 — Sticking Together

When your spouse is in a season of suffering, how do you help them? Author and Pastor Dave Harvey reminds us that how we respond to suffering says a lot about our understanding of marriage. Harvey shares the story of one couple who walked through a challenging circumstance and then saw God work in a most unexpected way, on FamilyLife Today.

Wednesday, April 22 — Ending Together

The chicks have flown the nest. Now what? Author Dave Harvey believes that when young adults leave home, it reveals what a couple has built throughout their marriage. Harvey reminds couples to get help if needed and stir up the fires that once were flames, on FamilyLife Today.

Thursday, April 23 — Trusting God In Adversity

FamilyLife COO Chris Herndon and his wife, Mary, remember God's goodness as they reflect on Mary's diagnosis of a brain tumor in 2017. Almost a year later, their son, Charlie, was diagnosed with MRSA, a type of staph infection that is untreatable by many types of antibiotics. Hear the story of God's faithfulness to this family, on FamilyLife Today.

Friday, April 24 — In Pursuit of Love

Kim Anthony, host of the podcast "Unfavorable Odds," talks with human trafficking expert Rebecca Bender. Bender fell into prostitution through the encouragement of her boyfriend who was a trafficker, and explains how she turned to drugs and eventually overdosed. Bender tells how she eventually escaped, on FamilyLife Today.

Series: Confident Moms, Confident Daughters

Monday, April 27 — Building a Healthy Self-Image In Your Daughter

How can a mom encourage a healthy self-image in her daughters? Maria Furlough tries to encourage her daughter to love the beautiful way God designed her, and tells other moms how they can do the same with their daughters, on FamilyLife Today.

Tuesday, April 28 — More Than Just a Pretty Face

Author Maria Furlough used to obsess about her weight and outward appearance. Her mother had done the same, and she knew her daughter would repeat her behavior unless she taught her differently. Furlough reminds listeners that "charm is deceitful and beauty is vain," and that the numbers on the scale don't have to define us, on FamilyLife Today.

Wednesday, April 29 — Like Mom, Like Daughter

Author Maria Furlough wasn't always the confident woman she is today. Furlough encourages moms to begin sowing seeds of healthy self-confidence in their daughters when they are very young and to prepare their girls for the changes that come with puberty. She shares her story of adolescent insecurity, on FamilyLife Today.

Series: My Heart, Ever His

Thursday, April 30 — Pouring Your Heart Out In Prayer

As a lover of the Psalms, Barbara Rainey began to realize the importance of pouring her heart out to the Lord through written prayers. The more vulnerable she allowed herself to be with the Lord, the more comfort she received from His presence. Tune in to FamilyLife Today to hear more about these prayers and how they can encourage your life, too.

Series: Your New Name

Monday, May 4 — Behold, I Make All Things New

Abandoned by her angry, abusive father when she was young, and eventually by her mother several years later, author Esther Fleece Allen only began to understand what a real, godly family looked like after being taken in by a family at her church. Esther encourages believers to lament their past in order to embrace the new life Christ offers them, on FamilyLife Today.

Tuesday, May 5 — I Will Give You a New Name

Today on the broadcast, Esther Fleece Allen recalls the pain of being abandoned by both her father and mother when she was young. She tells how God breathed new life into her broken spirit, and later prepared her for her new name and role as a wife when she became Mrs. Allen.

Series: Worthy

Wednesday, May 6 — The Worth of a Woman

Authors Elyse Fitzpatrick and Eric Schumacher talk about the role of women in the church. In years past, women were often frowned upon and thought less of than men. Fitzpatrick reminds us that women typically comprise 50% or more of most congregations and to overlook their insights and spiritual gifting's is to miss a great blessing.

Thursday, May 7 — Women and Submission

How has the culture influenced your view of womanhood? Elyse Fitzpatrick, counselor and author of the book "Worthy," is joined by her co-author Eric Schumacher, as she tells how her thoughts of femininity and submission changed through the years. Today on the broadcast, Elyse tells what submission really is, as Scripture defines it, and coaches wives on how to speak hard things from their hearts without being disrespectful to their husbands, on FamilyLife Today.

Friday, May 8 — Helping Our Daughters Realize Their Worth

Authors Elyse Fitzpatrick and Eric Schumacher talk about the dignity and value of women. Starting with the definition of femininity, they list strong women of the Bible who broke the stereotype of the timid female and, instead, proved that women of God can be strong. Hear how Fitzpatrick and Schumacher are raising their daughters and sons to embrace their gender and love the person God made them to be, on FamilyLife Today.

Series: Play to Their Strengths

Monday, June 1 — Training a Child in the Way They Should Go

Every parent wants a recipe for raising the perfect child. But each child is different and must be parented according to their strengths. On FamilyLife Today, Brandon and Anlyn Miller, remind us it's our job to find out what is unique about each of our children. We need to become students of our children to discover who God made them to be.

Tuesday, June 2 — Applauding the Good

None of us is good at everything. Why, then, do we expect our kids to be? Authors Brandon and Anlyn Miller, parents of seven children, changed their parenting strategy 10 years into the parenting journey. Hear what they realized about their kids when they parented to their strengths rather than their weaknesses, on FamilyLife Today.

Series: So the Next Generation Will Know

Wednesday, June 3 — Fathers and a Thriving Faith

Will my kids abandon the faith? Authors Sean McDowell and J. Warner Wallace realize this is a question on the heart of parents. While there are a lot of factors that lead to a child's thriving faith, hear what studies have shown to be the number one factor to a thriving faith, on FamilyLife Today.

Thursday, June 4 — Understanding Gen Z

Each generation is different from the one before it. Sean McDowell and J. Warner Wallace, co-authors of the book, "So the Next Generation Will Know," tell us about the unique ways Gen Z—those born between 1995 and 2015—differs from their parents and grandparents. They encourage moms and dads to work at connecting with their kids and answering the questions they have about life and God in light of these differences, on FamilyLife Today.

Friday, June 5 — Practical Things Parents Can Do

How is living in a post-truth culture affecting our kids? Sean McDowell and J. Warner Wallace remind us that many of our youth today navigate the world through their feelings. How then do we engage our kids with the truth of Scripture? Hear McDowell and Wallace suggest some practical ways parents can interact with their kids around cultural issues using a biblical worldview, on FamilyLife Today.

SERIES — Trusting God In the Pain, with Donna VanLiere (Cont'd)

Wednesday, April 1 — Take Your Hands Off the Wheel

Relinquishing the right to control all the outcomes in your life is something you have to learn a lesson at a time. It's something Donna VanLiere has learned. Infertility and international adoption were things she would never have written into the script for her life, but God had other plans. Hear more, Wednesday/tomorrow/today on the next REVIVE OUR HEARTS with Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth at (Time:____) on (Station:____).

SERIES — Using Social Media Wisely

Thursday, April 2 — A Right Perspective on Social Media

Have you thought about what the Bible says about social media? Even though there were no smartphones in Solomon's day or when the New Testament was being written, God's word actually says a lot about how we use our words. Listen to a stimulating discussion on how to use social media wisely, Thursday/tomorrow/today on the next REVIVE OUR HEARTS with Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth at (Time:____) on (Station:____).

Friday, April 3 — When to Refrain

Decades ago, if you wanted the world to read your ideas, you had to write a book that a publishing company was willing to print. Now, social media has given everyone their own megaphone and soap box. But where has it brought us? Friday/Tomorrow/Today on REVIVE OUR HEARTS with Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth, hear from a panel of women leaders that struggle with using social media well. That's at (Time:____) on (Station:____).

SERIES — Overcoming the Curse of Words

Monday, April 6 — More Powerful Than Words

Words are powerful. I'll bet you can remember times when others spoke cruel words to you. Even if they're not true, the things others say can stick with us and affect our lives for years! But there is a way to be free. Find freedom from the curse of words, Monday/tomorrow/today on the next REVIVE OUR HEARTS with Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth at (Time:____) on (Station:____).

Tuesday, April 7 — Living in the Truth

Here's the way it works. First you receive money in the form of a salary. Then you pay some of it to the government in taxes. Now, it might be a stretch, but think of your words like money. You receive words of blessing from God, and that enables you to give words of blessing to others. But unlike paying taxes, blessing others can be a great joy. Hear more, Tuesday/tomorrow/today on the next REVIVE OUR HEARTS with Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth, at (Time:____) on (Station:____).

Wednesday, April 8 — Common Cursing

Do you ever curse other people? Are you sure? Discover more about this and gain a deeper appreciation for the power of words, Wednesday/tomorrow/today on the next REVIVE OUR HEARTS with Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth at (Time:____) on (Station:____).

Thursday, April 9 — Bless Those Who Curse

Words just bubble out of some people and they say whatever's on their mind. Sometimes that can get you into trouble. But when it comes to expressing love to your family, it's a great quality. One we all need to learn. Gain a greater appreciation for the power of blessing, Thursday/tomorrow/today on the next REVIVE OUR HEARTS with Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth at (Time:____) on (Station:____).

Friday, April 10 — Speaking Life

Some people are good at making plants grow, and their house is full of greenery. Others seem to specialize in the brown and shriveled look. But whether or not we're naturally good at it, we all can learn to bless the people around us. Our words can be like water and nutrients that help them grow and blossom. Hear more, Friday/tomorrow/today on the next REVIVE OUR HEARTS with Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth at (Time:____) on (Station:____).

Series: The Crucifixion Chronicle

Wednesday, April 1 – The King Crucified: Consummation at Calvary

It's been called the hinge on which all of history turns. It's certainly the turning point in the Bible . . . the painful crescendo of Jesus' earthly ministry. On GRACE TO YOU, John MacArthur points to the precise details recorded in Luke's gospel, as he continues his study titled . . . The Crucifixion Chronicle. It's a portrait that can prepare you for profound worship as Resurrection Sunday approaches.

Thursday, April 2 – The King Crucified: Responses at Calvary

It's a sad truth ... at some point in life everyone would have blended into that Jerusalem crowd that condemned Jesus and called for His death. Yet after Jesus died, many in that crowd changed their views, believing Jesus was God's son. Why the sudden transformation? And what can you take away from the responses of the eyewitnesses? Consider that here on GRACE TO YOU as John MacArthur continues his compelling study. . . The Crucifixion Chronicle.

Series: The Resurrection of Jesus Christ

Friday, April 3 – The Resurrection of Jesus Christ – Part 1

On GRACE TO YOU, John MacArthur's going to start a study on The Resurrection of Jesus Christ. It's a look at how that doctrine can transform your worship and day-to-day walk with Christ. It's a perfect study that will help you prepare for a profound Easter celebration. Tune in for The Resurrection of Jesus Christ on GRACE TO YOU.

Series: The Resurrection of Jesus Christ (cont.)

Monday, April 6 – The Resurrection of Jesus Christ – Part 1

“It is finished!” Jesus cried . . . then He drew His last breath. Soon after, His body was lying in a tomb, His followers were scattered, and His enemies seemed victorious. But three days later, Jesus rose again and that changed everything. Take a fresh look at The Resurrection of Jesus Christ . . . with John MacArthur . . . on the next GRACE TO YOU.

Tuesday, April 7 – The Resurrection of Jesus Christ – Part 2

You know those books about people who claim to have died, gone to heaven . . . and come back. Their stories are popular. Well, know this: For the truth about life beyond the grave, there is only one source . . . and that’s the Word of God. Look there with John MacArthur when he continues his current study, The Resurrection of Jesus Christ . . . on GRACE TO YOU.

Wednesday, April 8 – The Resurrection of Jesus Christ – Part 2

Avoid the subject of death—don’t talk about it . . . don’t bring it to mind. That’s the world’s strategy. But what about for Christians? What should you think about death—and life after it? Consider that as John MacArthur looks to the One who has power over death and who conquered it on behalf of sinners like you and me. Tune in for the study The Resurrection of Jesus Christ . . . on GRACE TO YOU.

Thursday, April 9 – The Lie That Proves the Resurrection

It’s said that you should never chase a lie—if you leave it alone, it will run itself to death. Well, there’s a lie about Jesus that’s still alive 2,000 years later . . . yet it actually helps prove the central truth of our faith. Let me encourage you to join John MacArthur for a compelling look at “The Lie That Proves the Resurrection” . . . on the next edition of GRACE TO YOU.

Friday, April 10 – The Lie That Proves the Resurrection

The cross is foolishness to those who don’t believe in Christ. But have you ever considered how far the scoffers have gone—and will go—in their attempt to disprove Jesus’ death and resurrection? The misinformation began to circulate the very day Christ rose from the dead. John MacArthur shows you what Scripture says about “The Lie That Proves the Resurrection”—be here for that on the next GRACE TO YOU.

Monday, April 13 – From Trouble to Triumph – Part 1

King Solomon said that God ordains a time for everything . . . including heartache. In other words, trials don't just happen. God sends them your way. But why would a loving God want you to go through trouble . . . how could it possibly help you? Find out, when John MacArthur begins his study Benefitting from Life's Trials, on the next GRACE TO YOU.

Tuesday, April 14 – From Trouble to Triumph – Part 1

A great preacher said that all trials serve two purposes: To better acquaint you with your own sinful heart . . . and with your Lord and Savior. Now it's easy to rejoice in and affirm that truth when you're looking back on trials. But what do you do when those times of suffering never seem to end? Tune in for John MacArthur's series, Benefitting from Life's Trials, on the next GRACE TO YOU.

Wednesday, April 15 – From Trouble to Triumph – Part 2

Pain and suffering come in all different forms. But no matter what you're going through right now—or will go through in the future—the way to endure any trial is the same. And John MacArthur's going to show you that way on the next GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur.

Thursday, April 16 – From Trouble to Triumph – Part 2

You know, if it were up to us . . . we'd never volunteer for hardship. But like an athlete who grows stronger the harder he trains . . . your faith gains endurance as you face more and more testing. John MacArthur's helping you understand that principle through his study Benefitting from Life's Trials on the next GRACE TO YOU. Stay tuned!

Friday, April 17 – The Purpose of Trials

If God is good and all-powerful—and He is—why do we suffer? Bottom line, if God really loves you, why does He allow you to go through trials? Well, as John MacArthur will show you on GRACE TO YOU, trials can actually be good for you! Listen for John's series on Benefitting from Life's Trials, on the next edition of GRACE TO YOU.

Monday, April 20 – From Trouble to Triumph – Part 3

Why can you be certain you'll never fall away from the Lord if you're a Christian? That's a crucial question, and one you've probably wondered about yourself. So what's the answer? Why can you be confident suffering or that persecution will never destroy your faith? On GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur you'll learn more about Benefitting from Life's Trials. Tune in.

Tuesday, April 21 – From Trouble to Triumph – Part 3

Maybe you've noticed that not long after a trial hits, you find yourself facing a series of related, unexpected, and yes, challenging issues. So when crucial questions arise . . . how can you know you're making the right decision? Find out more about Benefitting from Life's Trials on the next GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur.

Wednesday, April 22 – Whose Fault is Our Temptation

Many people think they could never be a fighter. But man or woman . . . young or old . . . if you're a Christian, you're in a continuous battle with an unseen foe. That foe—that enemy—is temptation. Question is, whose fault is temptation? How do you defend against it? Find out, on the next GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur when he continues his study on Benefitting from Life's Trials.

Thursday, April 23 – Whose Fault is Our Temptation

When disaster strikes . . . and you're tempted to doubt God's goodness and His care for you . . . how will you respond? The Bible says in this life you will have trouble. But God's Word also shows you how to know peace and joy—and avoid the temptation to sin—even in your darkest days. Hear more on the next GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur.

Monday, April 27 – Thinking Biblically About the COVID-19 Pandemic Part 2

During the COVID-19 pandemic, you've probably found comfort and guidance from God's Word and you have probably found yourself with new questions the longer the crisis has gone on. Recently John MacArthur sat down in studio to answer some important questions raised by the pandemic—probably questions you have. We're breaking from our regular schedule to bring you that interview on the next GRACE TO YOU.

Tuesday, April 28 – Why Does God Allow So Much Suffering, Part 1

Why is there so much suffering in the world? You may have wondered that a lot lately, during the COVID-19 pandemic. Thankfully, God's Word is not silent on that issue—it has clear, reassuring answers . . . as you'll hear on the next GRACE TO YOU. We're interrupting our regular schedule to bring you a special message from John MacArthur called . . . "Why Does God Allow So Much Suffering?" Don't miss it.

Wednesday, April 29 – Why Does God Allow So Much Suffering, Part 2

During the COVID-19 pandemic, with widespread illness and millions of people losing their jobs, maybe you've wondered, "Is God really in control?" If He is, and if He is good, why would He allow so much heartache? John MacArthur helps answer those questions on the next GRACE TO YOU—we're preempting the regular schedule to bring you his message called . . . "Why Does God Allow So Much Suffering?"

Thursday, April 30 – God's High Calling for Women – Part 2

If you were a district attorney, you might feel confident knowing you had not one, not two, but five witnesses to support the case you were building. Those testimonies could really put the pressure on the opposition. On the next GRACE TO YOU, John MacArthur cross-examines the records of five women in the Bible — women who, some say, set the precedent for ordaining women pastors. It's all part of his continuing study, titled, God's High Calling for Women.

Friday, May 1 – God's High Calling for Women – Part 2

A famous lawyer once explained a key strategy: Say what you want people to believe, repeat it often, and eventually they'll believe. Unfortunately, Christianity has suffered from such a tactic — unjustly being labeled “anti-woman.” With Mother's Day on the horizon in the U.S. and Canada, John MacArthur's continues his look at the unique role God's designed women to fill ... in the home and in the church. That's here on GRACE TO YOU.

Monday, May 4 – Does the Bible Permit a Woman to Preach? Part 1

Would you go to a church that wouldn't let a woman be the pastor? Many people would say a church like that is old fashioned . . . chauvinistic . . . and prevents women from using their God-given gifts. But what does God's Word say? Should women lead congregations? Hear more from John MacArthur . . . on the next GRACE TO YOU.

Tuesday, May 5 – Does the Bible Permit a Woman to Preach? Part 2

Have you ever been to a church pastored by a woman? That used to be quite rare, but now around 20 percent of pastors are women, which many people applaud—they see it as an example of progress . . . equality in the church. But should Christians be so eager to embrace this trend? What does the Bible say about churches led by women? Find out, on the next GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur.

Wednesday, May 6 – Does the Bible Permit a Woman to Preach? Part 3

In a day when women are told to speak their minds and fight for their rights, it's no surprise that women would take on the traditionally male role of church pastor. Why, they might argue, should an intelligent, articulate woman be kept out of the pulpit? Shouldn't knowledge of the Bible and the ability to communicate biblical truth be the only qualification for someone to lead a congregation? Learn more on the next GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur.

Thursday, May 7 – Hannah: A Godly Mother, Part 1

It's been said that "godly mothers write on the hearts of their children what the world's rough hand cannot erase." That's certainly true of a particular mother in the Bible . . . that woman is Hannah. John MacArthur takes you to her life story today on GRACE TO YOU. His timely message will show you how the Bible honors moms and motherhood.

Friday, May 8 – Hannah: A Godly Mother, Part 2

Hannah was barren, but faithful to God . . . and ultimately, God blessed her faith with a son. Remember his name? It was Samuel, one of the great heroes of the faith. Yet even more amazing is the fact that Hannah gave up the day-to-day responsibilities of raising Samuel. How then is she considered one of the great biblical examples of motherhood? Monday, May 4 – God's High Calling for Women, Part 3

Whether you're a woman or a man, there are some practical ways that you fulfill the unique role God designed for you. And you can expect serious problems in your home and your church if you go against that design. That was true thousands of years ago and it's still true today. On GRACE TO YOU, John MacArthur helps you bridge the gap between women in biblical times and women in modern times.

Tuesday, May 5 – God's High Calling for Women, Part 4

The career opportunities, power, and independence women experience today . . . can it produce lasting happiness and satisfaction? What can wives and mothers do to maximize their joy while on earth? Bottom line, what brings women true fulfillment? Well, the answer to that question lies in a special blessing God has given only to women. Hear more on the next GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur.

Monday, May 11 – Happiness Is, Part 1

Life is filled with many wonderful moments. That's all they are though . . . moments . . . fleeting . . . not permanent. But . . . there is a permanent joy that can be yours. John MacArthur looks at that happiness today on GRACE TO YOU as he begins a series titled . . . The Beatitudes.

Tuesday, May 12 – Happiness Is, Part 2

You don't need a group of psychologists—or any behavior experts—to know what it takes to be happy. You simply have to understand what Jesus meant when he said things like . . . “blessed are the poor in spirit . . . blessed are the meek . . . blessed are the gentle . . . and blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness.” See what those simple, yet life-changing statements mean on the next GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur.

Wednesday, May 13 – Happy Are the Humble, Part 1

Maybe as you've studied the Beatitudes you've wondered, ‘what did Jesus mean when he said . . . “Blessed are the poor in spirit” and “Blessed are those who mourn?” How could such negative-sounding conditions be good . . . even happy?’ Find out, on the next GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur.

Thursday, May 14 – Happy Are the Humble, Part 2

When Jesus began His Sermon on the Mount by blessing the poor, the sick, and the needy, was He outlining a radical agenda for social change? Was He calling His followers to a life of social activism . . . to helping the homeless and starving? Or was he addressing something entirely different from physical needs? Hear more on the next GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur.

Friday, May 15 – Happy Are the Sad, Part 1

When Jesus said “Blessed are those who mourn” in the Sermon on the Mount, what was He talking about? Is it a promise that God's going to be with you when you're dealing with tragedy . . . that He'll bless you when you weep with those who are suffering . . . that He'll give you the strength you need when circumstances turn out far worse than you expected? Monday, May 18 – Happy Are the Sad, Part 2

Mourning is a predictable, normal part of life. Thankfully, God's Word seems to speak even more powerfully in times of loss. When the Bible says, "Blessed are those who mourn," is that an affirmation that God's going to comfort you . . . bless you . . . when something really bad happens? Find out on GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur.

Tuesday, May 19 – Happy Are the Meek, Part 1

Now, nobody respects a coward, right? The world doesn't . . . and frankly, neither does the church. Christians are supposed to be bold. So why would God's Word plainly say . . . "Blessed are the meek"? On the next GRACE TO YOU, John MacArthur examines what meekness is . . . and what it isn't. Along the way, you're going to see why the spiritually meek know genuine, unshakable happiness.

Wednesday, May 20 – Happy Are the Meek, Part 2

The Bible says, "Blessed are the meek" . . . but is that really such a Christian thing to be? Didn't Jesus Himself drive out the money changers from the temple . . . not with a suggestion . . . but with a whip? Not exactly what you'd call meekness. Why then would the Bible say it's a good thing—a blessed thing—to be meek? Find out on the next GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur.

Thursday, May 21 – Happy Are the Hungry, Part 1

Your body automatically tells you when you need food—we all know what hunger for food feels like. But do you know what it feels like to be hungry for happiness . . . to want that deep down joy that difficult circumstances—even tragedies—can't shake? Oddly enough, before you can satisfy your hunger for happiness . . . you first have to hunger for something else. Hear more on GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur.

Friday, May 22 – Happy Are the Hungry, Part 2

Spend even a half hour watching a cooking show, and I don't think there's any doubt . . . your mouth's going to water, at least a little. We all know what it feels like to want food. But how's your appetite for . . . holiness? Tough question, but you need to ask yourself . . . how long since you had hunger pangs that only Jesus Christ could satisfy? What do you crave . . . what do you need to be happy? Well . . . if you're a believer, there is nothing more essential for you to crave than . . . righteousness. Question is, how do you build that hunger? Consider that on the next GRACE TO YOU.

Tuesday, May 26 – Happy Are the Merciful, Part 1

Webster's defines mercy a number of ways: a disposition to forgive or to be kind . . . compassionate treatment . . . refraining from punishing offenders. Those definitions get pretty close to what Jesus meant when He said, "Blessed are the merciful" in His Sermon on the Mount. Yet there's a depth of meaning you can't get from a dictionary. John MacArthur gives you that expanded, biblical understanding on the next GRACE TO YOU.

Wednesday, May 27 – Happy Are the Merciful, Part 2

If someone asked you when you're most happy you probably wouldn't say it's when you're forgiving someone who hurt you or staying up night after night with a sick relative. Yet, as John MacArthur will show you on GRACE TO YOU, there's a link between being merciful and being truly happy that you've probably never thought of.

Thursday, May 28 – Happy Are the Holy, Part 1

The word beatitude— singular—means perfect blessedness or happiness. The plural form— Beatitudes—refers specifically to eight statements Jesus spoke . . . eight short yet profound truths that unlock the secret to genuine, unbreakable happiness. Hear more on the next GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur.

Thursday, May 29 – Happy Are the Holy, Part 2

Throughout history, it seems every culture and religion has had its own definition of eternal peace and joy that comes after death. Any happiness they promise in the here and now doesn't last, doesn't satisfy. So what makes the biblical concept of happiness different? And how can the abiding joy you read about in the Bible become abiding joy you live out every day? Find out, on the next GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur.
