Monday, October 5 – Who Is an Adulterer? Part 1

Has the world's cavalier attitude about moral purity affected the way the church views it? What does God say not only about committing a sinful act like adultery, but even the very idea of it? On the next GRACE TO YOU, John MacArthur looks at what Christ Himself said about trivializing sinful thoughts and attitudes, as John continues his series called The Sinfulness of Sin.

Tuesday, October 6 – Who Is an Adulterer? Part 2

When the subjects of morality and sin come up, how often have you heard people say things like, "We're not going to judge a person for what he does in his private life?" Generally these days, it's only some outward behavior that could ever be considered wrong. Well, the Bible's definition of sin is radically different. Hear more on this topic from John MacArthur, on the next GRACE TO YOU.

Wednesday, October 7 – Who Is an Adulterer? Part 2

While Satan is a tempter—he wants people to do wrong—can we really blame him for our evil deeds? Consider that today on GRACE TO YOU as John MacArthur looks at who is ultimately responsible for our sin, and how we can be delivered from a depraved heart, on the next GRACE TO YOU, with John MacArthur.

Thursday, October 8 – Man's Biggest Problem

What is it that God hates more than anything? The answer, simply, is . . . sin. Any sin large or small, is rebellion against God. If you fail to forgive someone or if you have a bad attitude, is that just as serious—is it the same kind of rebellion against God—as stealing or murder is? How concerned is God about your sinful thoughts compared with your sinful actions? Find out, on the next GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur.

Friday, October 9 – Four Ways to Miss Heaven

On the next GRACE TO YOU, John MacArthur discusses "Four Ways to Miss Heaven." He is going to show you the horrible consequences of sin . . . consequences you'll face if you miss out on heaven. It's a critical conclusion to his series called . . . The Sinfulness of Sin.

Tuesday, October 13 – Salvation Survey, Part 2

In baseball, even the best hitters can be tricked by a good pitcher. And you know, even a sharp person can be fooled about salvation—convinced he's a Christian when, really, he's not. So how can you make sure that's not you—how can you be certain you're going to heaven? What are the marks of a true Christian? John MacArthur is looking at all those crucial issues on the next GRACE TO YOU.

Wednesday, October 14 – Empty Hearts, Part 1

John MacArthur answers that on the next GRACE TO YOU.

Tuesday, October 20 – The Christian’s Responsibility to Government, Part 1

You’ve heard of Nero . . . the first-century Roman emperor who outlawed Christianity and murdered thousands of believers. Find out on GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur.

Wednesday, October 21 – The Christian’s Responsibility to Government, Part 2

It’s been said that resistance to tyrants is obedience to God. Well, that could be true, depending on the circumstances—for example if the government commands you to do something that violates Scripture, you need to obey God, not man. But if you live in a democratic republic, like the United States, how can you honor God with your vote? And how should you respond to a government whose policies are opposed to God’s Word? Find out, on the next GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur.

Thursday, October 22 – The Christian’s Responsibility to Government, Part 2

Say that your government misuses tax revenue . . . makes laws based on political correctness, not morality . . . and tends to deal harshly with its critics. #### Tuesday, October 27 – The Christian's Responsibility to Government, Part 4

Perhaps you've heard that capital punishment is the only appropriate penalty for murder—the eye-for-an-eye, tooth-for-a-tooth principle the Bible talks about. Government is ordained by God for the preservation of life and property. And those who serve it do so as ministers of God.
