

WZXI 2nd Quarter 2018 Issues & Programs

ISSUES:

Quality of life, School Safety, Opioid Epidemic, Rural Living, Sustainable Lifestyle, Homesteading and Micro-Agriculture, Community Agriculture and Marketing, Diet & Wellness.

Programs:

Dennis Prager: - Human relations & interaction and current issues are examined, Several program hours examining the factors common to school shootings and other cultural violence often revealing common thread values in opposing views, the changing fabric of our culture; what is acceptable and what is not. Three hours daily M - F.

Josh Tolley Show - Entrepreneur and business consultant. Personal development and motivational content. Guests and content presenting options and ideas as the events of school safety and personal safety impact everyday life. Two hours M- F.

Power Hour - Several programs discussing the problems of over medicating with opioid and other drugs being prescribed for our youth. Focused on Nutrition and healthy living, wellness and the family. Two hours M-F.

American Family Farmer - News and information concerning managing the family farm today. Planting and soil conservation to marketing product, controlling production costs & animal care.

Dr. Bob Martin - Medical Information, Recent Findings and News items. Wellness.

Front Lines of Freedom - Special interest program designed to honor and serve those in active service and veterans alike. Post service health issues and VA reorganization to interesting and historical accounts of encounters and experiences of our servicemen and women in uniform. Touches on the historical Geo-Politics of troop deployments past and present.

Magic Garden - Home gardening with tips, suggestions and how-to.

Mayo Clinic - Medical topics and cutting edge treatment and research is discussed in a round-table format by leading medical professionals.

Paul Parent Garden Show - Backyard and small plot agriculture, growing tips and suggestions. Dealing with pests and combating plant disease.. How where and when to plant.

WZXI 1st Quarter 2018 Issues & Programs (cont'd)

The Right Side - Host Joe Messina discusses today's issues from a morality, ethics and life choices perspective in a lively late night forum reflecting the values of the local community including the issues we face with the recent outbreak of school violence. Three hours nightly with callers.

USA Prepares - Discussion topics include building and maintaining a productive farming operation through land and resource management and successful planning strategies and self reliance.. Equipment purchases and general farm management concepts are among some of the topics discussed. Some discussion on the breakdown of our educational system.

WZXI airs information programs that are targeted to meet specific categories of interests and represent 70+ hours weekly between 5AM and 12AM. Additionally, 5 minute news at the top of the hour & KNN and SRN, 2:00 at the half, 24 hours daily and local weather and severe weather bulletins from NWS. Other program features such as 7 Sports news reports including local high school and universities, weekdays Lou Dobbs financial reports three times daily M - F, and local weather reports. "Across Kentucky" features small and medium farming and agriculture ventures, several from within our coverage area and airs twice daily. Segments aired 5 times daily from the Commonwealth Policy Center addresses morality and ethic values often being debated in the state legislature.

Garrard is one of several counties impacted by the nerve gas weapons destruction facility eight miles away Madison county. WZXI is assisting the efforts of CSEPP alerting program through the County Judge's office by providing tower space to enhance communications capability to the county EMS. In recent discussions with the Local officials, funding for this project is somewhat in doubt. WZXI has recently upgraded station EANS equipment.

Public service announcements included organizations and agencies as KY Career Center, Drug and substance abuse, USDA, Forestry Service, Teen Workers - DOL, KSP - Safe Driving, Salvation Army, God's Pantry, Bullying on line, Commonwealth Policy Center, 4H and FFA and SSA. WZXI averages over 250 Public Service Announcements monthly.

WZXI 1st Quarter 2018 Issues & Programs (cont'd)

WZXI has fewer than 5 full time employees. WZXI is an equal opportunity employer.

Garrard County population is approximately 16,500, mostly farm land.

Of the 100 lowest median home income counties in the U.S., 19 are located in Kentucky. Two of these counties are within the service area of WZXI and have no local AM service.

WZXI Contact Information:

WZXI/Eastern Sky LLC
4756 Agape Dr.
Lexington, Ky 40514
859-338-9199
dgreenlee@mindspring.com