Issue: Community Involvement

Program Title: Community Connections

Time: 15 minutes

Brief Narrative of Program:

We spoke with Nikki and Evans Trawick of Cape Fear Seafood Company. February is American Heart Month and all month long, they will be donating and matching donations to the Trawick Pediatric Cardiology Research Fund at Duke's Children's Hospital. This fund helps further the research necessary for the thousands of children born each year with congenital heart defects. As of today, $150,000 has been raised.

Program Title: Community Connections

Time: 15 minutes

Brief Narrative of Program: We spoke with Allannah Jacobs, President of the Steve Haydu Lo Tide Run. The Steve Haydu Lo Tide Run is held every year to raise money for local families struggling with a cancer diagnosis. The race is named after Steve Haydu, a Carolina Beach resident who died of cancer in 2005.

Program Title: Community Connections

Brief Narrative of Program:

We spoke with Sgt. Peter Schwarz from the Wilmington Police Department, Master Firefighter Allen Lewis from the Wilmington Fire Department and Kaitlin Bellamy from Paws4People about the upcoming 10th Annual Guns N Hoses Charity Hockey Game. It's a game between the PD and FD and raises money for a designated charity. This year's charity is Paws4People who raises and trains service dogs for veterans and those with disabilities in our community.
