5. eTown (Saturdays 9-10am)

eTown is also an independent radio program that seamlessly blends great live music from top musicians with conversation about the health and welfare of our communities. eTown has been on the air from coast to coast for more than two decades. The shows are recorded in front of a live audience, usually in eTown’s own solar powered theater, eTown Hall, in downtown Boulder, Colorado.

“Afternoon Drive with Beau Gunn” Guests and Issues

Leader Category	Program/Segment	Date	Time	Narration of Type and Description of Program/Segment
Community	Morning Chill	10/4/18	8am	Kim spoke Anthony Mascolo about who he is as a candiate for the 8th district Senate seat: I am a career law enforcement supervisor who would work to consolidate the criminal code. I would apply fact-based problem solving and be independent of the major parties. I would work with both sides for the benefit of the residents of coastal Carolina.
Environment	Mornings on WUDE	10/4/18	7am	Linda spoke Anthony Mascolo about who he is as a candiate for the 8th district Senate seat: I am a career law enforcement supervisor who would work to consolidate the criminal code. Community/ Recreation	Mid Days WUIN	10/25/18	4pm	Eric interviewed Robin from the Fort Fisher Aquarium about their annual Trick or Treat under the sea fundraiser and event. This year hundreds of tickets were given (are being given) away to underprivileged youth and children with special needs.

“Morning Chill with Kim” Guests and Issues

Leader Category	Program/Segment	Date	Time	Narration of Type and Description of Program/Segment
Community	Afternoon Drive	11/7	4pm	Beau caught up with Ben Schactman to discuss the regions new political layout. In the region’s tightest race, former Wilmington Mayor Harper Peterson took home 38 more votes than incumbent State Senator Michael Lee, flipping – but just barely – the seat from Republican to Democrat for the first time in years. Democrats took seats on the county’s top boards as well, and by safer margins

Community/Culture	Afternoons	11/11	4pm	Beau interviewed Tom Russell, a retired Port Authority police officer and Vietnam Vet, who saw the need for an organization to assist disabled veterans. He started Step Up For Soldiers and it has grown and expanded in ways that were unforeseen in those early years. Since its inception, the purpose of the organization has expanded to provide funding for soldiers who need financial assistance as well as home modifications, family support and more.
