On-Air Announcement Scripts

The following is the required script of an on-air announcement for a station. Additional information can be found on the FCC's Web site at <https://www.fcc.gov/guides/license-renewal-applications-radio-broadcast-stations>.

On [DATE], [APPLICANT NAME], licensee of [STATION CALL SIGN], [STATION FREQUENCY], [STATION COMMUNITY OF LICENSE], filed an application with the Federal Communications Commission for renewal of its license. Members of the public wishing to view this application or obtain information about how to file comments and petitions can visit publicfiles.fcc.gov, and search in [STATION CALL SIGN'S] public file.

Within seven (7) days of broadcast of the last on-air announcement, the station shall place in its online public inspection file a statement certifying compliance with Section 73.3580 of the Commission's rules, which shall list the dates and times that the on-air announcements were broadcast.

This is to certify that the required renewal announcements were broadcast on the dates and times below, as required:

Announcement	Date	Time
1	Mon 2/7/22	1905
2	Thurs 2/10/22	2025

3	Tues 2/15/22	2121
4	Fri 2/18/22	1905
5	Wed 2/23/22	1904
6	Thurs 2/24/22	2221

FM Translator Stations; Silent FM Stations; or Stations not Broadcasting During All or Part of the Period During Which On-Air Announcements are Required

Silent FM stations, or stations not broadcasting during all or part of the period during which on-air announcements are required (during the four weeks following public notice that the renewal application has been accepted for filing), must post notice online on the station website, the licensee's website, the licensee's parent company's website, or on a publicly accessible website that is locally targeted to the area served by the station. See 47 CFR Section 73.3580\(b\)\(1\)\(vi\), \(b\)\(2\). The notice shall be posted continuously for a period of 30 consecutive days, beginning no later than five (5) business days after release of FCC public notice that the renewal application has been accepted for filing. If the applicant is required to pay a third party (not affiliated with the applicant) to post online public notice, the public notice must be posted at least once a week (Monday through Friday) for four (4) consecutive weeks, for a period of at least 24 consecutive hours for each posting, beginning no later than five (5) business days after release of FCC public notice that the renewal application has been accepted for filing.

If a station is silent for part of the period during which on-air announcements are required, it shall meet the online notice requirement set forth in 47 CFR Section 73.3580\(b\)\(2\) during such time as it is unable to make on-air announcements, and shall make on-air announcements when it is able to do so.

An applicant for renewal of a license that is required to maintain an online public inspection file, and that is not broadcasting during all or a portion of the period during which on-air announcements are required to be broadcast shall, within seven (7) days of the last on-air announcement or last day of posting online notice, whichever occurs last, place in its online public inspection file a statement certifying compliance with Section 73.3580 of the Commission's rules. This must include the dates and times that any on-air announcements were broadcast, along with the dates and times that online notice was posted and the Uniform Resource Locator (URL) of the Internet website on which online notice was posted. See 47 CFR Section 73.3580\(e\)\(2\).

Online Notice Texts

Online Text for FM Translator Stations; Silent FM Stations; or Stations not Broadcasting During All or Part of the Period During Which On-Air Announcements are Required. FM stations that cannot broadcast an on-air announcement because they are off the air must post notice online on the station website, the licensee's website, the licensee's parent company's website, or on a publicly accessible website that is locally targeted to the area served by the station. The notice shall be posted continuously for a period of 30 consecutive days, beginning no later than five (5) business days after release of FCC public notice that the renewal application has been accepted for filing. If the applicant is required to pay a third party (not affiliated with the applicant) to post online public notice, the public notice must be posted at least once a week (Monday through Friday) for four consecutive weeks, for a period of at least 24 consecutive hours for each posting, beginning no later than five business days after release of FCC public notice that the renewal application has been accepted. FM Translators, as noted above, also post online notice. The text of the online notice shall be as follows:

*On [DATE], [APPLICANT NAME], licensee of [STATION CALL SIGN], [STATION FREQUENCY], [STATION COMMUNITY OF
LICENSE], filed an application with the Federal Communications Commission for renewal of its license. Members of the public wishing to
