

WMSH Issues and Programs: Second Quarter 2020

Issue: Family, Parenting and Relationships

5/28/20 4:00PM...KRESTA IN THE AFTERNOON...60 minutes

Catholic convert and author Al Kresta spotlight people from all walks of life, and talks with them about their personal faith experiences. Family relationships and specific situations are discussed in an effort to determine the real meaning behind their decisions.

5/16/20 6:30PM...BLESSED2PLAY...30 minutes

Host Ron Meyer speaks with this week's guest Julia Webb, an elite runner who competed in the Olympic trials. She is the unofficial world record holder for pushing a stroller in a half marathon. She now runs for Life Runners making a stance for the unborn. They discuss how her family works together in many athletic events.

5/4/20 9:00AM...MORE2LIFE...60 minutes

The Popcaks discuss whether disagreements, hurts, and conflicts get in the way of connecting with the people you love? They take calls from listeners and provide insights into families and relatives relationships.

4/25/20 4:00AM...CATHOLIC CAFÉ...30 minutes

Keeping your faith alive and helping it to grow in times of isolation can be difficult. Viruses in the world may be scary, but Easter tells us there is such a thing called viralfait. And that is a good thing.

4/14/20 9:00AM...MORE2LIFE...60 minutes

Greg and Lisa Popcaks explore the joys and struggles of family life and help you take your family relationships to the next level. Taking phone calls they assist callers with specific problems and concerns.

Issue: Youth Programming

5/23/20 6:30PM...BLESSED2PLAY...30 minutes

This week's Blessed2Play collegiate spotlight show features Alexis Lewis who plays Division 1 basketball for the Seton Hall Pirates in the Big East Conference. Host Ron Meyer interviews this student athlete about her commitment to excellence.

5/12/20 8:00PM...EWTN NEWS NIGHTLY...30 minutes

Senator Joni Ernst (R-IA) tells us about her plan to help child care workers amid the coronavirus pandemic. And meet Carson, a 13-year-old who broadcasts live on Facebook every day. Numerous stories are discussed concerning how adolescents are handling the stay-at-home orders.

4/27/20 6:00AM...MORNING GLORY...60 minutes

Monday on Morning Glory, Why do some people find homeschooling dangerous and a real challenge dealing with their children. In addition the group asks the question, why don't Catholics believe in "ScriptureAlone".

4/25/20 6:30PM...BLESSED2PLAY...30 minutes

This week's guest is former University of Notre Dame All-American and former NFL standout player Chris Zorich. Host Ron Meyer talks to Chris about how fortitude and faith became his lifeline especially growing up in the inner city of Chicago, which led to eventual success as a pro athlete and lawyer

Issue: Youth Programming (continued)

4/11/20 11:00PM...TAKE2...60 minutes

In yet another instance of coincidental timing, Take 2 With Jerry and Debbie features another show on Tuesday that has tremendous significance during these days of the pandemic, when most kids are home more than they otherwise would be. People of all ages play video games, but the demographics definitely skew toward younger people.

Issue: Educational

5/25/20 1:00PM...CALLED TO COMMUNION...60 minutes

Dr. David Anders reaches into the Mailbag and gives some intriguing answers to listener questions. Were Adam and Eve real or metaphorical, on the doctrine of general and particular judgement, on annulments, and the Catholic teaching on Purgatory.

5/6/20 8:00PM...EWTN NEWS NIGHTLY...30 minutes

Supreme Court Justices hear arguments in proceedings involving the Little Sisters of the Poor. We have a report plus analysis from SCOTUSblog.com's Amy Howe on this case regarding religious liberty. Also: China opposes any international investigation into the origin of the novel coronavirus that is "based on the presumption of guilt." Gordon Chang, author of "The Coming Collapse of China," looks at the current state of U.S.-China relations.

5/2/20 4:00AM...CATHOLIC CAFÉ...30 minutes

Today we discuss time management with wisdom. We all have wished we had more time to accomplish whatever is on we find on our to-do lists. Now that most of us have that time, we have to be wise about the choices we make.

4/7/20 1:00PM...CALLED TO COMMUNION...60 minutes

Would a scientist who studied one question his entire life get the answer when reaching Heaven; is the use of sacramentals superstitious; what is the Catholic view of the End Times; and how do we defend the inerrancy of Scripture when there are differences in the Gospel accounts?

4/1/20 9:00PM...EWTN Live...60 minutes

Andrew Walther reviews the history of the Knights of Columbus and the impact they've had on American Catholics and society. Hosted by Fr. Mitch Pacwa.

Issue: Public Interest

6/4/20 8:00AM...CATHOLIC CONNECTION.60 minutes

Dr. Monica Miller discusses Red Rose Rescues. Dr. Anne Hendershott looks at riots and mob mentality from a sociological perspective.

5/7/20 8:00PM...EWTN NEWS NIGHTLY...30 minutes

President Donald Trump holds a ceremony on the importance of faith in our daily lives. We are at the White House on the National Day of Prayer. Plus: The Vatican's Swiss Guards attend a Mass honoring the guards who died while protecting the pope during the sack of Rome in the 16th century. Marco Radovinovic, Corporal of the Pontifical Swiss Guards, tells us about the importance of this day.

Issue: Public Interest (continued)

5/1/20 8:00PM...EWTN NEWS NIGHTLY...30 minutes

On "EWTN News Nightly" tonight: Democratic presidential candidate Joe Biden breaks his silence, denying a sexual assault allegation made by a former staffer. Plus: Indiana is co-leading an effort asking the Supreme Court to recognize states' authority to disqualify abortion clinics as Medicaid providers. We have an update on this pro-life initiative from Indiana Solicitor General Thomas Fisher. Also: On the feast day of St. Joseph the Worker, we honor the chaste husband of Mary and foster father of Jesus through the beauty of faith.

4/14/20 8:00PM...EWTN NEWS NIGHTLY...30 minutes

The Trump administration has new details in the plan to reopen the country as the fight against the coronavirus continues. Plus: Cardinal George Pell is speaking out about the origins of the sexual assault charges he faced. Also: Pope Francis calls on organizations around the world to consider a base wage for unprotected workers. Cardinal Michael Czerny tells us about the inspiration behind the Holy Father's plea. And a Catholic couple shares a look at their wedding ceremony that went slightly different than planned due to the pandemic.

4/10/20 6:00AM...CHURCH ALIVE...60 minutes

Plunged into darkness neither had ever experienced, Dan and Stephanie Burke share their powerful journey of faith through a brush with death from COVID-19. Fr. John Paul recalls spiritually accompanying Mother Angelica in her last days on earth four years ago, and Dominican Fr. Thomas Petri reflects on the great silence of Holy Saturday and Easter peace.

Issue: Health

6/4/20 9:00AM...MORE2LIFE...60 minutes

If your feeling stressed out, irritable, or burnt-out, the Popcaks can help you reclaim your peace. They discuss how to deal with the narcissistic people and how to set healthy boundaries with the people who tend to step all over you.

5/9/20 4:00AM...CATHOLIC CAFÉ...30 minutes

Deacon Jeff and company discuss: Charity in Crisis: Virtue and Virus and how we are going to get through the pandemic as a culture. Discussed are the varied opinions of how to treat, how long are people affected and should we be getting back to work.

5/5/20 4:00PM...KRESTA IN THE AFTERNOON...60 minutes

Donald Critchlow looks back 60 years ago when the FDA approved the Pill and how the idea was sold to America. Mr. Critchlow explains that many of the moral and ethical issues surrounding the Pill were never discussed. Also, the mental and physical health issues were downplayed extensively.

4/12/20 10:00PM...DIVINE INTIMACY RADIO...30 minutes

Dan and Stephanie share their recent battle with COVID-19, Dan's miraculous recovery, as well as ways for Catholics to be spiritually equipped in these difficult times.

4/6/20 8:00PM...EWTN NEWS NIGHTLY...30 minutes

On "EWTN News Nightly" tonight: The Surgeon General issues a warning to the U.S. about the impact of the coronavirus in the coming days. We have updates from Capitol Hill and the White House. Plus: Jay Richards, host of EWTN's "A Force for Good," breaks down the relationship between controlling the pandemic and stabilizing the economy. Also: Queen Elizabeth II addresses the U.K.. A look at what she said about the fight against COVID-19.