

Emergency Food Pantry

Having trouble making ends meet in these tough economic times? The Midland County Emergency Food Pantry Network stands ready to help. Needy residents of Midland County can receive a weeks worth of groceries by calling, 374-0955. You will be asked to leave your name and number and a representative of the Emergency Food Pantry Network will return your call. Last year the seven million food pantries helped more then 3,000 households with free groceries. That represents nearly 10,000 people. You too can get help. All it takes is one phone call to 374-0955. The Midland County Emergency Food Pantry Network is ready to help you. That number again is 989-374-0955. The Midland County Emergency Food Pantry is ready to help you.