Family	Local Closer Look	1/5	7:30 pm	20 minutes	Arts/Entertainment Venues- The arts should be an integral part of our daily lives to increase our empathy for others and livability of cities. The Council's two-pronged approach to their mission – the arts partner for the city of Muncie and an alliance to develop community between artists and arts organizations. They work with Ball State University, the local college. Their 10th anniversary, the Mayor's Arts Awards, and their Ply Space artist in residence program which is a community outreach. Arts important in a community because they connect us, help create empathy in us, and make our day to day life experiences more appreciative, enjoying the beauty of difference. Strong communities have strong arts and culture communities. They are planning for a second film festival. Desire more opportunity for people to create art in Muncie. Growth in MAC and the Muncie arts community, and when people support MAC they are supporting connection between people and a community that values a meaningful life. More people to attend MAC programs, getting their newsletters, become a MAC member, and attend other local arts events. There is a directory artist on their website people can see. Funding is a challenge and they try to be mindful of their resources, and they are challenged to grow, so please join in and volunteer. Would like to see an even stronger relationship with the city, to do good work and grow slowly. Guest: Braydee Euliss, Executive Director, Muncie Arts and Culture Council .
