This quarterly report highlights several of our regular services.

Also listed are various programs that were aired on some or all of the Cumulus of Dubuque stations to deal with certain issues that are important in our community.

Forms are attached to each page of this report which will show which Cumulus of Dubuque stations broadcast programs regarding each issue, unless the times and dates of each program are included in the report itself.

ISSUES:

- I Autism Awareness
- II Child Welfare
- III Child Development
- IV Child Welfare
- V Child Development
- VI Child Development
- VII Funding Local Non-Profits
- VIII Low Income Assistance
- IX Sexual Violence Awareness

I Autism Awareness

April is World Autism Month. Jeremy Austin of Autism Speaks told our listeners how young children should be tested for autism, the types of signs parents should look for, and what is being done to try and cure autism today. Jeremy also told us about the types of hardware and toys children can use that are affected by autism. He also covered some of the Blue Light events happening in the tri-state area.

II Child Welfare

Jamie Covell of the Reach & Rise mentoring program came by to talk about their recruitment campaign which is going on through the end of May. The program is looking for volunteers to mentor at-risk youth in the Dubuque area. They are looking for ten to fifteen male volunteers to work with boys between the ages of six and seventeen. The commitment is one to two hours per week for one year.

III Child Development

Melissa Neuhaus dropped by to tell our listeners about the upcoming Northeast Iowa Council Spring Camporall for the local Boy Scout troops on Saturday, April 29th. They are inviting the public to help celebrate 100 Years of adventure and learning. The festivities are being held from 1:00pm to 3:00pm at the Delaware County Fairgrounds in Manchester, Iowa. Activities include archery, an obstacle course, soap carving, a branding station, historical Scouting displays, climbing wall and gaga ball pits.

IV Child Welfare

Kalyn Decker visited the studios to talk about the upcoming 20th Annual Mentor Dubuque Bowl Dubuque fundraiser on Friday night, April 28th at Creslanes in Dubuque. All proceeds from the event go to support the youth mentoring programs provided through Hillcrest Family Services. In addition to teams and individuals garnering pledges for bowling, there will also be a silent auction and a raffle. The public is invited to attend.

Issue: Child Development

Person(s) interviewed: Melissa Neuhaus

Their title: Exploring & Marketing Executive

Name of organization: Boy Scouts of America

File name if recorded: "Spring Camporall"

A brief synopsis:

Melissa Neuhaus dropped by to tell our listeners about the upcoming Northeast Iowa Council Spring Camporall for the local Boy Scout troops on Saturday, April 29th. They are inviting the public to help celebrate 100 Years of adventure and learning. The festivities are being held from 1:00pm to 3:00pm at the Delaware County Fairgrounds in Manchester, Iowa. Activities include archery, an obstacle course, soap carving, a branding station, historical Scouting displays, climbing wall and gaga ball pits.

V Child Development

Melissa Neuhaus dropped by to tell our listeners about the upcoming Northeast Iowa Council Cub Scout Day Camps. Day Camps are single-day adventures for boys in the first through fifth grades. Day Camps are a great way to “try out” Scouting before committing to the annual program. All boys in attendance will receive a Day Camp T-shirt. Activities include nature walks, learning first aid, arts & crafts, service projects, team building, gaga Pit, archery, BB guns and obstacle courses.

VI Child Development

Melissa Neuhaus dropped by to tell our listeners about the upcoming Northeast Iowa Council Mother’s Day Pancake Breakfast. The Order of the Arrow is hosting their Annual Mother’s Day Pancake Breakfast on Sunday, May 14th from 8:00am – 1:00pm at Eagle Point Park. The breakfast is all you can eat. Proceeds from the breakfast help support the service projects and activities for the local Arrowmen of Timmeu Lodge 74. Tickets are available for purchase at all Dupaco locations, the Council Service Center, or available for purchase upon arrival at the breakfast.

VII Fundraising For Local Non-Profits

Dale Repass spoke to our listeners about the grant application process for local non-profit organizations who would like to receive funding from the McDonough Foundation. He explained that the foundation offers support to local non-profit groups that provide educational opportunities, human and social services, and health care for children and their families. Also interviewed was Charlie Becker, the Director of Camp Courageous, who has received grants from the McDonough Foundation. He talked about the application process and the services his group was able to provide to the community because of the grants they received over the past couple of years.

VIII Low Income Assistance

Evan Stark told our listeners about the three different programs available to low income families and individuals in the tri-state area. HEAD START is a free pre-school program for three and four year olds and available to qualifying families. LIHEAP is the Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program. It provides partial payment of heating bills during the winter to people who qualify. And the OUTREACH program provides emergency assistance to low income, disabled, elderly and children who have immediate needs. The help includes assistance with food, clothing, hygiene and heat.

OTHER SERVICES

NEWS: All Townsquare Media of Dubuque stations carry news of the American Broadcasting Company and six local newscasts each weekday. In addition, WDBQ-AM carries Iowa state news from Radio Iowa.

WEATHER: Townsquare features full access to satellite and radar transmissions of current conditions. WJOD is associated with Weathertime, a private weather service that has a much better track record than the National Weather Service, is faster with their reports, and is especially valuable to the Dubuque area's extensive agricultural community.

PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENTS: Townsquare of Dubuque stations average well over 20 locally oriented public service announcements per day for various non-profit groups in the tri states.
