

Issues-Program List, January – March, 2017

Tuesday, January 3

306 pm, 15 minutes Ralph Cavanagh, is co-director of the energy program at the Natural Resources Defense Council. He co-authored a recent report that says the transition from fossil fuels to clean energy is irrevocably underway

Wednesday, January 11

306 pm, 12 minutes The ND ABLE is a savings plan like a college plan. It's a tax-free savings/giving plan for people with disabilities that can be used for everyday expenses. Here to tell us more about the plan, including a revision being considered by lawmakers, is Stephen P. Astrup of JD Legal Planning.

Monday, January 16

306 pm, 17 minutes We visit with Shaun King, the senior justice writer for the New York Daily News, focusing on police brutality and race. Last year, he publicized two racially charged online posts at UND and called for the situation to be addressed. He's in town to speak tonight as part of Concordia College's observance of Martin Luther King, Jr. Day.

Thursday, January 26

313 pm, 17 minutes Martha Hernandez is working on a peaceful resolution to the Dakota Access pipeline conflict. She's an international peace worker with Nonviolent Peaceforce, a global non-profit. The Colombia native speaks to us from Bismarck.
