QUARTERLY ISSUES/PROGRAMS LIST

This is a listing of some significant issues, and our efforts to respond to the viewers in Fresno/Visalia market, along with the most significant programming for the period of July 1 through September 30, 2020. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect any priority or significance. And, this list is by no means exhaustive. This programming is presented at different times throughout our broadcast day.

ISSUE: Consumer Awareness

In this time of social isolation, threat of disease, economic stress, and uncertainty about the future, we bring our viewers reports and stories that explain what is going on in our world, and how-to best cope with it. We also present information to help viewers avoid scams and risky offers.

Midday, Aug 5, 2020, 11:39 AM, :19, Local: There are long lines outside of Valley DMV offices due to a closure in Fresno. The DMV says AT&T accidentally cut the fiber to the office. That has now been fixed, but now crews are working on fixing a connection issued stemming from the fiber cut. This story is important for viewers who had appointments at this office, which happens to be the busiest location in the area.

Great Day, Sep 2, 2020, 05:01 AM, 00:35, Local: The Employment Development Department says dozens of unwanted letters arriving at homes across California are fraudulent. The EDD now says anyone who gets one of these letters should write "return to sender" on the envelope and stick it back in the mailbox. Then, the recipient should file a report online. This is important for people in our area to know about, so they do not become a victim of this scam.

Great Day, Oct 1, 2020, 05:06 AM, 00:31, Local: Demonstrators are now planning to gather in front of the Dos Palos city hall today to protest a temporary water shut off. The water will be turned off every night until Monday. A boil water advisory is now in effect for the city of Dos Palos. This is important for people in our area to know about so they can be safe and prepare for the water shutoffs.

Midday, Jul 13, 2020, 11:44 AM, :32, Local: The delayed federal income tax dead is now two days away. It was postponed from April due to the coronavirus outbreak. This story is important for viewers because many IRS employees are working from home, so there is a big backlog of paper tax returns. If they need to file, doing it online would speed the process up.

Midday, Sep 1, 2020, 11:34 AM, :43, Local: Governor Newsom signed new legislation into law that will allow people to stay in their homes if they haven't paid rent due to the coronavirus. This law also aims to keep homeowners out of foreclosure. People who are out of work will be able to stay in their homes through the beginning of next year. This story is important for viewers who may be struggling with payments. It grants tenants a reprieve on missed rent and gives them five more months before they need to start making full payments again.

Great Day, Sep 1, 2020, 08:00 AM, :43, Local: New legislation signed into law by Governor Newsom will allow people to stay in their homes if they haven't paid their rent because of Coronavirus. This is an important alert for viewers because of rising Coronavirus cases and restrictions on businesses allowed to operate during this pandemic.

Midday, Aug 19, 2020, 11:45 AM, :26, Local: Uber says it may shut down its rideshare operation in California starting tomorrow. This comes after a state court decision last week, which gave Uber 10 days to reclassify its drivers as employees. This shutdown would be temporary, but this story is important for viewers because people use ridesharing companies like Uber and Lyft to get to and from places instead of using public transportation and they may not have an alternative planned for.

Midday, Jul 21, 2020, 11:45 AM, :33, Local: The IRS is sharing a list of the top tax scams of 2020 that target taxpayers. Many of those schemes are related to the coronavirus. One of the most common scams involve phishing, or sending fake email designed to steal your personal information. This story is important for viewers because the IRS says everyone needs to be aware that these scams exist, especially during a pandemic.

Midday, Aug 14, 2020, 11:30 AM, :25, Local: A federal appeals court is throwing out the ban on high-capacity ammunition magazines in California. a three-judge panel ruled that the law banning magazines holding more than 10 bullets violates the second amendment. Several other states have similar restrictions. The state attorney general has not announced if he will appeal to the supreme court.

ISSUE: Crime

In this time of mass protests, increasing reports of shootings, rising homelessness/drug abuse, and social decay, our programming addresses the observed effects and suggests potential solutions for these significant social problems. We also provide information to allow the viewer to reduce their exposure to these types of crimes and social unrest.

Ten O'clock, Aug 7, 2020, 10:06 PM, 02:14, Local: The Internet Crimes Against Children Task Force believes the coronavirus is putting children at a higher risk of coming in contact with cyber predators. The Fresno County Sheriff's office made several arrests of men who pretended to be children online. This is important to viewers because since children are attending school online and just generally spending more time on their laptops during lockdown, they are becoming more prone to engaging with predators online.

ISSUE: Economy

The impact of Covid-19 has shaken our economy, and left families and individuals with unsecure resources, questions about the present and future opportunities. Many businesses have been required to close their doors to limit the virus transmission. This personal and business instability has overwhelmed our safety nets and social services. It has also brought out the predators, who feed on the fear of those most deeply impacted by the pandemic. Here are some of the stories we have presented to our viewers to explain the current situation, show possible opportunities for advancement, how to avoid scams, and give hope.

Ten O'clock, Jul 21, 2020, 10:09 PM, :44, Local: The Kings County Board of Supervisors allocated $5 million to help companies in the county with 25 employees or less during the pandemic. This money will go to 250 businesses. This is important because many businesses are struggling during this time due to the closures.

Ten O'clock, Jul 25, 2020, 10:02 PM, 01:56, Local: Thousands of people in California are still waiting for checks to come from the Employee Development Department since businesses were shut down in March due to the pandemic. Assemblyman Jim Patterson has reached out to the state to launch an audit into the EDD to find out what is causing the holdup. This is important because thousands of people in the state are depending on those checks to survive.

Ten O'clock, Jul 31, 2020, 10:03 PM, 01:23, Local: Thousands of people are still having issues receiving money from EDD for unemployment since businesses have been shut down. One woman that we talked to finally received her first check, but money was docked because of what she says were confusing questions on the forms. Assemblyman Jim Patterson is still asking the state to audit the department to find out what the issues are and why people are not receiving their money.

Ten O'clock, Aug 6, 2020, 10:03 PM, 02:20, Local: Lawmakers are now calling for the head of the Employment Development Department to step down. They accuse her of lying and running a department that doesn't function as it should. Jim Patterson, Assemblyman for California's District 23, is leading the charge to have her replaced. This is important to viewers because issues with the EDD has been ongoing for a while and people who are affected by it need to have answers on whether their benefits will kick in.

Ten O'clock, Sep 2, 2020, 10:00 PM, 02:12, Local: 38 state legislators, including Assembly member Jim Patterson, are asking the state to perform an emergency audit of the EDD. This comes after months of issues coming forward during the pandemic. People have not receiving unemployment and there has been fraudulent activity. This is important because so many people are depending on checks from the EDD during this time when they are out of work due to the pandemic.

Ten O'clock, Sep 3, 2020, 10:00 PM, :38, Local: An emergency audit of the EDD has been approved by the state. The audit will look into the backlog of benefits and why it is taking so long for people to receive money. It will also look into ways to get the call centers working better. This is important because thousands of people all over the state depend on the benefits.

Ten O'clock, Sep 21, 2020, 10:00 PM, 01:38, Local: The Employment Development Department is going to be shut down for the next two weeks, this time is going to be used to reset their practices and get back on track. During this time you will be unable to reach them. This is important because so many people are depending on benefits from the EDD and this shutdown may help to get things back on track.

Great Day, Jul 30, 2020, 06:07 AM, :29, Local: Employees who work at Yosemite concessions company are now being told they need to get out of their housing units. The employee housing is tied to their job. This is a story of interest for the viewers showing the impact coronavirus is having on jobs in our area. The employees have been furloughed for months because of closures caused by Covid-19.

Ten O'clock, Aug 5, 2020, 10:05 PM, 01:47, Local: Since unemployment benefits ended for those who lost their jobs due to the coronavirus, many people have been trying to access their unemployment benefits, only to get stuck on the webpage and unable to speak to a representative. This is important to viewers in our area because a lot of people are going through these issues with the E.D.D. and are growing more frustrated.

Ten O'clock, Aug 21, 2020, 10:03 PM, :30, Local: The FEMA administrator approved a grant that will allow California to provide 300 dollars a week on top of the regular unemployment the state pays out. This is important to viewers in our area because it's been an ongoing issue for those who are out of work due to coronavirus and they will finally get relief.

Ten O'clock, Aug 29, 2020, 10:02 PM, 02:37, Local: One man in Fresno County has received up to 100 letters from the Employment Development Department but they were addressed to different people he didn't know. FOX26 reporter Jenna Liston investigated why it keeps happening. This is important to viewers in our area because a lot of people who are unemployed are waiting for these letters and they could be arriving at the wrong address. It also highlights another issue with the E.D.D.

Ten O'clock, Aug 30, 2020, 10:04 PM, 01:54, Local: After running a story the previous night about letters from the E.D.D. being addressed to the wrong people, more people spoke up saying that they also received strange letters from the E.D.D. that were addressed to other people. This is important to viewers in our area because it exposes a huge issue caused by the E.D.D. that is affecting a lot of people in our area.

Ten O'clock, Aug 31, 2020, 10:06 PM, 02:27, Local: A man in Fresno County said someone was trying to recruit him for a job to keep forwarding letters from the E.D.D. Ten O'clock, Sep 18, 2020, 10:00 PM, 01:29, Local: The owner of Colton's Social House at the Sierra Vista Mall has invested $100,000 in creating an outdoor dining space in order to stay open during the mandatory closures from the state. The property manager of Sierra Vista Mall is not happy with the changes and says that they need to make changes or close completely. This is important because so many businesses have had to close already due to the shutdowns.

Ten O'clock, Jul 9, 2020, 10:01 PM, 01:08, Local: The state mandates have made it very difficult for some businesses to stay open during the coronavirus pandemic. Dine-in is still closed for restaurants but some places are figuring out a way to keep everyone safe and keep their businesses open. Outdoor seating is allowed by the governor, so restaurants are setting up outdoor seating on their properties. This is important because many businesses are struggling to keep their doors open in this time and this may help them stay in business.

Ten O'clock, Aug 28, 2020, 10:05 PM, 02:04, Local: Several businesses are being allowed to reopen in Fresno County, per the Governor's orders. California Governor Gavin Newsom announced that he will be scrapping his watch list and adopting a tier system that determines which counties can reopen. This is important to viewers in our area because people have been waiting for the approval to reopen their small businesses that were forced to close because of rising coronavirus cases.

Ten O'clock, Aug 2, 2020, 10:04 PM, 01:37, Local: President Trump is threatening to ban the popular app TikTok in the United States, stating cybersecurity concerns. If it's banned, some local business owners will have to find new ways to promote their products. A lemonade stand in Parlier, CA has a big following on the app and if it's banned, they could lose a lot of exposure to their small business. This is important to viewers in our area because a lot of people use the app and are exposed to small businesses that they would otherwise never know about and without the app, small businesses will likely suffer.

ISSUE Education

We have continued reports on the affecting public schools, student performance, funding, alternative schools, an examination of what is working in public education and what is not. ISSUE: Environment

The fierce wildfires, which have devastated much of this state, and the unusually hot weather we have endured this year have caused problems with power distribution and air quality. Our reports educated our viewers about the current status of the airmass covering the valley, and need to protect ourselves, especially the most sensitive, from the large number of particulates in the air. We also reported on the issues the state was having with meeting the large demand for power during hot days. Our informed population was able to moderate demand to a point where the need for blackouts was minimal. The following is a list of reports on these, and other related topics.

Great Day, Jul 29, 2020, 08:01 AM, :24, Local: A growing number of people around the country say they are receiving mysterious packages of seeds in the mail from China. There are reports of seed packets showing up in Fresno and Madera. This is an important alert because agriculture officials are telling people not to plant the seeds because it can be an invasive species or have a virus or bacteria that harms local crops.

Ten O'clock, Aug 13, 2020, 10:02 PM, :47, Local: With record-breaking temperatures in the forecast, the California Independent System Operator is encouraging people to cut back on using power. This is important to viewers in our area because the weather is going to get hot and if the energy grids get overwhelmed, our power could be shut off via rolling black-outs.

Ten O'clock, Aug 14, 2020, 10:03 PM, :30, Local: After the previous days voluntary 'flex alert', in which residents were asked to conserve energy, California entered a stage 3 emergency, after the California Independent System Operator realized the electricity demand was outpacing the supply. This is important to viewers because our area was subject to rolling blackouts and parts of our area lost power.

Ten O'clock, Aug 15, 2020, 10:05 PM, 01:28, Local: After an announcement was made by the California Independent Systems Operator saying that there would be no power shutoffs, they changed their mind and announced that there would be rolling blackouts an hour and a half later. This package uncovered that a 500-megawatt unit went out, and the ISO lost a thousand megawatts of wind power, causing the stage 3 emergency across California. This is important to viewers in our area because a lot of people in the area lost power when they weren't expecting to.

Ten O'clock, Aug 17, 2020, 10:03 PM, 02:00, Local: California Governor Gavin Newsom is calling for an investigation into what's going on with the California Independent System Operator and the rolling blackouts. This is important to viewers in my area because people in our viewing area are very affected by these rolling blackouts.

Ten O'clock, Jul 3, 2020, 10:01 PM, :23, Local: A person who works at one of the Dutch Bros. Coffee in Fresno tested positive for the Coronavirus. The company said that the employee worked at the Dutch Bros. on Maple near Behymer last Wednesday and Thursday. The shop was closed down after the positive test so the building could be deep cleaned. This is important because people may have come into contact with this employee.

Great Day, Jul 7, 2020, 05:05 AM, 00:56, Local: Fresno County is behind the rest of the valley when it comes to the percentage of people recovering from the coronavirus. The county is blaming the low numbers on poor contact tracing. The interim public health director says this will continue to be a problem as the county tests more people. He also urges people to answer calls from the county so contact tracing can be more effective. This is important for people in our area to know about so they can help slow the spread of coronavirus in our community.

Ten O'clock, Jul 10, 2020, 10:02 PM, 01:42, Local: Contact tracing has become an important job during the pandemic. These are the people who call those that have become infected with the coronavirus in order to find out where they have been and who they have been in contact with to try and figure out where it originated. Fresno County Health is adding about 20 to 30 tracers every other week and Tulare County needs 25 right now. This is important because many people are out of a job because of the pandemic and also because it is an important service right now.

Ten O'clock, Jul 27, 2020, 10:07 PM, :37, Local: Governor Newsom is allocating $52 million to help fight the spread of coronavirus across the valley. There are many impoverished areas in the valley that are having trouble keeping the spread down. In Fresno County, 53.6% of the people are Latino but Latinos make up 65% of deaths from the coronavirus which is about 12% higher than it should be. This is important because most of our viewers are Latino, so this information is important to them.

Great Day, Jul 28, 2020, 08:04 AM, 01:17, Local: Gov. Newsom is now planning to send a Coronavirus strike team to the central valley to help bring down the region's Covid-19 infection rate. The governor also plans to provide $52 million dollars in funding. This is an important alert for viewers as positivity rates in the Central Valley are now between 11% and 18%.

Ten O'clock, Jul 16, 2020, 10:01 PM, 02:28, Local: People around the valley have been complaining about long wait times to get tested for coronavirus and then must wait up to a week in some cases to get the results back. Health officials say that these long wait times could be contributing to the spread of the virus because people who are waiting for test results are still going out and meeting people not knowing that they could be positive. This is important because people need to know that if you think you may have symptoms or have meet anyone it is important to isolate.

Ten O'clock, Jul 23, 2020, 10:05 PM, :34, Local: Fresno Councilmember Esmeralda Soria is partnering with United Health Centers to provide no cost, drive up testing this week. This is important because it allows for people who haven't been able to get tested due to financial reason the opportunity to get tested.

Great Day, Jul 24, 2020, 06:09 AM, :26, Local: Free Coronavirus testing is available today in Northwest Fresno. The drive-up testing will be held at the Sikh Institute until noon. This is an important alert for viewers because testing will be through appointment only.

Midday, Aug 6, 2020, 11:34 AM, :30, Local: State lawmakers are now considering a proposal that would require businesses to notify employees and public health officials whenever a worker has been exposed to coronavirus. If the bill is passed, violators could be charged with a crime and fined $10,000 if officials aren't notified with 24 hours. Business groups oppose the bill, saying the legislation doesn't clearly define what the word "exposure" means. This story is important because this bill could help people avoid getting sick from the virus.

Ten O'clock, Aug 24, 2020, 10:03 PM, 01:30, Local: A school in Fresno County is defying the Governor's orders for schools to be closed during the coronavirus pandemic and now Fresno County is suing that school. This is important to viewers because there are health concerns involved with letting kids gather for in-person learning and it may be putting their health in danger.

Great Day, Jul 23, 2020, 06:09 AM, :22, Local: There is new evidence of Coronavirus inside Yosemite National Park. ISSUE: Politics

In this political year, our viewers are bombarded with information from many directions and viewpoints. We attempt to put all these various voices into perspective, allowing the viewer to be able to make informed decisions on the issues presented to them. We report on these issues now affecting the viewers in this market.

Great Day, Jul 29, 2020, 05:03 AM, 00:26, Local: The cities of Atwater and Coalinga are now missing out on state funds because of their lack of response to the coronavirus pandemic. Governor Newsom's office says those cities could lose even more state funding in the coming weeks if they do not enforce more safeguards to help slow the spread of this disease. This is important for people in our area to know so they can take proper precautions and/or prepare for future changes caused by a lack of funds.

Great Day, Jul 1, 2020, 05:08 AM, 00:35, Local: Two street names in Oakhurst are now prompting a debate in Madera County. They are Spook lane and Hangtree lane. A new petition started by a member of the community calls for the streets to be renamed, saying they have blatantly racist connotations. Madera county is now asking the people who live on those streets to weigh in.

Great Day, Aug 4, 2020, 05:08 AM, 01:34, Local: The United States Postal Service says it will be able to handle any extra mail that it receives during the general election in November. It released the statement following president Trump's suggestion that the postal service may not be able to deal with an increase of mail in ballots. This is important for people in our area to know so they can prepare for this year's presidential election.

Midday, Aug 18, 2020, 11:30 AM, :44, Local: Postmaster general Louis DeJoy says the USPS is halting some operational changes until after the November election. Many lawmakers argued that these changes would cause an issue with mail-in ballots not counting in the vote. The changes are also leading to slower delivery of medication to people, including veterans. Some of our viewers receive their prescription medication through the mail, and this could lead to complications if they do not get them on time.

Ten O'clock, Aug 11, 2020, 10:03 PM, 00:00, Local: Presidential candidate Joe Biden announced that he's picking Senator Kamala Harris as his running mate in the 2020 presidential election. This is important for viewers in our area because Harris is a Senator for California, which she would be the first Senator to come from California that would be Vice President if she and Joe Biden are elected.

Great Day, Aug 19, 2020, 05:07 AM, 01:30, Local: Joe Biden is now officially named the presidential nominee for the Democratic party. He surpassed the requisite number of delegates on night two of the democratic national convention. California Senator Kamala Harris is expected to accept the party's vice-presidential nomination tonight, making history as the first woman of color to be on a major party's presidential ticket. This is important for people to know so they can plan and make an informed choice this November.

Great Day, Sep 3, 2020, 05:02 AM, 00:40, Local: California lawmakers are now asking for an emergency audit of the Employment Development Department. This as the EDD is dealing with a backlog of unemployment claims and a fraud problem. State assembly members say the audit will make sure the EDD cannot make any excuses. This is important for people in our area to know because many of them rely on the EDD for the services they need to survive during the pandemic.

Great Day, Sep 22, 2020, 05:08 AM, 00:40, Local: The Employment Development Department is now taking a two week break to catch up on one and a half million unresolved claims. For this reason, the EDD will be unreachable for that time. This is important for people in our area to know, because it means they will not be able to file new unemployment claims for the next two weeks.

Great Day, Sep 29, 2020, 05:05 AM, 01:00, Local: Political signs are now being vandalized across the valley like never before. Surveillance video shows people stealing and cutting up signs in front yards. These signs cost ten to 100 dollars to replace. This is important for people to know about so they can look out for vandals who may target their signs or property.

Midday, Aug 10, 2020, 11:36 AM, :20, Local: The director of the California department of public health is stepping down. Dr. Sonia Angell announced the resignation last night. She didn't specify a reason, but this comes one week after a glitch was discovered in the state's coronavirus data system that is blamed for underreporting confirmed cases.

Midday, Sep 15, 2020, 11:33 AM, :15, Local: Vice Presidential candidate Kamala Harris and Governor Gavin Newsom are in Fresno county to visit areas damaged by the fire burning in the Sierra National Forest. They flew into Fresno just before 11:00 a.m.

ISSUE: Safety

The fierce wildfires, which have devastated much of this state, have done much more than burn up trees. The fires have caused loss of life, destroyed homes, vehicles, and many other structures, including historic buildings. The fires have also endangered the thousands of fire fighters and support personnel risking their lives to bring these fires under control. These fires have also significantly damaged our ecosystem. Trees and brush needed to hold together hillsides are now gone. The carbon laden gas and ash released by the fires were released into the air, will remain in suspension in the atmosphere for years, and will undoubtedly affect our weather. We present reports to keep our viewers up to date on the current situation and give them what they need to stay safe.

Midday, Jul 1, 2020, 11:30 AM, :27, Local: A 13-year-old boy is in the hospital after he was hit by a car while he was on Facetime. Officers say he was found not breathing around 3:30 a.m. According to police, the boy was talking to his girlfriend when he was hit. Officers are now looking at surveillance video from nearby businesses.

Ten O'clock, Aug 3, 2020, 10:04 PM, 01:31, Local: A man in Fresno, CA is without his fiancée and his unborn baby after they were hit and killed while crossing the street. The driver that killed them took off but later called police saying he thought he hit an animal. He was arrested but then posted bail. This is important to viewers because while it is tragic, it serves as a reminder to be safe and not cross the street unless using a proper crosswalk.

Midday, Sep 18, 2020, 11:30 AM, :31, Local: A four-year-old is now dead after a housefire in Ivanhoe this morning. A 13-year-old babysitter told Tulare county firefighters that she was watching two children while their mother was fighting the fire in the Sequoia National Forest. The fire started around 4:30 a.m. near road 164 and avenue 320. The babysitter says she was able to get the six-year-old out of the house after she realized it was on fire, but the smoke and flames were too much to go back in for the four-year-old.
