A complaint, from one of your listeners

Mr. Campbell, I was listening to your newscast Friday morning, while doing my morning exercises, at around 8AM. You reported that the Republicans in the House had voted to cut the Food Stamp program, and I was shocked when you immediately played a woman's voice, asking people to call their congressman to voice opposition to these cuts! Uh, Mr. Campbell, that was such a blatantly biased thing to do, such a brazen political ad; shouldn't you state that it was paid for by the Democrat Party? If the Democrats haven't paid for the ad, then you should give the Republican viewpoint. Or have you given up all pretenses to be a journalist, and you've just sunken to being simply another leftist hack who slants the "news" with leftist propaganda?

We could briefly discuss the merits of opposing cuts to Food Stamps, too. Your hero, Baraq Hussein al Obama, the Food Stamp President, has increased the number of Food Stamp recipients by 70%. He has added over $7 trillion to the national debt, which now totals over $17 trillion. And are you going to tell me, with a straight face, that we can't cut any money from this bloated Food Stamp program? I submit to you that you are hurting these same Food Stamp recipients, partly by destroying their work ethic and their sense of self-respect, and partly because these wild deficits are unsustainable, and at this rate, our economy is bound to collapse. When the economy does collapse, where are the recipients of Food Stamps going to do then, when they're completely helpless?

I must also say that you have really gotten sloppy with your reporting. You reported that the Raiders would be playing against Peyton Manning. I didn't know there was a team called Peyton Manning, Mr. Campbell. Is it too much to ask that you tell us what team the Raiders are playing? You reported that the A's won, without giving the score or the name of the opposing team.

Is this the way a competent journalist reports on current events and sports? I think your listeners deserve better. I look forward to reading your response; to see if you're going to try to defend such shoddy reporting.

Wow, what a thoughtful canned reply. It is so nice to know that anybody at your station actually reads the content of an email. VERY disappointing.
