Section II. Responsive Programs

The station has broadcast programming dealing with the above-referenced issues. Programming dealing with each issue is set out below.

A. Elder Care:

“Legend’s Community Focus With Lorna O’Connell” - Broadcast on June 7, 6:00AM; Duration 30 Minutes

Guests Ellen Morris, Patner, Elder Law Associates, P.A.; Susan Luxenberg, aging-in-place-at-home architectural and construction specialist; Sherry Picker, MSW specializing in elder care; and, Laura Morris, RN, MSW specializing in elder care. They discussed remaining active and independent while aging gracefully in their own homes and on their own terms.

B. Support For Low Income Families

“Legend’s Community Focus With Lorna O’Connell” - Broadcast on April 5th, 6:00AM; Duration 30 Minutes

Guests: Greg Quattlebaum, Lauren Stoops and Melissa Nicolo. The discussion centered around the Palm Beach County Medical Society’s 2015 Heroes in Medicine Awards on April 16th at the Kravis Center in West Palm Beach,. Our guests spoke about this year’s nominees in various categories and how they were chosen because of their volunteerism with PBCMS’s “Project Access,” a non-profit organization dedicated to helping lower-income families with medical services.

“Legend’s Community Focus With Lorna O’Connell” - Broadcast on May 31st, 6:00AM; Duration 30 Minutes

Guests: Amy Pepper, Director, MYClinic of Jupiter; Diane Williams, Patient and Volunteer Coordinator; and Eileen Donohue, Marketing Consultant. Our guests explained that MYClinic is an independent, not-for-profit, free clinic that provides primary medical care to low-income, uninsured adults residing mainly in northern Palm Beach County. They detailed how so many wonderfully generous doctors volunteer their time and talents to treat these adults and how Jupiter Medical Center provides medical tests through funding provided by the Quantum Foundation, Palm Beach Healthcare Foundation, Project Access and the Allegany Franciscan Ministries. Ms. Pepper detailed how patients apply to qualify for treatment and Ms. Donohue detailed MyClinic’s first annual Wellness Fair on Saturday, June 20th and invited our listeners to attend.

C. Health & Well Being:

“Legend’s Community Focus With Lorna O’Connell” - Broadcast on April 12th, 6:00AM; Duration 30 Minutes

Guests: Dr. Hayder Al-Azzawi, board-certified Colorectal Surgeon with Tenet Physicians Group. Dr. Al-Azzawi discussed the risk factors, screening and treatment protocols for colorectal cancer, the second leading cause of cancer-related deaths in the U.S. Dr. Al-Azzawi also discussed tips on how a healthy lifestyle can reduce the chances of developing colorectal cancer.

“Legend’s Community Focus With Lorna O’Connell” - Broadcast on April 26th, 6:00AM; Duration 30 Minutes

Guests: Amy Yalden, Director South Florida Chapter, Lupus Foundation of America and Fredda Steidle, Clinical Services Director. Amy and Fredda enlightened about the enigmatic disease of Lupus, a cruel disease that mimics so many others and is therefore difficult to diagnose and treat. They discussed treatment options and services available to people in our community who suffer from Lupus. Amy and Fredda also gave details on the May 2nd Spring Walk to End Lupus Now Walk at the Palm Beach Zoo and how to register for the fundraising event.

“Legend’s Community Focus With Lorna O’Connell” - Broadcast on May 3rd, 6:00AM; Duration 30 Minutes

Guests: Kerri and Rourke Morrison, Founders and Directors of Live Like Jake. Kerri and Rourke told our listeners about the traffic loss two years ago of their 2 ½ year-old son Jake who drowned while on a family vacation and how they formed their non-profit in Jake’s honor to raise funds for Infant Swimming Rescue lessons for toddlers whose parents were unable to afford ISR lessons. During the course of their moving and inspiring interview, Kerri and Rourke gave us details on their next Live Like Jake event, a 5-K Walk/Run the following weekend in downtown Jupiter.

“Legend’s Community Focus With Lorna O’Connell” - Broadcast - May 10th, 6:00AM; Duration 30 Minutes

Guests: Cariann Moore, Area Director, American Lung Association; Leah Tate, Marketing Director. Cariann and Leah reminded our listeners that lung cancer is the #1 killer of women in America today and spoke about the ways Cariann to prevent, detect and treat lung cancer and the ways in which ALC is funding research. They also informed us that May 11th-15th is National Women’s Lung Health Week and that the entire country is asked to use turquoise lights on buildings to show their support. Listeners were also invited to participate in the annual Lung Walk May 18th at John Prince Park in West Palm Beach.

D. Mental Illness

“Legend’s Community Focus With Lorna O’Connell” - Broadcast on June 14th 6:30AM; Duration 30 Minutes

Guests: Liz Downey, Interim Executive Director; and Lynsey Poole, Program Support Coordinator of the National Alliance of Mental Illness of Palm Beach County. Liz and Lynsey discussed the history of NAMI and its mission: to provide education, support and advocacy for individuals living with mental illness and their families and to eliminate the stigma of mental illness. Our guests also discussed the many services available to our community and pending legislation supporting Mental Illness programs in Tallahassee.

E. Independence For The Developmentally Challenged

“Legend’s Community Focus With Lorna O’Connell” - Broadcast on May 17th, 6:00AM; Duration 30 Minutes

Guests: Barbara Nurenberg, President and CEO of Seagull Services; and Linda Moore, Chief Operating Officer. Barbara and Linda detailed the many programs and services our local Seagull Services (formerly called “Seagull Industries”) offers our community’s many developmentally-challenged residents to help empower them to become impactful and productive members of the community. Our guests spoke at length with pride of the many accomplished young people who have graduated from the Seagull Academy for Independent Living (SAIL) in West Palm Beach and the varied curricula offered by SAIL.
