Promo for Script 1904. The Christian Working Woman, to be aired week ending October 2, 2021:

Fran and Jesus on the Job – Overreacting

I'm Mary Lowman and I have a confession: I tend to over-react frequently. Anybody else there? And over-reaction can cause a lot of unnecessary stress and harm relationships. Well, in this next episode of Fran and Jesus on the Job, Fran has to face the reality that this is one of her weaknesses, too, and she has some lessons to learn about controlling her tendency to over-react. Join me here for The Christian Working Woman.

Promo for Script 1906. The Christian Working Woman, to be aired week ending October 16, 2021:

Learning When to Ignore

I'm Mary Lowman and probably your mama taught you that it's rude to ignore people—right? Well, generally that's true, but this week on The Christian Working Woman I'm going to talk about when you need to ignore others. Jesus actually gave us an example of when to ignore what people are saying to you, and I will share that with you. It could be very freeing to realize that there are times to ignore others. I hope you'll join me.

Promo for Script 1908. The Christian Working Woman, to be aired week ending October 30, 2021:

Fran and Jesus on the Job – Dealing with Success

Did you know that success can be more dangerous than failure? I'm Mary Lowman and on this week's episode of Fran and Jesus on the Job, Fran learns that she has been chosen for a very significant promotion, and she almost breaks her arm patting herself on the back. She has some lessons to learn about the dangers of success. Actually, we all do, don't we? I hope you'll join me here for The Christian Working Woman.

Promo for Script 1909. The Christian Working Woman, to be aired week ending November 6, 2021:

Fran and Jesus on the Job – Dealing with Advances

Have you ever faced any kind of sexual advances or harassment on your job? I'm Mary Lowman of The Christian Working Woman, and we would hope most of that is in the past but unfortunately, not so. In this week's episode of Fran and Jesus on the Job, Fran has to decide whether to overlook some inappropriate advances or confront them. You may find this helpful for your own life. Please join me.

Promo for Script 1911. The Christian Working Woman, to be aired week ending November 20, 2021:

Dealing with Broken Relationships - I

Is there a broken or wounded relationship in your life? I'm Mary Lowman and this week on The Christian Working Woman we will look closely at what the Bible tells you to do when there is some contention or misunderstanding between you and someone else, causing lots of hurt. Honestly, this is one life's more uncomfortable and difficult situations to address, but Jesus tells us how. Please join me.

Promo for Script 1912. The Christian Working Woman, to be aired week ending November 27, 2021:

Dealing with Broken Relationships - II

Have you ever tried to mend a broken relationship only to be rebuffed? I'm Mary Lowman and that is really hurtful, isn't it? Yet, as Christ-followers, we are told to do our best to reconcile. Thankfully, God's Word gives us clear guidance on our responsibility in such situations. There are definite, practical steps to take, and then we leave the results to God. That's what I'm talking about this week on The Christian Working Woman.

Friday, October 1 – Concerning the Collection, Part 3

Churches seem to be silent on the issue of investing in God's kingdom—despite the Bible's wealth of teaching on the subject. So on the next GRACE TO YOU, John MacArthur wraps up his study God's Plan for Giving. He's going to take a comprehensive look at how you can use your resources to glorify the Lord, strengthen your church, and draw others to Christ. That's today on GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur.

Series: The Portrait of a New Life

Monday, November 8 – Off with the Old, On with the New, Part 1-1

John MacArthur starts soon his series titled . . . The Portrait of a New Life. Of course, unlike a painting . . . this study isn't going to show you what a Christian looked like at a particular point in history. Instead, you'll see the attitudes and actions that should characterize every follower of Christ that's on the next GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur.

Tuesday, November 9 – Off with the Old, On with the New, Part 1-2

"Two roads diverged in a wood, and I—I took the one less traveled by, and that has made all the difference." Well, not to spiritualize that poem . . . but certainly you know the Christian road is the less-traveled way—as Scripture says, few find it. You can think of John MacArthur's current study on GRACE TO YOU as something of a road map . . . charting a course for growth in Christ.

Wednesday, November 10 – Off with the Old, On with the New, Part 2-1

It's been said, "the sun melts snow but hardens clay." And if you think about it, that's also a great analogy for the power of God's Word. For some it melts their resistance to the gospel, makes them softer, more sensitive sin. But it causes others to harden their hearts, run faster into evil, and farther from the Lord. John MacArthur examines this issue today on GRACE TO YOU.

Thursday, November 11 – Off with the Old, On with the New, Part 2-2

What is it that gives a life true meaning, real purpose? You'll find the answer on this edition of GRACE TO YOU . . . as John MacArthur brings into focus what he calls . . . The Portrait of a New Life. That's the title of his series from Ephesians 4.

Friday, November 12 – Principles of New Life

Is it OK to be angry when . . . your child is defiant or when a politician says something that attacks Christian values? How about when you scrape the paint on your car . . . when the dog chews up your new shoes . . . or your team loses the big game? When is it right to be angry? Or . . . is it never right for a Christian to lose his head? John MacArthur examines the issue of anger today, as well as truthful speech—two crucial elements in . . . The Portrait of a New Life.

Series: The Portrait of a New Life

Monday, November 15 – Principles of New Life, Part 2

Maybe you can remember a teacher who had a veritable laundry list of “Don’ts” for your class — Don’t talk . . . Don’t leave your seat . . . Don’t write in red pen. John MacArthur works through a biblical list of “Do’s” where your speech is concerned. This practical look at how you should speak is part of John’s current series titled . . . The Portrait of a New Life. That’s on the next GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur.

Tuesday, November 16 – Walking in Love, Part 1-1

So, how does the Bible define love—the love Christians should have and demonstrate? What should it look like at home, at the office, in your neighborhood, and at church? Find out today on GRACE TO YOU as John MacArthur, continues his study called The Portrait of a New Life . . . showing you how, as a Christian, love gets radically redefined.

Wednesday, November 17 – Waling in Love Part 1-2

If you're going to name the name of Christ—if you're going to call yourself a Christian—you need to walk as Christ walked . . . and love as Christ loved. John MacArthur helps you see what walking in love means on this edition of GRACE TO YOU . . . as he continues a study he calls The Portrait of a New Life. It's a series on cultivating the traits that honor God and strengthen your Christian testimony.

Thursday, November 18 – Walking in Love, Part 2-1

The Bible gives clear standards for what it means to be a Christian . . . and they go well beyond the externals that can be faked. John MacArthur examines those standards today on GRACE TO YOU . . . continuing his study called The Portrait of a New Life.

Friday, November 19 – Walking in Love, Part 2-2

Being confused about what love is can take you down a road with serious consequences—in fact, the most serious of consequences: eternal separation from God's love. Consider that point today on GRACE TO YOU . . . as John MacArthur answers the question, "What does it mean to love the right way—God's way?" It's part of his study titled . . . The Portrait of a New Life.
