

WSKO-AM Issues/Programs April – June 2023

“Street Talk” Weekly Program 30 minutes including some commercial content.

Sundays 6:00am – 6:30am

4/2/2023: Tammy Palmer, OCRRA: Earth Day Clean up with the Onondaga County Resource Recovery Agency is happening on Friday and Saturday, April 21st and 22nd throughout Central New York. For more information and to sign up for Earth Day Clean Up, visit OCRRA.org.

Kayla Blood, Monster Jam: The ever popular Monster Jam is coming to the JMA Wireless Dome on Saturday April 8th. Tickets are still available at Ticketmaster.com.

4/9/2023: Tammy Palmer, OCRRA: We continue our talk with the Onondaga County Resource Recovery regarding everything recyclable. For more information, visit OCRRA.org.

Dan Cummings, Honor Flight: Honor Flight Syracuse is a non profit organization run entirely by volunteers that honors America’s veterans by transporting them to Washington DC to visit the national memorials dedicated to their service and sacrifice. See more at HonorFlightSyracuse.org.

4/16/2023: Tammy Palmer, OCRRA: We continue our talk with the Onondaga County Resource Recovery regarding everything recyclable. For more information, visit OCRRA.org.

Carrie Large and Ted Fox Rosamond Gifford Zoo: The Zoo Run Run is back at Rosamond Gifford Zoo this year and it’s happening on Saturday April 22nd. Sign up for the Zoo Run Run at RosamondGiffordZoo.org.

Gary Dunner, Bill Scott Memorial 5K Run Walk: The Bill Scott Memorial 5K Run/Walk is happening for a second year at Burnet Park on April 23rd.

Google Bill Scott Memorial 5 K Run Walk or find out more on their Facebook page

4/23/2023: Kathleen Gaffney-Babb, Helio Health: The annual Helio Health Run for Recovery is happening at a new location – Green Lakes State Park – on Saturday May 6th. Sign up for the Helio Health Run for Recovery at Helio.Health.

Ryan McMahon, Onondaga County Executive: Our “Erie Canal Moment” is how Onondaga County Executive Ryan McMahon explains the impact that Micron’s billion dollar chip plant set to be built in Clay will have on Central New York.

Joe Stanley, Stanley Law Offices: Construction season is here and there are many residents who are looking for reliable, trustworthy contractors to do some work for them. For more legal advice, see StanleyLawOffices.com.

Christie Tamoutselis, CNY SPCA: The Central New York SPCA is holding a fundraiser on Saturday April 29th at their location on East Molloy Road and they would love to have the public come out to adopt some animals and see what the SPCA is all about. See more on the CNY SPCA Facebook page and at CNYSPCA.org.

4/30/2023: Spotlight on Local business: Lisa Mondello, SRC Inc: SRC Inc. wants to talk to you about full or part time work and becoming a part of their team. See more and register for the Open Houses are SRCinc.com/93Q.

Frieda Weeks, Teal Ribbon Run/Walk: The 2023 Teal Ribbon Run/Walk is happening Saturday, May 20th to benefit Hope for Heather, an organization that raises money for ovarian cancer awareness, local patient support and research. See more and register at TealRibbonRun.org.

Nicole Sommavilla, CNY Lyme Alliance: The Legs Against Lyme Walk is happening Saturday May 13th at Long Branch Park. Visit CNYLymeAlliance.org to sign up.

5/7/2023: Rhonda Jasper, The United Way of Seneca County: The United Way of Seneca County is holding their 33rd annual Taste Of Spring fundraiser this month to benefit the many programs and services they provide in their Finger Lakes county. UWSeneca.org.

Benjamin Steuerwalt, Syracuse City School District: The Good News continues this week with the Syracuse City School District and a look at their Health and Physical Education programs. See more on the Good News Page with the Syracuse City School District under “features” at 93Q.com.

Stacey Nichols, Boys and Girls Club of Syracuse: The Boys and Girls Club of Syracuse continues to run clubs in three locations for kids to have a safe place to go every day after school and during school breaks. Book now for the Clubhouse Classic at BGCSyracuse.org.

5/14/2023: Jamie Leszczynski, Oswego Health: May is Mental Health Awareness Month and Oswego Health is hoping that if the community comes together and is willing to talk openly about mental health, it will reduce the stigmas associated with it and it could save lives. That is the reason behind a teen and adult panel discussion open to the public being held Wednesday May 17th at Oswego High School. You can find out more at OswegoHealth.org/mentalhealth.

Chris Kowaleski and Kathleen Miller-Murphy Crouse Health: We continue with a special look at mental health during Mental Health Awareness Month. Crouse Health is focusing on Maternal Mental Health and especially their programs for those who suffer from Postpartum Depression. Crouse.org for more information.

Michaela Hugo, CNY Diaper Bank: The CNY Diaper Bank is encouraging community members, businesses and organizations to participate in its eight annual "Make A Mother's Day Diaper Drive throughout the month of May. Find out more at CNYDiaperBank.org.

5/21/2023: Levi Pascher, Dunkin': Dunkin' will hold its annual Iced Coffee Day this Tuesday May 23rd to support the Dunkin' Joy in Childhood Foundation with one dollar from every iced coffee sold locally going to the Golisano Children's Hospital. Support Iced Coffee Day this Tuesday by visiting any participating Dunkin' and buying an iced coffee!

Allison Brooks, Marett Seymour, Michele Cunningham, April Beier and Patrick Banks, Salvation Army of Syracuse: We are just finishing out Salvation Army week, focusing on an organization that last year alone supported 38 thousand people in Central New York through their programs and services from babies to seniors. We're going to hear about a number of different Salvation Army programs this morning, including Emergency Services. For more information, visit SASYR.org and to donate, text "MostGood" to 31333.

5/28/2023: Dr. Ajeet Gajra, Hematology-Oncology Associates of Central New York: May is skin cancer awareness month and that is our focus this time around. See more on our 93Q.com website under features or HOAcny.com.

Andrea Wandersee: The 31st annual AIDS Walk/Run with ACR Health is happening on Sunday June 4th at Beaver Lake Nature Center. See more at ACRHealth.org.

Thom McMahon, McMahon-Ryan Child Advocacy Center: 100 Holes of Golf played in twelve hours by 22 golfers all to support McMahon Ryan Child Advocacy Center. The 100 Holes 4 Kids is in its 20th year. Support a golfer to benefit McMahon-Ryan Child Advocacy Center by going to McMahonRyan.org.

6/4/2023: Jennifer Savastino, Syracuse Challenger Baseball: Syracuse Challenger Baseball is holding their Opening Day this Tuesday June 6th with plenty of ways that you can help to celebrate the inclusive teams. See more at SyracuseChallengers.com

Jimmy Monto, CNY Pride: The CNY Pride Festival and Parade is happening in the Inner Harbor on Saturday June 10th. See more at CNYPride.org.

Spotlight on local business, Lauren Usherwood, Usherwood Technologies: Office technology is having to become more and more savvy when it comes to cybersecurity, which is the reason why it is one of the main focuses for companies like Usherwood Office Technology. See more cybersecurity tips at Usherwood.com.

Matt Szwejbka, Syracuse Hancock International Airport: Syracuse's Hancock International Airport is rocking and there are some new additions coming. See more at SYRAirport.org.

6/11/2023: Bethany Frank, Clear Path For Veterans: The Red, White and Blue BBQ to benefit Clear Path for Veterans is happening at their gorgeous Chittenango location on Saturday June 17th. Tickets are for sale at ClearPath4Vets.com.

Spotlight on local business: Ralph Simone and Bill Berthel, Emergent: Emergent has a mission of helping people come into their leadership at any level. See GetEmergent.com.

Lynn Hy, Food Bank of CNY: There is a new fun way to help out the Food Bank of Central New York – you can look for their own private label pasta sauce on store shelves! See more at FoodBankCNY.org.

6/19/2023: Mary Wassel, Loretto Memory Care: The Longest Day is the day with the most light – the summer solstice. On June 21st, people from across the world will fight the darkness of Alzheimer's through fundraising activities of their choice. See more at ALZ.org and LorettoCNY.org.

Matthew Szwejbka, Syracuse Hancock International Airport: A new website, another nonstop flight and the addition of Flippit all part of this month's discussion with Syracuse Hancock International Airport. See that new website he talked about at FlySyracuse.com.

Travis Barr, Cazenovia Pride Fest: The village of Cazenovia just took part this weekend in their 3rd annual Cazenovia Pride Fest and even though the event is done, the message that it sends will resonate throughout Pride Month. See photos from this weekend on the Cazenovia Pride Facebook page.

6/25/2023: Dr. Ajeet Gajra, Hematology-Oncology Associates of CNY: Prostate Cancer can have a pretty high rate of survival when found and treated early. See more at HOAcny.com.

Marc Saltzman, Tech Guru: If you're looking to have some down time during the nice weather months by doing a little gaming or TV watching, our tech guru Marc Saltzman has some great ideas on new items available. See more at MarcSaltzman.com.

Spotlight on Local Business: Rebecca Stedman, Fort Rickey Game Farm: Fort Rickey Discovery Zoo has been around for generations but they have new owners and new animals are ready to be part of your summer! See more at FortRickey.com.

