

Cumulus Tucson Public Affairs Report

KHYY 5-6A

3rd Quarter of 2013

Submitted by Timothy Feska (Tim Tyler)

Tucson in Review is a weekly 30 minute public affairs program that airs each Sunday morning on all Cumulus Tucson radio stations. The following are community issues addressed on the program during the months of July, August and September of 2013.

Kino School

Issue: Education

Guests: Ryan McNew, teacher; Kelly Griffith, parent of junior high school student; Lisa Rakeshaw, parent of two grade school students and Diego Huerta, high school student.

Discussed Kino School's unique curriculum, integrated subject areas and importance of the school to parents of the students.

Aired: June 30 and July 7, 2013

---

Primavera Foundation

Issue: Homelessness/Poverty

Guest: Michael Finkelstein, Primavera spokesperson

Discussed the foundation's mission of providing pathways out of poverty through safe, affordable housing, workforce development and neighborhood revitalization as well as fundraising events benefitting the foundation.

Aired: July 14 and 21, 2013

---

Salvation Army of Tucson

Issue: Public Health/Poverty

Guest: Shauna Kroh, Assistant to Director Major Clem Leslie

Discussed the after-school programs offered for children, family bill-paying assistance and holiday fund raising volunteer opportunities.

Aired: July 28 and August 4, 2013

---

Administration of Resources and Choices

Issue: Housing

Guests: Ellen Hull, Assistant Director and Daniel Mendoza, Coordinator

Discussed housing counseling services, help available for homeowners who are underwater and/or facing foreclosure due to joblessness during the financial crisis.

---

Aired: August 11 and 18, 2013

---

Alzheimer's Association/Desert Southwest Chapter

Issue: Elderly

Guest: Kelly Raach, Regional Director

Discussed the prevalence of Alzheimer's in Southern Arizona and programs and services offered to the community as well as volunteer opportunities and upcoming fundraising events.

Aired: August 25 and September 1, 2013

---

Arizona Department of Health Services

Issue: Public Health

Guest: Adrienne Udarbe, ADHS spokesperson

Discussed the Power Me A2Z Program that offers free vitamins to women of childbearing years and other components of healthy living for both men and women.

Aired: September 8 and 15, 2013

---

Kitt Peak National Observatory

Issue: Culture/Tourism

Guest: Rich Fedele, Visitor Center Manager

Discussed why Kitt Peak is important to Southern Arizona, programs for the public and volunteer opportunities at the observatory.

Aired: September 22 and 29, 2013

---