

Radio Bilingüe Network and Affiliates Stations - Problems and Issues Report

3rd Quarter - July 1, 2017 - September 31, 2017

AIR DATE	TIME	TYPE	ORIGIN	TOPIC1	TOPIC2
1/2/2017	12:00-1:00	PRERECORDED	FRESNO	MUSIC
FUND
HEADLINE	Low Leaf.
PROGRAM	A young Filipino-American singer and songwriter born in Los Angeles, Low Leaf creates a signature mix of Filipino folk and modern music, acoustic instruments and electronic beats, traditional and digital sounds. This conversation with Low Leaf was recorded before a live audience at the National Mall, at the Smithsonian Folklife Festival, where Low Leaf was a headliner for the program Sounds of California.
	Guest: Low Leaf, Singer, Songwriter, Producer, Washington, DC.
	Katia Cardenal. Nicaraguan singer and composer Katia Cardenal, of Duo Guardabarranco fame and who became a leading voice of the New Song Movement of the 1980s, toured California with her daughter, guitar player Nina Cardenal. In this interview, Katia talks about her sources of inspiration, the women in the new song movement, and her new musical projects.
	Guest: Katia Cardenal, Singer, Composer, San Francisco, CA.
1/3/2017	12:00-1:00	PRERECORDED	FRESNO	CIVIL RIGHTS	IMMIGRATION
FUND	KELLOGG
HEADLINE	Combating Hate Crimes.
PROGRAM	In the wake of the presidential election, there has been a dramatic rise in the number of hate crimes and harassment around the nation targeting Muslims, immigrants, and other groups. In response, a leading group of Latino lawyers is reaching out to affected communities with a Hate Crimes Resources Toolkit, to help them report those incidents and resist bigotry. The national leader of the Latino lawyers comments on this matter.
	Guest: Pedro Torres Diaz, National President, Hispanic National Bar Association, Miami, FL.
	Legal Funds to Fight Deportations. A regular commentator discusses initiatives advanced by major cities to allocate multi-million funds to give legal help for immigrant families who face deportation proceedings and separation. She also comments on a public call to President Obama to pardon tens of thousands of legal residents ("green-cards") who are at risk of deportation due to minor crimes.
	Guest: Attorney Rosalba Piña, Expert on Immigration Law, Chicago, IL.

AIR DATE	TIME	TYPE	ORIGIN	TOPIC1	TOPIC2
1/4/2017	12:00-1:00	PRERECORDED	FRESNO	ENVIRONMENT
FUND
HEADLINE	Solar Panels Border.
PROGRAM	Mexican poet and internationally-renowned environmentalist Homero Aridjis published an essay proposing a new view for the US-Mexico border: "Instead of a Trump's wall, let's build a border of solar panels." And he concludes: "This would be a truly beautiful wall." In this conversation, Aridjis expands on his commentary. Guest: Homero Aridjis, Poet, Essayist, Environmentalist, Intellectual, Mexico City. Trade War with Mexico? During the presidential campaign, Donald Trump attacked NAFTA as "the worst trade deal ever," and threatened to impose tariffs on imports of products made in Mexico as a way to bring back jobs to the US. Is he serious about his threats against NAFTA and products made in Mexico? What would happen if he delivers on his campaign promise? Guest: Dr. Raul Hinojosa-Ojeda, Professor, Department of Chicano/Chicana Studies, UCLA, Co-Founder of North America Development Bank, Los Angeles, CA.
1/5/2017	12:00-1:00	PRERECORDED	FRESNO
FUND
HEADLINE	Latino Elected Top Mortgage Banker.
PROGRAM	A conversation with the home loan banker who made history as the first Latino to be elected national president of the Mortgage Bankers Association in the 100-year history of this institution of the real estate finance industry. He discusses the fast rise of Latinos as homebuyers, the "perfect storm" of obstacles faced by Latinos to buy a home and his plans to help them access affordable home loans. Guest: Rodrigo López, National President, Mortgage Bankers Association, Omaha, NE. A Push to Open the Mortgage Market. While the housing market is expanding and fair lending laws are being enacted, Latinos and African-American consumers are still finding it tougher to get affordable home loans. A consumer advocate discusses redlining, the new federal agency that protects consumers of financial services, and the outlook for Latino homebuyers in the year to come. Guest: Graciela Aponte Díaz, Director of California Policy, Center for Responsible Lending, Oakland, CA.
1/6/2017	12:00-1:00	LIVE	MEXICO	MEXICO
FUND
HEADLINE	Mexico Edition.
PROGRAM	Citizen demonstrations due to the rise in gasoline and diesel prices continue. The protesters are staging partial blockades to federal highways and petrochemical plants to prevent the sale of fuels. At the same time, hordes of looters incited by hooded individuals and unidentified organizations, cause destruction in shopping centers. President Peña claims he has no responsibility in the rise of prices, but experts explain that the increase means paying more taxes to the government. Martha Elena Ramírez, conducts this broadcast of the program Voz Pública, from Mexico City. Guests: Ing. Silvia Ramos Luna, responsible for the laboratory at the refining plant of Tula Hidalgo, member of the National Union of Petroleum Technicians and Professionals; Ing. Francisco Garaicochea Petreirena, president of the Grupo Pemex, Constitución del 17; Francisco Jiménez Pablo, leader of Coordinadora Nacional, Plan de Ayala, Movimiento Nacional Campesino; audio of Enrique Peña Nieto, president of Mexico.

AIR DATE	TIME	TYPE	ORIGIN	TOPIC1	TOPIC2
1/9/2017	12:00-1:00	LIVE	FRESNO	EDUCATION
FUND
HEADLINE	Bilingual Education Back in California.
PROGRAM	After voters approved Proposition 58, public schools in California have the green light to bring bilingual and multilingual programs back to the schoolroom. The new reform will take effect in July. How are schools preparing for the new law? Where are the critically needed bilingual education teachers? Guest: Dr. Patricia Gándara, Research Professor of Education, Graduate School of Education, Co-Director, The Civil Rights Project, UCLA, Los Angeles, CA. New Reality for Higher Education. Donald Trump promised to end the US Department of Education and nominated an education secretary who champions private schools and less regulation for for-profit colleges. What can be expected about plans to tackle the rising college tuition fees and costs of student loans? How about Pell Grant programs and anti-discrimination policies? And the help to Dreamer students? What does the new political landscape mean for Latino colleges and universities? Guest: Antonio Flores, President and Chief Executive Officer, Hispanic Association of Colleges and Universities – HACU, San Antonio, TX
1/10/2017	12:00-1:00	LIVE	FRESNO	ECONOMICS
FUND
HEADLINE	"Six Figures and Struggling."
PROGRAM	This is a conversation with well-known financial planning expert Louis Barajas about his new book "Six Figures and Struggling." He says people who earn six figures still live paycheck to paycheck, struggling to make ends meet, feeling frustrated and guilty. How can they regain control of their finances? Guest: Louis Barajas, Certified Financial Planner, Author, Los Angeles, CA. Sessions Confirmation Hearing. Attorney General nominee Jeff Sessions faces a Senate confirmation hearing. Among the questions, he is asked whether he would advise to end DACA, and what would happen to the 800,000 applicants who have come out of the shadows. This is a report on the exchange between Sessions and senators Lindsay Graham and Dick Durbin.
1/11/2017	12:00-1:00	LIVE	FRESNO	POLITICS
FUND
HEADLINE	Aid in Dying Laws.
PROGRAM	This month, a Colorado law allowing terminally ill patients to take their own lives using prescribed medication goes into effect. Colorado became the sixth state to allow the right to medical aid in dying after voters approved a proposition in November. What do we need to know about this law? Guest: Patricia A. Gonzalez-Portillo, National Latino Communications Manager, Compassion and Choices, Los Angeles, CA Marijuana Laws and the Drug War. Voters in eight states approved on Election Day ballot measures legalizing marijuana for personal use. Now, a total of 29 states have laws legalizing marijuana and the latest laws are now going into effect. What do we need to know about these laws? Will federal authorities rethink their prohibition policy? What are the international ramifications? Guest: Armando Gudiño, Policy Manager, California Partnerships, Drug Policy Alliance, Los Angeles, CA Obama's Farewell. President Obama gave his farewell speech in his hometown, Chicago, before thousands of supporters. In his address, he touted his achievements, warned against the looming threats for the nation, and called on citizens to "believe in their ability to bring about change" and engage in sustained organizing. Guest: (audio cuts) Barack Obama, US President, Chicago, IL.

AIR DATE	TIME	TYPE	ORIGIN	TOPIC1	TOPIC2
1/12/2017	12:00-1:00	LIVE	FRESNO	ECONOMICS
FUND
HEADLINE	From Tandas to Bank Loans.
PROGRAM	A conversation with the winner of a recent “genius grant,” an award given by the MacArthur Foundation to recognize creative work. José Quiñonez created an organization to help unbanked low-income immigrants to establish credit history to be able to get credit cards, take out loans, buy a car or rent an apartment. The former undocumented immigrant works with credit bureaus to get them to accept the practice of tandas or cundinas and other informal lending circles. His organization operates in 17 states and his model is being used in many communities. Guest: Jose A. Quiñonez, MacArthur Fellow, Founder and Chief Executive Officer, Mission Asset Fund, San Francisco, CA Coordinated Actions for Immigrants. Under the slogan “Here to Stay,” a broad coalition of pro-immigrant groups in seventy cities call for actions to protest plans for mass deportations and ending DACA under the incoming Trump administration. A leading organizer of the “National Day of Action” joins this conversation. Guest: Kica Matos, Director of Immigrant Rights and Racial Justice, Center for Community Change, Spokesperson for Fair Immigration Reform Movement, New Haven, CT Photo: Mission Asset Fund/Facebook
1/13/2017	12:00-1:00	LIVE	MEXICO	MEXICO
FUND
HEADLINE	Mexico Edition.
PROGRAM	Public protests against the increase in gasoline are in it's second consecutive week. In the nation's capital, a demonstrator goes on hunger strike in front of the Cathedral, while hundreds of marchers call for the resignation of President Peña Nieto and repudiate political parties. Business groups have also joined the call to resist the government measures. In addition, a witness to the robberies and looting of stores in the state of Mexico points out that those actions were coordinated by hooded youth and robbery experts who, after opening establishments, incited neighbors to steal merchandise and set fire to a warehouse in the presence of state police. In addition, pro-immigrant organizations announce a demonstration against Donald Trump for January 20. Martha Elena Ramírez, hosts this broadcast of the program Voz Pública, from Mexico City. Guests: (audio recordings) María García, spokeswoman for the Binational Coalition vs Trump; demonstrators in Mexico City; anonymous witness of looting to stores in the State of Mexico; Gustavo de Hoyos Walther, president of Confederación Patronal de la República Mexicana (Confederation of Employers of the Mexican Republic); Marco Antonio Castellanos Reyes, demonstrator on hunger strike, Mexico City.
1/16/2017	12:00-1:00	PRERECORDED	FRESNO	SOCIAL
FUND	KELLOGG
HEADLINE	Dr. King: Time for Racial Healing.
PROGRAM	The nation celebrates the birthday of the civil rights icon Martin Luther King Jr on the eve of the inauguration of Donald Trump as president. A leader of philanthropy and civil rights activists reflect on the impact on minority groups of the divisive 2016 election campaign, the vision of Dr. King, and the call for a National Day of Racial Healing and a sustained campaign to eliminate racism. Guests: Luz Benítez Delgado, Program Officer for Truth, Racial Healing and Transformation, WK Kellogg Foundation, Battle Creek, Michigan; Martin Castro, Outgoing Chair, US Commission on Civil Rights, CEO of Castro Synergies, Chicago, IL; Dr. Cesar Cruz, Educator and Activist, Keynote Speaker at MLK's Community Event, Oakland, CA.

AIR DATE	TIME	TYPE	ORIGIN	TOPIC1	TOPIC2
1/17/2017	12:00-1:00	LIVE	FRESNO	IMMIGRATION
FUND	Immigration Edition.
HEADLINE
PROGRAM	Analysts comment on President Obama's last days in office and the calls for presidential pardons. They also discuss reports on rallies across the nation this week for immigrant rights, the reintroduction of the BRIDGE Act, a bill to protect "Dreamers", and the end of the migration policy "Wet Foot, Dry Foot" towards Cuba.
	Guests: Attorney Rosalba Piña, Immigration Law Expert, Chicago, IL; Larry Kleinman, Senior Advisory Board, Fair Immigration Reform Movement – FIRM, Washington, DC
1/18/2017	12:00-1:00	LIVE	FRESNO	HEALTH
FUND	TCE-2017
HEADLINE	Obamacare Repealed? Then What? (IN-KIND)
PROGRAM	The US Congress took the first steps to vote on repeal of the Affordable Care Act as soon as next month. What plans to replace it do Republican leaders have? What would happen to the millions who lose their insurance? What would happen to the hardest hit if Medicaid is cut? What changes can be expected under Tom Price, Trump's nominee for health secretary?
	Guests: Rep. Raul Grijalva, US Congressman, Democrat, Tucson, AZ; Sinsi Hernández-Cancio, Director of Health Equity, Families USA, Washington, DC; Daniel Garza, President, The LIBRE Initiative, Washington, DC.
	Photo: stream.org
1/19/2017	12:00-1:00	LIVE	FRESNO	POLITICS
FUND	Inauguration Day Eve.
HEADLINE
PROGRAM	As Washington makes final preparations for inauguration day, analysts discuss the first fights to expect in Congress in the initial days of Trump's presidency. They discuss his cabinet nominees, and recent statements on issues such as the repeal of Obamacare and DACA, relations with Russia, funding the border wall and Trump's warnings against Mexico.
	Guests: Hector Barreto, Chair, The Latino Coalition, Washington, D.C.; Rep. Norma Torres, D-LA, Washington, DC; José López Zamorano, Correspondent, Washington, DC.
1/20/2017	12:00-1:00	LIVE	FRESNO	POLITICS
FUND	Inauguration Day.
HEADLINE
PROGRAM	Amid massive anti-Trump protests, president-elect Donald Trump takes office on this day. A news correspondent files a report on the inaugural ceremonies, who is attending and who is boycotting, and highlights from the inaugural address. Listeners are encouraged to call in with comments on this watershed moment.

AIR DATE	TIME	TYPE	ORIGIN	TOPIC1	TOPIC2
1/23/2017	12:00-1:00	LIVE	FRESNO	POLITICS
FUND	President Trump: Day One.
HEADLINE
PROGRAM	Newly inaugurated president Trump signed his first executive orders and made his first policy announcements in his first day in office. He signed an order against Obamacare and another one to renegotiate NAFTA. Political analysts discuss the meaning of those actions. They also comment on the historic mega-rally of women in Washington and sister marches around the world the day after the presidential inauguration. Guests: Professor Jose Angel Gutierrez, Attorney, Political Scientist, Co-Founder of La Raza Unida Party, Brownsville, TX; Antonio Gonzalez, President, South West Voter Registration Project, Los Angeles, CA.
1/24/2017	12:00-1:00	LIVE	FRESNO	ECONOMICS
FUND	KELLOGG
HEADLINE	Latino Immigrant Businesses on the Rise.
PROGRAM	Of the 25 million businesses in the US, four million are owned by Latinos. These businesses are the sector with the fastest growth in the US economy. Why are these entrepreneurs so active? What's their impact in the US economy? A group of scholars share their findings on those questions and on why these facts are hardly part of the discussions on immigration policy. Guest: Victor Arias, Trustee Emeritus, Board of Trustees, Stanford University, Co-Founder of Latino Business Action Network, Senior Client Partner of Korn Ferry, Dallas, TX. Trump's Action on DACA. Young DACA beneficiaries known as Dreamers anxiously wait to see if Donald Trump orders to repeal the federal program in one of his actions on Day One. An leading Dreamer comments on the expected executive orders, the recent statements by the White House, and the actions in Congress. This program also includes the speech by 6-year-old Sophie Cruz, daughter of undocumented immigrants, who spoke at the Women's March in Washington; and remarks by Xavier Becerra during the ceremony where he was sworn in as California's first Latino attorney general. Guest: Juan Escalante, Digital Campaigns Manager, America's Voice, DACA recipient, Washington, DC; Sophie Cruz, Child Speaker at Women's March, Washington, DC (recording); Xavier Becerra, Incoming California Attorney General, Sacramento, CA (recording).
1/25/2017	12:00-1:00	LIVE	FRESNO	EDUCATION
FUND	DeVos Public Education Plans.
HEADLINE
PROGRAM	Trump's Education Secretary nominee, billionaire Betsy DeVos, faced a divided committee of senators at her confirmation hearing, with Republicans on her side and Democrats questioning her wealth and ethical disclosures, and her activist support for moving taxpayer dollars from traditional public education to private schools. What to expect from DeVos at the helm of the Education Department? This and other topics are discussed with experts in the field. Guests: Jan Gustafson Corea, CEO, California Association for Bilingual Education-CABE, Covina, CA; Ronald Blackburn-Moreno, President and CEO, ASPIRA Association, Washington, DC

AIR DATE	TIME	TYPE	ORIGIN	TOPIC1	TOPIC2
1/26/2017	12:00-1:00	LIVE	MEXICO	MEXICO
FUND
HEADLINE	Mexico Edition.
PROGRAM	In response to the announcement that the construction of the wall between Mexico and the United States will proceed, and the imminent deportation of immigrants, President Peña Nieto cancels his meeting with US President Trump. On the other hand, civil organizations warn of the disaster that the mass deportation of migrants will bring about, since these immigrants would not only fail to contribute remittances to their communities, but would return to an impoverished country with high levels of violence. Against this backdrop, farmer organizations propose to exclude the agricultural chapter of the Free Trade Agreement and they call on the Mexican government to support domestic production. In addition, in this edition, an activist reports that the government of Baja California continues the construction of two desalination plants and a water pipeline. They argue that these works will contaminate the air and soil of the Mexicali valley and will limit the quotas of water to the farmers. Martha Elena Ramírez, hosts this broadcast of the program Voz Pública, from Mexico City. Guests: (audios) Donald Trump, president of USA; Enrique Peña Nieto, president of Mexico; Guillermo Andrade, Nueva Constituyente Ciudadana; Marco Antonio Castillo, Asamblea Popular de Familias Migrantes; Alfredo Acedo Unión Nacional de Organizaciones Regionales Campesinas Autónomas (UNORCA); Tania Gallaga, spokeswoman for the Asamblea en Defensa del Agua y de la Vida, Mexicali, BC.
1/27/2017	12:00-1:00	LIVE	MEXICO	MEXICO
FUND
HEADLINE	Mexico Edition.
PROGRAM	After 30 years of commercial pacts with its northern neighbor, another economic debacle comes to Mexico, with its public debt exceeding 50 percent of its GDP. Previous Mexican governments dismantled the manufacturing industry and handed over to foreign corporations the oil reserves that gave the country resources for more than one trillion pesos a year. Furthermore, following NAFTA rules, transnational corporations never paid taxes to the Mexican government, and the situation can be the same for the oil companies that are about to enter the Gulf of Mexico. Now, according to experts, comes an economic stagnation and the only way out for Mexico is to recover control of its oil. Martha Elena Ramírez, hosts this broadcast of the program Voz Pública, from Mexico City. Guests: (audios) Dr. Alberto Montoya Martín del Campo, Economist; Dr. Nicolás Domínguez Vergara, Researcher at the National Institute of Petroleum, Mexico.
1/30/2017	12:00-1:00	LIVE	FRESNO
FUND
HEADLINE	Oil Pipelines Revived.
PROGRAM	President Trump signed executive orders giving the green light to build controversial Keystone XL and Dakota Access pipelines, and expedite the environmental review process. Critics fear damage to the environment and Native American communities. Guest analysts also comment on the upcoming vote on EPA nominee Scott Pruitt and the gag order against government scientists at the EPA. Guests: Adriana Quintero, Director of Partner Engagement, Natural Resources Defense Council, Executive Director, Voces Verdes, San Francisco, CA; Tony Gonzales, Director, American Indian Movement -WEST, San Francisco, CA

AIR DATE	TIME	TYPE	ORIGIN	TOPIC1	TOPIC2
1/31/2017	12:00-1:00	LIVE	FRESNO	POLITICS
FUND
HEADLINE	Trump's Wall, Muslim Ban.
PROGRAM	President Trump signed executive orders to start building a border wall, penalize sanctuary cities, beef up the deportation force, and other tough measures cracking down on immigration, his signature campaign issue. Analysts discuss Trump's Muslim travel ban crisis and a little known order that seeks to deport many more immigrants faster.
	Guests: Marielena Hincapié, Executive Director, National Immigration Law Center, Los Angeles, CA; Attorney Rosalba Piña, Immigration Law Expert, Chicago, IL
	Photo: nesaranews.blogspot
2/1/2017	12:00-1:00	LIVE	FRESNO	EDUCATION
FUND
HEADLINE	Debate on Education Nominee.
PROGRAM	The day after a senate committee voted on the controversial education secretary nominee Betsy DeVos, the leader of the largest teacher union comments on her agenda, her answers during the confirmation hearing and her concerns. With a Republican majority in the Senate, the billionaire heiress is expected to win confirmation as the nation's top school administrator. Also, a former Republican leader examines the first ten days of Trump's presidency, including the Muslim ban blunders and the nominations to the Supreme Court and the cabinet.
	Guests: Lily Eskelsen García, National President, National Education Association, Washington, DC; Dr. Juan Hernández, Conservative Analyst, Dallas, TX (Joining from Mexico City)
2/2/2017	12:00-1:00	LIVE	FRESNO	HEALTH
FUND	TCE-2017
HEADLINE	Price and Plans to Replace ACA. - CV SAL
PROGRAM	As health nominee Tom Price, a Republican congressman, sails through rough waters in the Senate's confirmation process, Republicans in Congress introduce the first bills to replace the Affordable Care Act. Analysts discuss the issues that are dogging the controversial nomination of Price to the top health post, the details of the Republican health care plans, and Trump's executive action to start undoing Obamacare.
	Guests: Dr. Raul Ruiz, US Representative, D-CA, US Congress, Washington, DC; Gonzalo Javier Ferrer, National Chairman, Republican National Hispanic Assembly, San Francisco, CA; Nancy Gomez, Organizing Director, Health Access, Glendale, CA
	Photo: mediaguinee.org

AIR DATE	TIME	TYPE	ORIGIN	TOPIC1	TOPIC2
2/3/2017	12:00-1:00	LIVE	MEXICO	MEXICO
FUND
HEADLINE	Mexico Edition.
PROGRAM	Mexican unions join the mobilizations that farmworkers have been carrying out for 17 years demanding the government to provide social support for the country's agricultural sector. The demonstrators are asking to halt the rise in the price of gasoline, to revoke the structural reforms and to review the Free Trade Agreement, at a time when there are talks about a possible renegotiation. Additionally, in this edition we will describe 20 years of activism developed by the Center for Human Rights in Chilapa, Guerrero. Its director presents testimony on the kidnapping of 32 people in that municipality, which occurred in the presence of the armed forces. For its part, the Mexican congress reports that it will begin the discussion of the internal security law, sent by President Peña, which gives greater participation in social containment to the Mexican Army. Martha Elena Ramírez conducts this broadcast of the program Voz Pública, from Mexico City. Guests: (audios) Carlos Moreno, Hipólito Hernández Cruz and Silverio Cruz Mota, from Tezontepec de Aldama, Hidalgo, members of Central Campesina Cardenista; Adriana Hernandez, Juan Sierra Jiménez and Florentino López Martínez, Frente Popular Revolucionario; (live broadcast) Manuel Olivares Hernández, director of Centro de Derechos Humanos José María Morelos y Pavón, Chilapa, Guerrero, Mexico
2/6/2017	12:00-1:00	PRERECORDED	FRESNO	CIVIL RIGHTS
FUND	KELLOGG
HEADLINE	The Muslim Ban.
PROGRAM	Ahmed Ali, a California Yemeni-American, and his daughter Eman ended up stranded in Africa after Trump banned refugees and visitors from some Muslim countries. His 12-year-old daughter was not allowed in the US despite having a valid US immigrant visa. They are now part of a class action lawsuit against Trump's ban. Following a court order, Eman was allowed in and they arrived to San Francisco. The employer of Ahmed talks about the ordeal his store manager is going through, the impact on his business and the local efforts to have him bring his daughter to the US. Also, a Muslim leader and a Lebanese immigrant discuss the impact this travel ban is having in their communities in the US and abroad. Guests: Camerino Muñoz, Owner, Buy-N-Save Market, Los Baños, CA; Ghassan Habib, Spokesperson, Islamic Center, Fresno, CA; Dr. Hafeez Rehman, Ahmadiyya Muslim Community, Amsterdam, NY.
2/7/2017	12:00-1:00	LIVE	MEXICO	MEXICO
FUND
HEADLINE	Mexico Edition.
PROGRAM	Everything indicates that the Mexican mogul Carlos Slim will convert the old underground mine of Salaverna in the second open pit mine in the state of Zacatecas. That would be the reason for the explosions of dynamite that 4 years ago caused the collapse of the hill slope and cracks in most of the houses. Recently, these homes were demolished with heavy machinery in the presence of police and state government officials, although some were inhabited. In fact, the measurement of thousands of hectares have already begun in the Mazapil hills, and they could be leased to Frisco-Tayahua, owned by the Mexican tycoon who, even though he is the fourth richest man in the world, has refused to compensate those affected. Martha Elena Ramírez, hosts this edition of the program Voz Pública, from Mexico City. Guests: (recordings) Former worker of the Frisco-Tayahua mine; Martha Leticia Mendoza Cardenas, inhabitant of one of the destroyed houses in Salaverna, Zacatecas, Mex.

AIR DATE	TIME	TYPE	ORIGIN	TOPIC1	TOPIC2
2/8/2017	12:00-1:00	LIVE	FRESNO	HEALTH
FUND
HEADLINE	Alzheimer's Ravaging Latinos.
PROGRAM	Experts predict a dramatic rise of Alzheimer's cases among Latinos. In the next years, the disease will affect millions of Latino elders. News reporters covering the health beat comment on the emotional and financial strain on family caregivers, the efforts to help families who are dealing with this crisis, and other topics. Guests: Ana Ibarra, Reporter, Kaiser Health News, Sacramento, CA; Heidi de Marco, Reporter, Kaiser Health News, Los Angeles, CA. Republicans Target Medicare. Republican leaders in Congress are moving to overhaul Medicare, turning it into a voucher-like, private insurance program. The speaker of the House and Trump's health secretary nominee have advocated for privatizing Medicare, so that instead of receiving benefits paid by the government, a beneficiary receives vouchers to buy private insurance. Advocates for seniors are launching a national campaign to oppose the move. Guest: Hilda Delgado, Communications Director, American Association of Retired Persons (AARP-California), Pasadena, CA.
2/9/2017	12:00-1:00	LIVE	FRESNO	POLITICS
FUND
HEADLINE	Supreme Court Nominee.
PROGRAM	Trump nominated Neil Gorsuch to fill the vacancy on the Supreme Court. Gorsuch is a conservative federal judge from Denver. Where does he stand on labor issues, women's rights and civil rights? How will he shape the court? Will all Democrats resist the nomination? Will Republicans use the nuclear option? Guest analysts also comment on the swearing in of Jeff Sessions as Attorney General and Trump's attacks against federal judges. Guests: Pedro Torres Diaz, President, Hispanic National Bar Association, Miami, FL; Dr. Lisa García Bedolla, Chancellor's Professor, Graduate School of Education, UC Berkeley, Berkeley, CA; Cruz Reynoso, Former Associate Justice of the California Supreme Court, Professor of Law Emeritus, UC Davis School of Law, Davis, CA
2/10/2017	12:00-1:00	LIVE	FRESNO	POLITICS
FUND
HEADLINE	Executive Orders: Listener Forum.
PROGRAM	President Trump's executive orders on immigration created confusion and anxiety. Who will be deported under the new draconian criteria? How to read the delay of action on DACA? Also, a report on the Arizona mom who was deported to Mexico in a first of its kind, and news about dozens of detainees in Los Angeles during immigration raids. Listeners call in and give their perspective.
2/13/2017	12:00-1:00	LIVE	FRESNO	IMMIGRATION
FUND	KELLOGG
HEADLINE	Muslim Ban Denied.
PROGRAM	Yemeni-American Ahmed Ali and his daughter Eman were stuck in Djibouti for one week when Trump ordered a ban against travelers from Yemen and other Muslim countries. When the Muslim ban was blocked by a judge and later a federal court decided to not reinstate Trump's ban, they were able to reunite with family in Central California. This program provides a report on the welcome ceremony for the Ali family. And evangelical leaders are denouncing Trump's immigration orders, Muslim ban and preference for Christian refugees. Guests: Ahmed Ali, Yemeni-American Impacted by Trump's Muslim Ban, Los Baños, CA; Rep. Jim Costa, D-Fresno, Los Baños, CA; Mayor Mike Villalta, City of Los Baños, CA; Julieta and Angela, Friends of Ali, Los Baños, CA; Rev. Dr. Gabriel Salguero, President, National Latino Evangelical Coalition, Orlando, FL

AIR DATE	TIME	TYPE	ORIGIN	TOPIC1	TOPIC2
2/14/2017	12:00-1:00	LIVE	FRESNO	IMMIGRATION
FUND	KELLOGG
HEADLINE	ICE Deportation Raids.
PROGRAM	After reports about immigration sweeps in eleven states, legislators are demanding ICE to provide details about the raids and the detainees and are charging ICE with providing false information to the public. Meantime, tens of thousands march in Milwaukee in the "Day without Immigrants" to protest plans by a local sheriff to turn sheriffs into immigration agents.
	Guests: Rep. Tony Cardenas, D-CA, Washington, DC; Rep. Norma Torres, D-CA, Washington, DC; Christine Neumann-Ortiz, Executive Director, Voces de la Frontera, Milwaukee, WI, www.vdlf.org
2/15/2017	12:00-1:00	LIVE	FRESNO	POLITICS
FUND	New Americans in Congress.
HEADLINE	US Congressmembers from both parties came together to create a caucus to "celebrate the growing number of first generation Americans serving in the US Congress." The group, called the New Americans Caucus, seeks to give immigrants a voice within Congress.
PROGRAM	Guests: Rep. Norma Torres, D-CA, Washington, DC
	Dreamer Detained, Mother Seeks Sanctuary. A young immigrant protected by DACA was arrested in Seattle, the first case in the nation, and an immigrant mother who is facing deportation takes sanctuary in Denver church. Listeners comment on these developments and on calls for a consumer boycott against companies that support punitive policies on immigrants.
2/16/2017	12:00-1:00	LIVE	FRESNO	POLITICS
FUND	Trump's Labor Nominee Out, New One Picked.
HEADLINE	Fast food executive Andrew Puzder, Trump's controversial nominee to lead the US Department of Labor, withdraws from consideration. Trump names Alex Acosta as new nominee, the first Latino to be picked for the Cabinet. Analysts discuss the record of both nominees, and the plans of the new administration to undo Obama's worker-protection regulations. Also, listeners provide reports about work stoppages and business closures to honor the "Day Without Immigrants."
PROGRAM	Guests: Hector Sanchez, Executive Director, Labor Council for Latin American Advancement, Chair, National Hispanic Leadership Agenda, Washington, DC; Hilda Solis, Former US Labor Secretary, Supervisor, Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors, Los Angeles, CA ; Lamoin Werlein-Jaén, Director of Leadership Development Programs, UC Berkeley Labor Center, Berkeley, CA; President Trump (audio segment).
2/17/2017	12:00-1:00	LIVE	MEXICO	MEXICO
FUND	Mexico Edition.
HEADLINE	Among the landscape of demolished houses in the mountain town of Salaverna, only six inhabited houses remain. These Zacatecan highlands are patrolled by hooded state policemen with rifles. This area's land belongs to the federal government, but today it is in dispute because although the comuneros have possession, the mining company Frisco-Tayahúa plans to exploit the area using the open pit mining method. "Everything could have been solved just with a relocation, but the government and Mr. Slim preferred to destroy our homes and take our water. Now they are sending the state police against us," denounced those affected. In this edition, residents of Conca del Oro, Zacatecas , Speak of the human and environmental costs that mining has left since the arrival of the Spaniards. Martha Elena Ramírez, hosts this broadcast of the program Voz Pública, from Mexico City.
PROGRAM	Guests: Roberto de la Rosa; Micaela Zamarripa, Daniela Sánchez Zamarripa and Miguel Sánchez, neighbors of Salaverna, municipality of Mazapil, Zacatecas; José Ascensión Ovalle and Rosa Isela Ojeda Martínez, brother organization Efrén Orandalla, Concha del Oro, Zacatecas (recorded interviews).

AIR DATE	TIME	TYPE	ORIGIN	TOPIC1	TOPIC2
2/20/2017	12:00-1:00	LIVE	FRESNO	FARMWORKER
FUND
HEADLINE	Farmworker Champion.
PROGRAM	Leading filmmaker and TV and music producer David Damian Figueroa is being honored this week with the Dolores Huerta Award for his work championing the rights of farmworkers through the arts. As a publicity artist, he helped grow the career of music greats like Tito Puente and La India, oversaw social campaigns for civil rights and health care reform. He produced the acclaimed documentaries Food Chains and The Harvest. Guest: David Damian Figueroa, Entertainment Industry Professional, Social Activist, Los Angeles, CA. "Tell me your Name." Written and performed by Irma Herrera, Tell Me Your Name is a live monologue that the narrator uses to poke fun at her life growing up in a segregated town in South Texas and the battles to be heard by a mainstream society that pushes her to give up some parts of her identity. A new edition of this performance will premiere in Fresno. Guest: Irma Herrera, Playwright, Performer, Lawyer, Social Justice Activist, San Francisco, CA.
2/21/2017	12:00-1:00	LIVE	FRESNO	CIVIL RIGHTS
FUND	KELLOGG
HEADLINE	Deportables. (IN-KIND)
PROGRAM	In the first major immigration crackdown of the Trump administration, ICE agents captured hundreds, many without criminal records, amid alarming news reports that the White House is considering mobilizing 100,000 National Guard troops to escalate the sweeps against undocumented immigrants. Advocates give details about the detention of young immigrants with DACA permits in Seattle and San Antonio, a domestic violence victim in El Paso, and a father of US citizens in Oregon. Guests: Attorney Rosalba Piña, Immigration Law Expert, Chicago, IL; Michelle Loeza, father was detained by ICE, Woodburn, OR; Josue Romero, DACA student detained and release by federal agents, San Antonio, TX
2/22/2017	12:00-1:00	LIVE	FRESNO	SOCIAL
FUND
HEADLINE	Day Without Immigrants.
PROGRAM	Tens of thousands of workers didn't show up to work, businesses closed and schoolchildren stayed home as part of a nationwide protest against Trump's immigration policies. The "Day Without Immigrants" campaign spread on social media and by word of mouth. What was the extent of the protest? How did it happen? Who joined the call? What's next? Listeners are encouraged to share their views and plans.

AIR DATE	TIME	TYPE	ORIGIN	TOPIC1	TOPIC2
2/23/2017	12:00-1:00	LIVE	FRESNO	HEALTH
FUND	TCE-2017
HEADLINE	Time for Universal Health in California? (IN-KIND)
PROGRAM	Lawmakers in California are introducing a bill to create a single-payer health care system to ensure coverage for every Californian. The imminent repeal in Washington of the Affordable Care Act, action where the state has the most to lose, spurred legislators to come up with plans for the Healthy California Act. The co-author discusses details of the universal-care bill. Guest: State Sen. Ricardo Lara, Democrat – Bell Gardens, Los Angeles, CA. Tillerson and Kelly in Mexico. Secretary of State Rex Tillerson and Homeland Security Secretary John Kelly met in Mexico with President Peña Nieto and cabinet officials after the US administration released plans that pave the way for mass deportations and a border wall, making relations between US and Mexico sink to its lowest point in decades. Kelly denied there will be mass deportations and the use of military troops for immigrant roundups. Guests: (audio recordings) Luis Videgaray, Mexican Secretary of Foreign Relations, Mexico City; John Kelly, US Secretary of Homeland Security, Mexico City. Photo: hcao.org
2/24/2017	12:00-1:00	LIVE	MEXICO	MEXICO
FUND	Mexico Edition.
HEADLINE	Mexico Edition.
PROGRAM	During a working visit to Mexico, Secretary of State Rex Tillerson and National Security Secretary John Kelly assured the Mexican government that there will be no mass deportation of migrants, that there will be no military intervention in their capture and that the human rights of the deported migrants will be respected. In another development, Cheryl Angel, leader of the Sioux tribe, expressed solidarity with the Indian peoples of Mexico. She also reported that in North Dakota, they are fighting against the construction of a pipeline of a the Texan corporation named Energy Transfer Partners. This oil pipeline passes through Sacred territory of the Lakota tribes, affecting the Missouri River and Lake Oahe of the Sioux Reserve in Standing Rock. In addition, this edition reports about the public apology that the Mexican government offered to three Hñāhñú natives, who, although innocent, were imprisoned for three years, accused of kidnapping. Martha Elena Ramírez hosts this broadcast of the program Voz Pública, from Mexico City. Guests: (audio recordings) Luis Videgaray Caso, Secretary of Foreign Relations; Miguel Ángel Osorio Chong, Secretary of Government; John Kelly, US Secretary of Homeland Security (translation); Cheryl Angel, leader of the Sioux Tribe, North Dakota; Trinidad del Valle, líder del Frente de Pueblos en Defensa de la Tierra of San Salvador Atenco; Mario Patrón, director of the Center for Human Rights, Miguel Agustín Pro Juárez; Teresa González Cornelio; Alberta Alcántara Juan and Jacinta Francisco Marcial, indigenous of Santiago Mexquititlán, Querétaro; Raúl Cervantes Andrade, Attorney General of the Republic; Estela Hernández Jiménez, bilingual teacher, daughter of Mrs. Jacinta.
2/27/2017	12:00-1:00	LIVE	FRESNO
FUND	Colombia Peace Process.
HEADLINE	Colombia Peace Process.
PROGRAM	Colombian authorities are charging multinational corporations with crimes against humanity for financing right-wing death squads. Among the accused banana companies are Dole, Del Monte and Chiquita. This unprecedented prosecution is part of the peace agreement between the FARC guerrillas and the government. Analysts also comment on the progress of the peace agreements reached between the government and the FARC and the new talks with guerrillas of the ELN, and Trump's position towards Colombia's peace effort. Guests: Dr. Mario Murillo, Professor, Latin American Caribbean Studies Program, Hofstra University, Hempstead, NY; Gabriel Villalobos, Colombian-Born Journalist, Host, Contacto Total, KNUV, Phoenix, AZ.

AIR DATE	TIME	TYPE	ORIGIN	TOPIC1	TOPIC2
2/28/2017	12:00-1:00	LIVE	FRESNO	IMMIGRATION
FUND
HEADLINE	Immigrant Communities in Crisis.
PROGRAM	As Homeland Security chief said in Mexico there will be “no mass deportations,” Trump insists in ramping up deportation raids. Meantime, cities take to the courts to block federal sanctions on sanctuary cities, and new bills in Congress oppose spending on the border wall. Analysts also discuss what the new DHS memos mean for immigrant communities and the grassroots efforts to challenge threats to civil rights.
	Guests: Attorney Carlos Spector-Calderón, Immigration Law Expert, El Paso, TX; Larry Kleinman, Senior Advisory Board, FIRM, Washington, DC
3/1/2017	12:00-1:00	LIVE	FRESNO	POLITICS
FUND
HEADLINE	Trump's Address to Congress.
PROGRAM	President Trump gives his first address to a joint session of Congress. He highlighted his executive actions on his first forty days in the White House and his plans on tax reform, health care policy, border security, military spending, and upgrade transportation infrastructure. This program includes segments of the speech, followed by opinions from listeners, and an interview with a DACA recipient who was a guest of honor of Sen. Kamala Harris in Congress.
	Guests: (Audio Cuts) President Trump, Washington, DC; Astrid Silva, Dreamer Immigrant Activist, Democrat Response in Spanish to Trump Address (Recording); Yuriana Aguilar, PhD, Instructor, Department of Physiology and Biophysics, Rush Medical College, Chicago, IL.
3/2/2017	12:00-1:00	LIVE	FRESNO	HEALTH
FUND	TCE-2017
HEADLINE	Plans to Replace Obamacare. - CV SAL
PROGRAM	In his address to Congress this week, President Trump called the current healthcare system a disaster that's imploding and called on Congress to agree on a plan to replace it. He promoted a system in which consumers would purchase insurance with the help of tax credits and expanded Health Savings Accounts. A consumer advocate examines Trump's speech, and the controversial plans in Congress to repeal and replace Obamacare.
	Guests: Sinsi Hernández-Cancio, Director of Health Equity, Families USA, Washington, DC; Virginia Madueño, Small Businesswoman, Participant in Town Hall Meeting on Healthcare Reform, Riverbank, CA (taped interview); Lilia Rodriguez, Participant in Town Hall Meeting on Healthcare Reform, Turlock, CA (taped interview); President Trump's Speech Excerpts.
3/3/2017	12:00-1:00	LIVE	MEXICO	MEXICO
FUND
HEADLINE	Mexico Edition.
PROGRAM	Although the Mexican government announced that a budget of a billion Mexican pesos will be assigned to legally defend Mexicans who are at risk of being deported, the nationals who were already repatriated were excluded from this program. So far, the Mexican Foreign Ministry has not presented any plans to help those who were previously expelled from the United States. In addition, we talk about a Spanish company called Abengoa, which will produce electricity to be sold to Guatemala, but in the process would leave without water a number of vegetable-producing ejidos in the state of Morelos. The operation of the thermoelectric requires 50 million liters of water per day, and the company aims to connect directly to the flow of the river. Abengoa would also use the infrastructure of CFE, the federal utility company, to trade the electric power. In addition, seven mining concessions were granted in Morelos for the exploitation of uranium. Martha Elena Ramírez, hosts this broadcast of the program Voz Pública, from Mexico City.
	Guests: (recordings) Ana Laura López and Eleazar Hernández Cardona, Deportados Unidos en Lucha; Roberto Caravantes Díaz, professor with leave without pay, Cuautla Huesca, Morelos; (live) Al Rojas, presidente, Consejo Latinoamericano por el Progreso Laboral, AFL-CIO, Sacramento, CA.

AIR DATE	TIME	TYPE	ORIGIN	TOPIC1	TOPIC2
3/6/2017	12:00-1:00	LIVE	FRESNO	CITIZEN PARTICIPATION
FUND
HEADLINE	Farmworkers Caravan to Mexico City.
PROGRAM	A group of members of the independent farmworkers union recently formed in agroindustry's enclave of San Quintin, begin a national caravan to mark the second anniversary of a major labor strike that paralyzed the fields in this rich valley in Northern Mexico. They are also drawing attention to their fight to raise wages and better benefits for the indigenous field laborers. Guest: Fidel Sánchez, President, Alianza de Organizaciones Nacional, Estatal y Municipal por la Justicia Social, San Quintin, MX; Lorenzo Rodríguez Jiménez, General Secretary, Sindicato Independiente Nacional Democrático de Jornaleros Agrícolas, San Quintín, MX. In the Footsteps of the Magon Brothers. This is a conversation with Diego Flores Magón, the great grandson of Mexican Revolution pioneering activist and journalist Enrique Flores Magón. Following the footsteps of his revolutionary forebears, Diego recently visited California, building a network of activists and artists across the US-Mexico border. He tells the story of La Casa de El Hijo del Ahuizote, the archive and museum that preserves the memory of the Magon brothers. Guest: Diego Flores Magón, Founder and Director, La Casa de El Hijo del Ahuizote, Fresno, CA.
3/7/2017	12:00-1:00	LIVE	FRESNO	IMMIGRATION
FUND	TCE-I
HEADLINE	"Merit-Based" Immigration.
PROGRAM	In his address to Congress, President Trump pushed for a "merit-based system" for immigration. How would this reform change the current immigration system? Legal experts discuss this idea and the recent wave of detentions of young DACA beneficiaries and other immigrants by federal agents and the plans to expand fast-track deportations. Guests: Alma Rosa Nieto, Member, Media Advocacy Committee, AILA, Los Angeles, CA; Rosalba Piña, Attorney, Immigration Law Expert, Chicago, IL.
3/8/2017	12:00-1:00	LIVE	FRESNO
FUND
HEADLINE	A Day Without a Woman.
PROGRAM	Building on the women's marches of January, grassroots feminist organizers are calling for a one-day strike for women on International Women's Day. With rallies and walkouts around the country and the world, organizers are demanding a life free of violence, reproductive justice and labor rights for women. Renowned women's advocates and organizers give their perspective. Guests: Dolores Huerta, President, Dolores Huerta Foundation, Bakersfield, CA; Marcela Romero Rivera, Visiting Assistant Professor, Spanish and Hispanic Studies, Hobart and William Smith Colleges, Geneva, NY; Nestora Salgado, Chief, Olinalá's Community Police, Former Political Prisoner in Mexico, Los Angeles, CA

AIR DATE	TIME	TYPE	ORIGIN	TOPIC1	TOPIC2
3/9/2017	12:00-1:00	LIVE	FRESNO	HEALTH
FUND	TCE-2017
HEADLINE	Women and AIDS. (IN-KIND)
PROGRAM	More than 230,000 women and girls are HIV-positive in the US and many are not getting care or don't have the virus under control. An HIV-positive patient is using her personal experience to help Latinas protect themselves and fight against the stigma of the disease. Guest: María Mejía, Author and LGBT Activist, Spokesperson, Campaign about National Women and Girls HIV/AIDS Awareness Day, Miami, FL. Republicans' Bill to Replace ACA; California's Single Payer. As Congress moves to repeal ACA, analysts comment on the impact of the newly-unveiled replacement plan on Latinos and California. They also comment on a legislative effort that would create a single-payer health care system for coverage for all in California. Guests: State Sen. Ricardo Lara, Democrat – Bell Gardens, Los Angeles, CA; Mayra Alvarez, President, The Children Partnership, Los Angeles, CA; Tony Madrigal, Councilman, City of Modesto, CA
3/10/2017	12:00-1:00	LIVE	MEXICO	MEXICO
FUND	Mexico Edition.
HEADLINE	Mexico Edition.
PROGRAM	Martha Elena Ramírez hosts the program Voz Pública from Mexico City. The civic journalist brings news and analysis on Mexican developments
3/13/2017	12:00-1:00	LIVE	FRESNO
FUND	Children Facing "Toxic Stress"
HEADLINE	Children Facing "Toxic Stress"
PROGRAM	A number of migrant children, who have been victims of violence and trauma in their home countries, arrive to the US to face even more stress and anxiety while been separated from their families and interned in detention centers. This constant state of coping with experiences of terror leads to "toxic stress." What can governments and families do to protect these traumatized children? A distinguished pediatrician discusses questions the treatment these vulnerable children receive while in detention. Also, human rights advocates are launching a campaign urging immigration authorities to release families with young children who have faced prolonged detention. Guest: Dr. Fernando Stein, President, American Academy of Pediatrics, Medical Director, Progressive Care Unit, Texas Children's Hospital, Houston, TX, https://www.aap.org/; Marselha Gonçalves Margerin, Advocacy Director for the Americas, Amnesty International USA, Washington, DC, www.amnestyusa.org
3/14/2017	12:00-1:00	LIVE	FRESNO	IMMIGRATION
FUND	TCE-I
HEADLINE	Sanctuary Cities, Sanctuary State.
PROGRAM	Spurred by a citizen movement, Salinas, a small city in Central California, is taking legal action to protect the city and all other cities against the funding cuts threatened by President Trump against sanctuary cities. In this challenge, Salinas joins San Francisco, New York and Los Angeles. Also, California lawmakers are considering bills to become the nation's first "sanctuary state." Community activist descend on the state capitol to urge legislators to act. Guests: Tony Barrera, Councilmember, District 2, Salinas, CA; Ismael Cortez, Community Activist, Stockton, CA; Arturo Palato, Community Organizer, Faith in Action, Modesto, CA

AIR DATE	TIME	TYPE	ORIGIN	TOPIC1	TOPIC2
3/15/2017	12:00-1:00	LIVE	FRESNO
FUND
HEADLINE	Focus on Corruption.
PROGRAM	At least 24 million would lose health coverage under the new Republican bill to allow for massive tax cuts for the wealthy, and while conservative politicians dwell on fraudulent benefit claims by welfare recipients, what about the multi-billion fraud that private defense contractors make against taxpayers? The issue of ethics at the highest levels in Washington has also been a hot topic under the new administration. Who is overseeing cases of massive profiting off public service? These and other topics are discussed with listeners over the air.
3/16/2017	12:00-1:00	LIVE	FRESNO
FUND	KELLOGG
HEADLINE	Dealing with Anti-Semitism and Xenophobia.
PROGRAM	The UN human rights chief condemned "recent surge in discrimination, anti-Semitism, and violence against ethnic and religious minorities" in the US, including "vilification of Mexicans." In response to the surge of anti-Semitic and anti-immigrant threats and attacks, Jews and Latinos are building alliances. Their agenda includes dealing with the current rise of hateful rhetoric, immigration reform and better relations with Mexico and Latin America. This program includes a report on the decision of two federal judges to block Trump's new travel ban. Guest: Dina Siegel Van, Director, Arthur and Rochelle Belfer Institute for Latino and Latin American Affairs, American Jewish Committee, Washington, DC.
3/17/2017	12:00-1:00	LIVE	FRESNO
FUND
HEADLINE	Mexico Edition.
PROGRAM	Three years after the oil reform of president Peña Nieto, which allows foreign companies to exploit the Mexican crude, the government has given them almost a fifth of the oil fields with proven reserves, and the crude oil extracted from the Gulf of México will supply the needs of US and Chinese industries who won the tenders. Meanwhile, state-owned company Pemex is at risk of losing 65 of the fields with highest potential allocated to it, since it hasn't met the production targets that were established, informed experts in the theme. They also explained that the rise in the price of gasoline is in fact a tax increase, since the government sells it to Mexicans at more than twice the import price. Martha Elena Ramírez, hosts this broadcast of the program Voz Pública, from Mexico City. Guests: (recordings) Dr. Fluvio Ruiz Alarcón, former professional counselor of Pemex; Dr. Sergio Benito Osorio Romero and Francisco Garaicochea Petreirena, President of Grupo de Ingenieros Pemex Constitución del 17; Laura Valdez de los Santos and Silvia Pascual García, denounce the imprisonment of Raimundo Pascual García, arrested for protesting against the increase in the gasoline price, from Amealco, Querétaro.
3/20/2017	12:00-1:00	LIVE	FRESNO	POLITICS
FUND
HEADLINE	First Russia Hearing.
PROGRAM	On this day, a House committee holds the first public hearing to air testimonies on Russia's interfering into the US presidential election. Democrats are calling for an independent panel and special prosecutor to probe the contacts between the Russian government and people close to Trump. Republicans instead urge action against officials who leak secret information. FBI's James Comey reveals there is an ongoing investigation to determine the links between Trump's team and Moscow. Guests provide news and analysis. Guests: Sabrina de Santiago, Director of Government Affairs, Center for American Progress, Washington, DC; José López Zamorano, Correspondent, Washington, DC.

AIR DATE	TIME	TYPE	ORIGIN	TOPIC1	TOPIC2
3/21/2017	12:00-1:00	LIVE	FRESNO	IMMIGRATION
FUND	TCE-I
HEADLINE	Deportation-proof Plans.
PROGRAM	In these times of heightened risk of deportation, what can an immigrant do to protect against immigration raids and create an emergency family plan? How immigrants can protect their assets, their wealth and their children? Experts comment on resources available.
	Guests: María T. Cadenas, Executive Director, Santa Cruz Community Ventures, Santa Cruz, CA; Attorney Rosalba Piña, Immigration Law Expert, Chicago, IL.
3/22/2017	12:00-1:00	LIVE	FRESNO
FUND	Gorsuch Confirmation Hearings.
HEADLINE	On the third day of the Senate hearings to confirm Trump's nominee to the US Supreme Court, analysts discuss the answers of conservative judge Neil Gorsuch to the panel, his record on the bench, and the political battle over the controversial nomination. Republicans want to confirm Gorsuch by next month, on time to join the current court term. Democrats resist, claiming that the seat was stolen from Obama and former nominee Merrick Garland, but will they filibuster and block the nomination?
PROGRAM	On the third day of the Senate hearings to confirm Trump's nominee to the US Supreme Court, analysts discuss the answers of conservative judge Neil Gorsuch to the panel, his record on the bench, and the political battle over the controversial nomination. Republicans want to confirm Gorsuch by next month, on time to join the current court term. Democrats resist, claiming that the seat was stolen from Obama and former nominee Merrick Garland, but will they filibuster and block the nomination?
	Guests: Pedro Torres-Díaz, National President, Hispanic National Bar Association, Miami, FL.
3/23/2017	12:00-1:00	LIVE	FRESNO
FUND	Mexico's Presidential Candidate Blasts Trump.
HEADLINE	Mexico's Presidential Candidate Blasts Trump.
PROGRAM	As part of a tour to meet with Mexican nationals in major US cities, Mexican progressive presidential candidate Andrés Manuel López Obrador visits San Francisco this week. During his stop in New York, he delivered a letter to the United Nations, requesting urgent action against the rhetoric of hate and the executive actions against immigrants in the US. He says those actions have led to human rights violations against Mexicans.
	Guest: Andrés Manuel López Obrador, Leader of MORENA Political Party, Presidential Candidate, San Francisco, CA.
3/24/2017	12:00-1:00	LIVE	MEXICO	MEXICO
FUND	Mexico Edition.
HEADLINE	Mexico Edition.
PROGRAM	Two years after the labor strike of agricultural workers in Baja California, San Quintin, day laborers managed to form a national union and now are negotiating with Mexican authorities the integration of a collective labor agreement, with minimum wage of 300 pesos and affiliation to social security, informed its leaders, who are also preparing the first national meeting of day laborers with representatives of seven states of the country. In addition, the director of the Collective Against Torture and Impunity, speaks of the torture applied by security agents to 50 civilians accused of kidnapping and of belonging to the organized crime. According to the information, the judicial authority is not investigating the alleged abuses of power by these police officers. Martha Elena Ramírez, hosts this broadcast of the program Voz Pública, from Mexico City.
	Guests: (audios) Fidel Sánchez Gabriel, President of the National, State and Municipal Alliance of Organizations, for Social Justice; Avelina Ramírez Ruiz, Secretary of Gender Equity; Lorenzo Rodríguez Jiménez, General Secretary of the Independent National and Democratic Union of Agricultural Laborers; Edith Escareño, General Coordinator of the Collective Against Torture and Impunity.

AIR DATE	TIME	TYPE	ORIGIN	TOPIC1	TOPIC2
3/25/2017	01:00-2:00	LIVE	FRESNO	CIVIL RIGHTS
FUND	KELLOGG
HEADLINE	"Worse than Flint II"
PROGRAM	In this second hour of the panel aired in simulcast by Radio Bilingüe and KPFK from Los Angeles, neighbors and community activists talk about the consequences of living in this highly-poisoned area of East Los Angeles. The area was contaminated with lead and arsenic by a local smelting plant. They complain about the slow pace of the cleanup work, the double standard when dealing with environmental crisis in poor and Latino vs. affluent and White neighborhoods, and urge authorities to issue a declaration of public health emergency. Guests: Felipe Aguirre, Former Mayor of Maywood, Director, Comité ProUno; Violeta Alvarez, Former Mayor of Bell; Teresa Marquez, President, Mothers of East LA, Grandmother of Impacted Children; Martha Jimenez, Terrace Community Activist, Member, Advisory Committee, California Department of Toxic Substances Control, Boyle Heights, CA; Joe Gonzalez, Affected Neighbor, Cancer Patient, Community Activist; Charlene Contreras, Expert on Environmental Health, Department of Public Health, County of Los Angeles; Alberto Rivadeneyra, Nurse, Department of Public Health, County of Los Angeles; Doctor James Dahlgren, Environmental Health Scientist; Rocío Maya, Member of the Public; Karin López, Community Activist, South Gate, CA.
3/25/2017	12:00-1:00	LIVE	FRESNO	CIVIL RIGHTS
FUND	KELLOGG
HEADLINE	"Worse than Flint." (SIMULCAST)
PROGRAM	In a case of massive lead contamination once described "worse than Flint," thousands of people and their children in Latino communities in East Los Angeles are coping with the lethal legacy of the now-closed Exide battery plant. And while California has undertaken the largest cleanup effort of its kind, frustrated neighbors continue to ask: How long is it going to take to remove the toxic soil and are the current cleanup methods the safest? How are our children's lives and health still being affected in the meantime? Why are we being kept on the dark? Concerned neighbors, community advocates, state and local officials and public health experts convened in a radio forum aired from the studios of KPFK in Los Angeles and simulcast through Radio Bilingüe's Latino public radio network. This is a repeat of the first hour. Guests: Assemblyman Miguel Santiago, California State Assembly, Los Angeles, CA; Felipe Aguirre, Director, Comité Pro Uno, Maywood, CA; Joe Gonzalez, Neighbor, Boyle Heights, CA; Teresa Márquez, Chair, Mothers of East LA, Los Angeles, CA; Martha Jiménez, member, Community Advisory Committee, Clean up work, Los Angeles, CA.
3/27/2017	12:00-1:00	PRERECORDED	FRESNO	CIVIL RIGHTS
FUND	KELLOGG
HEADLINE	"Worse than Flint." Simulcast (IN-KIND)
PROGRAM	In a case of massive lead contamination once described "worse than Flint," thousands of people and their children in Latino communities in East Los Angeles are coping with the lethal legacy of the now-closed Exide battery plant. And while California has undertaken the largest cleanup effort of its kind, frustrated neighbors continue to ask: How long is it going to take to remove the toxic soil and are the current cleanup methods the safest? How are our children's lives and health still being affected in the meantime? Why are we being kept on the dark? Concerned neighbors, community advocates, state and local officials and public health experts convened in a radio forum aired from the studios of KPFK in Los Angeles and simulcast through Radio Bilingüe's Latino public radio network. This is a repeat of the first hour. Guests: Assemblyman Miguel Santiago, California State Assembly, Los Angeles, CA; Felipe Aguirre, Director, Comité Pro Uno, Maywood, CA; Joe Gonzalez, Neighbor, Boyle Heights, CA; Teresa Márquez, Chair, Mothers of East LA, Los Angeles, CA; Martha Jiménez, member, Community Advisory Committee, Clean up work, Los Angeles, CA.

AIR DATE	TIME	TYPE	ORIGIN	TOPIC1	TOPIC2
3/28/2017	12:00-1:00	LIVE	FRESNO	IMMIGRATION
FUND	TCE-I
HEADLINE	Cities Against the Wall.
PROGRAM	Leading mayors from around the country declared a Cities' Day of Immigration to show support for immigrants and celebrate their value to the national economy and the local economies. Also, Attorney General Sessions threatened to begin crackdown on Sanctuary Cities. And Berkeley and Oakland became the first cities to divest from companies that work on the border wall. These and other stories are discussed in this edition. Guests: Abel Guillén, Councilmember, City of Oakland, Oakland, CA; Jorge Elorza, Mayor of Providence, RI, Immigration Reform Task Force Co-Chair, U.S. Conference of Mayors, Providence, RI; Hillary Ronen, Supervisor, County of San Francisco, San Francisco, CA; Sen. Kevin de León, President Pro Tem, California State Senate, Sacramento, CA (audio recording).
3/29/2017	12:00-1:00	LIVE	FRESNO
FUND
HEADLINE	Trumpcare Collapses.
PROGRAM	The Republican plan to repeal and replace Obama's health law imploded after their leader Ryan couldn't gather the votes from his majority. Among the hardest hit by the bill would have been low-income people in conservative counties and Republican-run congressional districts. Analysts comment on this story and examine the meaning of this political defeat, its impact on Trump's agenda, and the next battles around the implementation of the current health care law. Guests: Ana B. Ibarra, News Reporter, Kaiser Health News, Sacramento, CA; Sinsi Hernández-Cancio, Director of Health Equity, Families USA, Washington, DC; Luis Alvarado, Republican Strategist, Media Analyst, Los Angeles, CA
3/30/2017	12:00-1:00	LIVE	FRESNO
FUND
HEADLINE	Slavery in the Fields on Prime Time TV.
PROGRAM	In its third season on the ABC network, the award-winning drama TV series "American Crime" tells the story of undocumented Mexican workers who suffer exploitation and abuse in a modern-day slavery system in fictional Hesby Farms, in the tomato fields of North Carolina. Writers of the TV series comment on the stories behind the drama. And, on the eve of César Chávez Day, a farm labor leader reflects on the impact of Chávez legacy on today's organizing work. Guests: Janine Salinas Schoenberg, Staff Writer, American Crime; Moisés Zamora, Staff Writer, American Crime.
3/31/2017	12:00-1:00	LIVE	MEXICO	MEXICO
FUND
HEADLINE	Mexico Edition.
PROGRAM	Although the Mexican Supreme Court limited some of the abuses of the law regulating the use of public force in the state of Mexico, it did endorse the use of firearms to dissolve demonstrations and public protests. The resolution will increase the risk for hundreds of activists who defend their communal lands (ejidos), water and forests. In that entity, construction companies are already asphaltting the new highway that will connect the state with the new international airport of Mexico, and real estate companies have plans for housing projects. In addition, a delegation of civilians from the United States is promoting the release of Dr. José Manuel Mireles, and denounces the isolation in which he is kept in the penitentiary. When he was the leader of a rural group from the state of Michoacan called "autodefensas" (self-defenses), in 2014, Mireles was charged for carrying firearms exclusively permitted for military use. He is currently being held in a federal prison in Tepic, Nayarit. Martha Elena Ramírez, hosts this broadcast of the program Voz Pública, from Mexico City. Guests: Génesis Godínez and Rubén Vera, Unidos por Michoacán, USA; audio excerpts: Antonio Lara Duque, lawyer and Coordinator of the Center for Human Rights, Zeferino Ladrillero; Ricardo Ovando, spokesman for the Communal System of Tecama's Drinking Water; Sergio Velázquez, Frente Nueve de junio, Coyotepec, State of Mexico; Víctor Álvarez, Asamblea Nacional de Trabajadores; Emiliano Navarrete Victoriano, father of José Ángel Navarrete González, student of Ayotzinapa disappeared in September 2014.				